NATIONAL WHEELMEN ADJOURN. Refer All Unfinished Business to

Appropriate Committees.

Appropriate Committees. Appropriate Committees. PHILADELPHIA, Feb 16.-The national assembly of the League of American Wheel-men adjourned today after referring all the unfinished business to appropriate commit-tees. Conway W. Sams presented the report tees. Conway W. Sams presented the report tees contact for the future publication of the League of American Wheelmen Bul-letin. The report stated that owing to the brief period given to consider the matter the committee had not been able to reach a definite conclusion. Sterling Elliott, the present publisher, had agreed to issue four additional numbers of the Weekly Bulletin. The selection of a meeting place for the next assembly was left in the hands of the executive committee.

Cox Wine Walking Match. ST LOUTS. Feb. 14.-Amid the plaudits of a big growd of spectators Thomas Cox of New York dashed across the finishing line at 10.20 o clock tonight, a winner of the six-day go-as-you-please race. Cox finished with a score of 545 miles. He was wan and drawn, but without question was the strongest man of the bunch at the end. Just before the finish came he ran half a dozen haps at a speed that carried him around his competitors a dozen times. Day, the Englishman finished second in very fair condition, with a score 546 miles. 'Old Sport' Campana only walked four miles during the day, but this put him within the money at 450 miles. Following is the score for the six days: Cox. 545 miles, Day, 542, Barnes, 559; Cam-pana, 450; Graham, 455; Deam, 416; Hegel-man, 412; Hart, 280; Glick, 285. Cox Wins Walking Match.
