LONDON, Feb. 27 .- The Brussels corroshandoned his food supplies ondent of the Dally As a result of special inquiries in Boer circles here I am able to corroborate fully the reported danger from the intrigues of the Afrikander bund and the coming congress. Unless the ends of the bund are otherwise attained it will fan the flame of rebellion throughout the colony.

but kept abundant supplies of cartridges General Buller on Saturday faced the last and strongest positions of the Boers who bar his way to Ladysmith. The strenyous fighting indicates a battle between armies rather than rearguard actions protecting a retreat.

On Thursday and Friday he lost fortyrepresenting a total loss of 400.

General White's guns worked on Saturday on the Boers' positions and a heliogram from Ladysmith reported that the Boers were retreating and that larger rations were being issued in view of the fac that relief seemed at hand.

Nothing has been heard from Mafeking since February 12. The movement on the weldt away from the railway is becoming increasingly difficult for large bodies of troops, as the grass is burned up. General French has to wagon forage for his horses and even the infantry finds the long marches harder than before, as forage for the transport animals must be carried. This requires the formation of garrisoned depots.

Sickly Season Sets In.

The ordinary campaigning season is over and the sickly season for both men and ani- pital ship Princess of Wales, picked out the mals has set in. The technical military writers take these things into consideration in forecasting events.

The Daily Chronicle says it learns from private letters that British rifles and ammunition have been landed on the southern coast of Cape Colony, presumably for the Dutch colonists. Lord Roberts has recently received seventy-two additional pieces of artillery. Whether all have been sent to Paardeberg b not known.

Probably the eighth division will leave England next Monday. Four Thousand in Cronje's Camp.

The Dally Mail has the following dispatch from Paardeberg, dated Sunday:

There are about 4,000 men beleaguered In General Cronje's camp, exclusive of the losses he has hitherto sustained. His wife is not with him, although there are women and children in the camp.

The Boer position is now almost exclu sively confined to the river bed. The enemy are entirely at our mercy, but Lord Roberts is treating them with great consideration, from motives of humanity.
