The national campaign in this neck of the woods will begin next Tuesday, the date set for the democratic primaries for the selection of delegates to a state convention to choose delegates to the national convention at Kansas City.

Enthusiastic local Bryanites are already discussing arrangements for going to the Kansas City national democratic convention with a special train loaded with clamorous Bryan men to contribute more than their share to the "noise" which Mr. Bryan professes to consider of such little consequence In the convention surroundings. It is intended that the Bryan band from Nebraska shall be sufficiently strong-lunged to test the endurance of stone battlements along Kansas City's streets.

The late popocratic candidate for mayor had his aristocratic hands soiled by shaking hands with the laborers all in vain. It was a terrible sacrifice to make for nothing.

CARLOAD OF BILLY GOATS

Here's a Good One on a Porter Who Works for the Cudahy Packing Company. A good story is told in which the colored porter, M F. Singleton, at the offices of the Cudahy Packing company at South Omaha is the central figure. It seems Singleton is possessed of the modest ambition to become the owner of a billygoat He has expressed his desire time and again for a white billygoat to every man in the department from E. A. Cudahy down to the

And his troubles all grew out of his desire to possess this little aromatic animal. The boys concluded they would put up a job on him, which they did and sprung it yesterday morning at 8:30 with Frank Kennedy as the chief plotter. Singleton was called to the 'phone and there informed that a carload of billygoats lay on the track for him and asked for instructions as to disposition. The porter was so paralyzed with astonishment that for a while he could make no audible repliy. Finally he managed Unsatisfactory Horse Trade.

Frank Doty of 1898 Marcy street and H
Stubin had an unsatisfactory horse trade Thursday. When Daty returned home in the evening he found the horse he has traded tied to his fence. He called up the police station and wanted the animal taker away. After considerable skirmishing over the telephone it was found that neither man wanted the minual, so it was taken to the city pound and will be said at auction
according to law unless one of the parties to the trade intervense and pays the costs.
