SHORT HAND.

There are always a contingent of people who desire something cheap and easy to learn. What would a knowledge of shorthand be worth if it could be acquired without effort or time? If such a fact were possible, that fact alone would make the acortsition of a given thing valueless. It is estimated that there are ninety students In this city now experimenting with a new system of shorthand. The result will be, at the end of six months, ninety mediocre stenographers on the market scrambling for positions. Business men, however, will continue to call upon BOYLES Catalogue furnished on application. Bee Bldg. 63-M485 15

The secretary explained that in all probability from 35 to 45 per cent of the outstanding bonds, which may be refunded under the new law will be presented for exchange within a comparatively short time. This would involve cash payments as premiums to the holders of the old bonds amounting to from $30,000,000 to $35,000,000. A question which has occupied the attention of the secretary of late is whether this posits with depository banks, or whether a part should be taken from the treasury and a part from the banks. Attention was called to the fact that even f considerable sums were drawn from the depository banks in these settlements, ft would only amount to a transfer from one bank to another or from the credit of the government to the credit of the party surceipts keep up to their present mark.

The secretary's purpose, as stated to the cabinet, is to create as little financial disturbance as possible in the settlement of (Should be read daily by all interested, as changes may occur at any time.)

Foreign mails for the week ending March 19, 1990, will close (PROMPTLY to all changes) at the General Postoffice, as follows: sively heavy at the outset, it is altogether probable that a considerable share of the premiums will be taken from the treasury, but should there be a rush for the exchange of bonds it is quite likely that the banks would be called upon to share in the payments. On the other hand, the secretary does not propose that the present available cash balance in the treasury, which now accounts to about $300,000,000, including the > creached upon cash to be paid as premiums shall come from the treasury, the depository banks, or both, depends for its solution largely upon conditions which cannot now be foretold. The new bonds will be dated April 1 and the
