THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 1900.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

6

E. ROSEWATER, Eduor. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
 India
 OF
 Strike (RIF100R)

 Indiy Bee (and Sunday), One Year.
 $ 00

 Builty Bee and Sunday, One Year.
 $ 00

 Bunday Bee, One Year.
 $ 00

 Bunday Bee, One Year.
 $ 00

 Saturday Bee, One Year.
 $ 00

 Weekly Bee, One Year.
 $ 00

 Output
 $ 00

 Saturday Bee, One Year.
 $ 00

 Weekly Bee, One Year.
 $ 00
 OFFICES.

OFFICES. Omaha: The Bee Building. South Omuha: City Hall Building. Twen-by-fifth and N streets. Chicago: Isio Unity Building. New York: Temple Court. Washington: Bel Fourteenth street. CODESEPONDENCE. CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department. BUSINESS LETTERS.

Business letters and remittances should a addressed: The Bee Publishing Company, Omaha.

REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express or postal order myable to The Bee Publishing Company Payable to The Bee Publishing Company Only 2-cent stamps accepted in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except of Omaha or Eastern exchanges, not accepted THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY. ted

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION.

State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.: George B. Tzschuck, secretary of The Hos Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily. Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee, printed during the month of February, 1960, was as fol-lows:

ests.

OWB1	and the second sec
1	15
2	16
3	17
4	20,880
21 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	90.010
6	20
7	26.710
8	26,840
9	26,780
10	26.830
11	25
12 26,560	26
13	27.120
14	28, 26, 470

758,595 Total Less unsold and returned copies. 10,006

Net total sales. Net daily avera 748,589 Not total sales Net daily average 26,735 GEORGE E TZSCHUCK, See'y and Treas Subscribed and sworn to before me this Sth day of February, A. D. 1990 (Seal) M. B. HUNGATE, Notary Public.

We have now had the resolutions of the Boer hespital relief committee, but are still waiting for a financial statement.

Omaha must not imagine that it has a monopoly on local polities. South Omaha and Council Bluffs are enjoying their full quota these days.

Before shedding your winter overcoat it would be well to remember that the month of March is usually a most uncertain quantity in this latitude,

We feel sure that South Omaha could not help but effect a marked improvement in its municipal government by going republican in the coming city campaigu.

through with his week's experience he will probably realize what a mistake he have already noted the fact that the made in exchanging a one-day-a-week agrarian element achieved a very dejob for a seven-day one and be perfectly cided victory in the Reichstag a few willing to quit.

The Kentucky militia will soon have a good path worn in marching up the hill

The first question for the American ence, so far as it relates to foreign com- lose. If the people interested in having cial advancement and prosperity, or will and shipping dues. permit a party to come into power. The importance of such an agreement matter will go by default. which proposes to overthrow the policies between the powers interested in that that have produced these conditions and part of the world cannot be estimated. are certain to maintain them. It is China, with its millions of people, is to knowledge that all is not lovely at the trict, but we are satisfied it is not greater a very plain and simple matter and be a free field for the commerce of the Institute for the Feeble Minded at really has very little to do with the world and the nation which can best Beatrice and will give a hearing to the licket. propositions in regard to new dependent supply its demands will reap the trade charges made against Superintendent Probles of Pender. Let him be nominated the public mind.

The great question-the paramount American manufacturer and if he would | who owe their positions to his appointquestion-is the protection of American secure his share of this great harvest ment adding to them by their misdeeds, labor and whatever does not conform he must be up and doing. He must itself to this is certain to find condemnacultivate it himself, now that the govtion at the hands of a majority of the ernment has provided him with the want advertisements than any other Ne-American people. This is a fact so well opportunity to extend his trade. The braska paper, the renewed activity in established, so incontrovertibly secure, field is practically a virgin one, for real estate circles being especially rethat we presume nobody will question though millions of imported goods flected in the advertisements of the real it. Whatever legislation or whatever yearly enter China it is but a drop in estate agents. Unless all signs fail, policy may in its results menace the the bucket compared with future possi- Omaha is entering upon a period that interests and welfare of American labor we undertake to say will be opposed by have previously hedged it about are re- at satisfactory prices.

a majority of the American people and moved. that opposition will be fatal to any This diplomatic achievement is speparty that shall be responsible for such cially timely because the American dicate Nebraska is getting its share of legislation. The predominant sentiment manufacturer is for the first time reach- the immigration which is headed westing out in earnest for the trade of the ward from the eastern states. There is in this country today is unquestionably in favor of protecting and safeguarding world. With this spirit once aroused no state in the union more prosperous it is not to be supposed the manufac- than Nebraska and the people of the Auterican labor. It resents the idea that any new elements muy be introturers of this country will sleep on overcrowded cast who wish a chance to duced into our borders to compete with their opportunities. There is no reason expand show their good judgment in why, within a few years, the orient can- heading this way, our own people in the struggle for subsistence. While the average American not be made a debtor instead of a cred-believes that we should deal fairly and iter in the exchange of trade, just as justly with the people who have come has been done with Europe. under our guardianship through the war If the present administration had with Spain, reduced to an abstract propnothing else to record in the way of osition every American citizen who indiplomatic accomplishments than the telligently considers the matter believes throwing open of the doors of China that our first duty is to consider what is to trade it would be memorable and its for the benefit of our home industries effects upon the affairs of the world and labor.

beyond present computation. In all discussions regarding the treatment of the new acquisitions this im-THE QUESTION OF CONSOLIDATION. portant point should and must receive Omaha business men and citizens gen consideration. It is the vital matter erally whose interests are identified with n the whole controversy. The proper the growth and prosperity of the city safeguarding of American industries, are just beginning to realize the imporwhich have been built up through long tance of the federal census which is to years of effort, until they are today in fix the position of Omaha in all official the forefront, and the protection of records and statistics for the next ten American labor, which is today more years. They are beginning to realize prosperous and better satisfied than the that while other cities, against which labor of any other country on earth, we Omaha must be measured, have been stretching out and increasing their pop-was taken.

must still adhere to as the true policy of the nation, and anything that would ulation by the annexation of adjacent drift us away from this should be dissuburbs we have done nothing at all in that direction, but on the contrary, so carded as inimical to American Interfar as territory is concerned, are exactly where we were when the census of 1890

TARIFF WITH GERMANY. What will be the ultimate result of

While no one would wish to have the the course of the German Reichstag ity limits extended to take in any more upon the commercial relations of the cornfields or lay out streets in front of two countries it is impossible to say, but cacant building lots, the city of South the situation is not such as to encourage Omaha is to all intents and purposes a By the time Editor Sheldon gets the idea that those relations will be part of Omaha and could be consolidated improved in the immediate future. We with it without meeting such objections. The difficulties in the way of consolidation are due almost entirely to the law governing in such cases. Under the days ago and it remains to be seen cess into the Bundesrath, with which it has still to deal. There are intimations that it may not be successful in this body, but the probabilities are on the and then down again unless quiet is that it may not be successful in this tion and agreeing upon the terms of the richest and most prosperous places in

THE QUESTION FOR THE COUNTRY. for the abolition of all spheres of influ- city. That does not leave much time to they must start out at once or the whole

> Governor Poynter has at last "official" do in this part of the world for the enough of his own without the efficers

> The Sunday Bee printed more paid bilitles, when the restrictions which means a stiffer demand for good realty lock.

Reports from all parts of the state in-

Long-Hended Andy. Chicago Record

Carnegle probably figures that it would be cheaper to pay Frick $10,000 than to let the lawyers have $20,000,000.

Large Political Straw Globe-Democrat

Omaha contributes a political straw early in the year. The republican victory there was won against a fusion that made a desperate effort to help Bryan's prospects, but failed.

Now Yon're Talking, Henri,

Louisville Courier-Journal And now Senator Allen arises and says that there is not much domand in his part of the country for bills as small as $5. Times must be humming out in Newbrasky when tens and twenties are the smallest change that the pops care to be bothered with.

Beroie Loyalty.

Chicago Chronicle If abounding loyalty goes for anything the gentleman who did the Associated Press acount of the queen's visit to London should be rewarded with the Garter at the very least. It wouldn't do to give him the Thistle, because, to plaglarize Lord Palmerston. he would probably eat it.

Cruel Knockout. Indianapolis Journal.

It appears that national issues played a prominent part in the municipal election in Omaha last Tuesday, where the republicans failed in November. The republican candidate for mayor was re-elected by an increased majority-a fact which cannot inspire the supporters of Mr. Bryan.

Cuba's Prospects. Boston Globe

General Wilson, the military governor of Matanzas, by no means shares the pessimistic opinions expressed as to Cuba in present charter the steps required in- some quarters. "The prospects of Cuba are people to ask themselves today is merce, and the ports of China are Omaha make the best possible showing ing mentioned as a possible candidate for first half of February furnish a biograph whether they will continue the condi- thrown open to the entire world free in the census returns want to make a the republican nomination for governor, but lifs in Uncle Sam's criental metropolis. T tions which have brought them commer- from the impositions of customs tariffs move in the direction of consolidation there is doubt expressed as to whether he customary temperature of the town was many would accept. We trust he will consent to ferfally increased early in the month b be a candidate, for a better man in all re- the annual rush for liquor licenses, and if spects cannot be found.

WITHIN THE REPUBLICAN FOLD.

officer in charge did a land office business "Each applicant," says the Tribune, "has Wausa Gazette: The fusionists crow over a great majority in this congressional dis- to be carefully examined and each old license closely inspected before a new one can than that it might be easily overcome if issued to take its place. The new lique the right man is placed on the republican license amounts to $600 a year, which sum is Such a man we believe is W. E. Daid in $200 installments. It is a notic able fact that the number of saloons in th cles which are just now uppermost in harvest. Diplomacy has done all it can Lang. Governor Poynter has troubles and victory will no doubt once more perch city has shown a material decrease since the announcement that a new license law on the republican banner in this district. Plattsmouth Post: Friends of ex-Judge and a higher rate would become effective in February.

ECHOES OF OUR WAR.

Spurlock are talking up the possibility or "There will be a general closing up of advisability of making him a delegate to the small saloons on or about this date, espe national convention at Philadelphia. The cially in the districts of Tondo and Binoudo Post believes that it is just such reliable meawhere the native vendor of the vilest al who ought to go to the assemblies where coholic consoctions fionrishes. As a general their voices are needed to select the nation's bing the saloankeepers who were at first chief executives. Cass county and Nebraska heartily disgusted with the new license law would be well represented by Judge Spurhave auddenly become cognizant of the fac that it is best for all concerned, as it will Falls City Journal: Judge E. A. Tucker's force the closing up of all the dives and then candidacy for delegate to the national conpeople will be bound to patronize the first vention at Philadelphia meets with the lass saloons or none at all." hearty approval of the republicans of this county. The judge is one of the stalwart Felipe Salvadora, a native prophet and republicans of the county and deserves recounder of a new religion, allowed his powognition at the hands of the party. He is rs of conversation to get the better of his among the ablest lawyers of southeastern Nebraska and it would only be repaying him lug at Fort Santiago. Salvadora had nein part for service rendered the party to cumulated 2,000 followers, to whom he grant his request. preached the gospel of war against the in-

Auburn Posti Pawnee county has a can didate for delegate to the republican national humane intentions. That settled his job. convention in the person of ex-Senator The boys in blue or brown gathered him recently: Lindsey, whose republicanism cannot be into a convenient hastile, where his ardor questioned. Last year he was in charge of is undergoing refrigeration.

the republican speakers during the campaign and for a number of years has been The Tribune announces the formation of an earnest worker in the ranks, and Pawnee the Manila Library association and the an ounty thinks it but a deserving honor to a pointment of a committee to take charge o worthy man to send bim as a delegate to the furnishing of the library rooms. An apthe national republican convention. peal setting forth the objects of the library Central City Nonparellt An exchange very and asking for support was drafted and truthfully remarked that if the voters of the will be circulated in the United States. state had an intimate acquaintance with A. E. Cady there would be no doubt of his Thousands of natives attended the recon election, in speaking of him in connection tion of Archhishop Chapelle in Manila Febwith the nomination for governor. It is mary 2. very doubtful if Mr. Cady could be induced broke up the first reception In January, was o accept the nomination, but he would cerabsent, and the reception was according to ainly make an ideal candidate, one whose the Tribune, "a brilliant social function. public and private record is above attack great many American women and contlema nd who has the ability to fill with credit vere present. The young Spanish and Mosthe position of chief executive. tizo women from the convents, attired in Auburn Post: E. A. Tucker of Humtheir pure white dresses, cut a pleasing figboldt aspires to be sent to Philadelphia next ure and attracted much attention. They June by the republicans of this state as a were marshaled by the eisters in a 'column lelegate to the national republican convenof twos,' and paid their respects to the delation to renominate William McKinley for gate in this formation. president. Mr. Tucker put in a number of weeks last fall making campaign speeches hishops the guests filed into the refreshment now. for the party and every year he can be found room, where long tables decorated with with his coat off hustling for the success of flowers and bearing various refections stood. his party, and now he is only asking an The hours for the reception had previously empty honor, and he thinks he ought to rebeen announced as from 5 to 7. However, ceive it as a recognition for past service. the guests were so numerous that It was Fairbury Enterprise: There is a move considerably after 8 before the archbishops ment being made to secure the chairhad an opportunity to rest from their its manship of the republican state central comome dulles. mittee for D. E. Thompson, the gentleman who advanced the money to bring the sol-The Tribune sermonizes editorially on the diers back from San Francisco. Mr. Thompdarming frequency of robberies of private son is certainly a shrewd business man and residences in Manila, and intimates the is reputed as a first-class organizer. This is barsher and more expeditious punishmen a combination that should be taken into han the courts dispense is necessary to check the evil tendency. "No Manila bank, consideration in this year of our Lord, 1909. We need the active services of just such ays the Tribune, "will accept a deposit o ability in order to again place Nebraska less than $500 for safe keeping, and the resafely in the republican column. sult is that there is not in this city of ove

Ashland Gazette: The friends of Hon, A 100,000 population a single place where an Laverty will present the name of that genordinary bank deposit may be made. Such tleman before the district delegate convenprimitive, and to an American at least, wholly unusual and unbusinesslike conditio tion as a candidate for one of the delegates from the Fourth district to the republican of affairs as this should not be allowed to the constitution, inflame the lungs, and often lead to Pneumonia. Cough syrups are useless. The system must be given strength and force to throw off the disease.

Colds THE Chest are dangerous; they weaken

Scott's Emulsion will do this. It strengthens the lungs and builds up the entire system. It conquers the inflammation, cures the cough, and prevents serious

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

crouble.

only the United States government's fiscal affairs exceed those of the city in amount udgment and is slowly recuperating in the and complication. The financial affairs of other large cities such as Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston mee'n meignificant is commarison with New York's. The city does aders, incidentally successing at Uncle Sam's not expect to get out of debt. It doesn't want to. A student of municipal affairs said

"To paraphrase David Harum, 'It's a good thing for a city to be in debt. It keeps it rem brooding on being rich."

The city has many vast cuterprises under way: In eighty-five seconds one day fast week the Board of Estimate and Apportionment methorized the issue of $35,500,000 bonds for the rapid transit tunnel. The bridge across the East river and others proposed will cost at heast $40,000,000. _Still other bridges are contemplated across the Harlem and in Brooklyn and Queens. Public parks are being faid out constantly The new hall of records will cost $5,750,000. The anti-friar element, which In all parts of the city new school houses are being built. The bonds issued for this purpose in 1899 amounted to $7,673,640. The pavement of streets, the opening and grading of highways and similar works are always going on.

The assessed valuation of the real estate in the city is $2,960,836,149. The personal property valuation has not been made sublic yet. The city is permitted by the constitution to borrow money on bonds up o 10 per cent of its assessed valuation. It "After paying their respects to the arch- has a borrowing margin of about $29,000.000

A SMILE OR TWO.

Boston Transcript: Mrs. Greene-I supme your uncle is very fond of music" Mrs. Gray-Oh. dear, no. He has a horough knowledge of it, you know.

Yonkers Statesmail: "Which is the head barber?" inquired the customer, "We're all head barbers," replied the artist: "what did you surpose we we're-orn doctors' Washington Star: "I am provel to TAY that I did not spend a dollar to settice my lection." "I congratulate you," answered Senator orghum. "You got off cheap-but you took forchum a terrible risk."

Brookiyn Life: "I should not think such a prominent man would care to have a heap clear named after him." "Why not? He likes to have his name in everybody's mouth.

Indianapolia Press; "You have met Mollie, haven't you the soldiers have not succeeded in killing anything except time.

For true democracy commend us to the local democratic machine, which assumes to itself the right to appoint delegates to the state conventions without consulting the popular choice for fear it might go against the machine,

The year 1900 is a political year and will be full of politics from now until the conclusion of the November election, Newspaper readers not specially interested in politics will have to bear with the politicians as best they can.

The only candidate on the city ticket who ran as a democrat without any fusion indorsement was beaten by a smaller plurality than most of the fusion candidates. This does not indicate that a nominee gains much by fusion-in Omaha at least.

Notice the uniform chorus of rejoicing in the republican newspapers throughout Nebraska over the success of the republican ticket in the Omaha municipal any concessions to this country. The election. The republican victory in Omaha promises to act as a leaven for States can afford to enter into a tariff the republican forces of the entire state.

The superintendent of the institution kind with the United States. Everyfor the blind tries to justify his expulsion of students by insisting that his action was necessary to preserve disci- for both nations, but this country could pline. While the superintendent is entitled to his version it will still not be many, for there are American products out of order for the governor to look which the German people must have, into the matter and make sure that no injustice has been done.

Secretary Laws of the State Board of Transportation pleads as an excuse for not answering the letter of the Norfelk | relations between the United States and | people in regard to the date for hearing Germany will obtain in the latter countheir case that he was so busy he overlooked it. A set of biograph pictures busy to write a letter would be a draw ing card anywhere in Nebraska.

The American malze propaganda is to give an exhibition in connection with the many. Paris exposition for the purpose of demonstrating to the people of European countries the wholesome qualities of American corn as a feodstuff. As a corn state Nebraska has much to gain by enlarging the demand for its product abroad, and it is certainly to be hoped reached a successful conclusion. As that the propaganda will be productive he comes direct from a personal visit of good results.

given to idle talk, his statements are When London wakes up on St. Patdoubtless accurate, though no confirmarick's day and sees the Irish flag floating from the Mansion house many a man tion has been vouchasfed as yet from will rub his eyes to convince himself the State department.

with the secretary of state, and from the further fact that he is a man not people.

It has been generally accepted for that it is not an optical illusion. The Irish soldiers of the queen have cer- some time that negotiations had reached money belongs to the people of the state tainly earned some recognition by their a practically successful conclusion, and they have as good a right to know gallantry in South Africa and if the though, according to President Wheeler, what is being done with it as the state present unhappy war should be the they are of much wider scope than commonly believed. The agreement is enmeans of a reconciliation between England and Ireland and the outcome justice tered into by England, France, Gerto both people the war will not be devoid many. Russia and the United States, and June to come together if they want to at his disposal, can stay here as long as he of compensations.

body, but the probabilities are on the union. The proposition would then have other side, although there is a powerful to be ratified by the voters of each city influence being brought to bear, by the and its terms carried out as therein pro commercial organizations of Germany vided. and the consumers of that country, In its present condition of municipal against the restrictions which the meat indebtedness South Omaha would have bill will impose upon the importation everything to gain from consolidation. of meats not only from the United which would at the same time do away States, but from all countries. with much of the duplicate city govern-In regard to the question of retalla-ment now supported by our taxpayers. tion, which it is very much to be hoped The charter would have to be remodeled will not be seriously raised, although at the next session of the legislature so it must be confessed there is danger of as to insure South Omaha proper repreit, the trade statistics are interesting. sentation in the Omaha city government. It appears that last year we imported and it might possibly be advisable to goods from Germany to the value of consolidate the school districts later, over $89,000,000, most of which could The opposition to annexation may be have been produced in the United States or obtained from other countries. These importations consisted largely of beet who could not hope to figure so promisugar, though many other articles figure nently in the politics of a consolidated in the list. Our exports to Germany municipality. Whether this opposition largely exceeded our imports from that country, yet while the balance of trade proposed consolidation could not be told was in our favor the German Importain advance.

tions of American merchandise repre-Summed up in a sentence, then, it is sented simply the necessities of that not too late to consolidate Omaha and country and were absolutely apart from South Omaha in time for the impending census. Consolidation can be had, the real question is not whether the United question being only whether the people of the two cities are ready for it. In war with Germany, but whether that this connection it may be safely ascountry can afford a conflict of this serted that unless consolidation is brought about this year Omalia will body understands that a tariff war would be a more or less serious matter ject again before another census period elapses. stand such a fight much better than Ger-

If the people of Cuba are in need of relief the proper method of extending it while there is hardly a product of Gerhas been adopted. The distribution of many that is absolutely essential to our ways has a tendency to create permanent pauperism. The furnishing of oxen There is still a possibility that a more rational view of the proper commercial and tools to the farmers with which they can work and help themselves is a move in the right direction. With the try, though recent expressions do not encourage the hope that this will be the means the population should soon be of the secretaries when they were too case. Meanwhile there appears to be rendered self-sustaining. no disposition on the part of our government to pursue anything but an en-The statistics of the Department of tirely friendly and conciliatory course Agriculture show that the farmers are doing pretty well. They still hold almost in our commercial relations with Gerone-third of the last wheat crop and over one-third of the corn crop. In-SIGNAL DIPLOMATIC ACHIEVEMENT. other crops the proportion is about the From President Ide Wheeler of the same. In these prosperous times the University of California comes the anspeculators are not making all the nouncement that the negotiations lookmoney, but the farmer is getting his ing to the "open door" in China have share through being able to hold or sell his crop, as he thinks best.

The people of Nebraska are still in ignorance as to where the idle school money is deposited. If the money belongs to Treasurer Meserve he is amply justified in refusing to state where it is deposited, but there are many people in this state who have a belief that the treasurer has. Omaha and South Omaha have until according to President Wheeler provides appear in the census as a consolidated wants to.

A Deep and Wet Ravine, Springfield Republic

The survey of the Pacific cable route has liscovered the fact that the greatest depth of the ocean is between Guam and the Midway islands, where six miles is the distance from the water's surface to bottom. A ravine vention at Philadelphia in June., If Joha there runs north and south so far on the foor of the ocean that the cable must be let down into the depths at that point. This able protect is an expensive undertaking yet it is as desirable as it is feasible.

Trusts and Wages. Philadelphia Record

The proposed increase of 10 per cent in the wages of 20,000 employes of the tube manufacturers' combine will give those working men a deserved share in the profits of that great industrial trust. It should not be forexpected chiefly from the officeholders gotten, however, that the enhanced prices and local politicians in South Omaha, charged consumers of the commodity more than equal the proposed increase of wages and that the generosity now displayed by the manufacturers carries no compensation to those workingmen who were thrown out would be strong enough to block the of employment when the trust was formed.

M'KINLEY AND PATRONAGE.

President Who Converts Political Enemies Into Friends. Springfield (Mass.) Republican

It has become a trite observation that th president makes a dozen enemies for every appointment given out. Senator Shermat once said, as we recall, that the power of the federal patronage as applied in Ohio cost the party holding it from ten to twenty votes for every office filled. And if thi were true in the case of Mr. McKinley h have little incentive to take up the pro- might about as well throw up his hands, fo he has had far more appolatments to make within an equal time than any other presi dent was ever given the opportunity to distribute But Mr. McKinley is a very exceptional man in this particular. We are not sure but what the rule should be reversed in operations around Ladysmith.

provisions, except in emergencies, al- his case so as to read that for every office The transfer of General Cronie and hi he fills he makes from ten to twenty friends Spartan warriers to the Island of St. Helena and warm supporters. His genlus for pleassuggests a wholesome fear of the Afrikaning-for drawing those who approach him ders of the Cape.

to him, for softening the pangs of disappointment in the office seeker, for impressing people with the idea of his own impartial natural richness of the soil by this sincerity and gracious good will-has never brains with love of - the land and its been equaled by any of his predecessors. BIOTIS.

> place away with an impression of having one of the first British officers to fall in been granted all when obtaining nothing. the war, has married again. Sir W. I The story is told at Washington of a Massa-Symons, K. C. B., was killed in the battle chusetts congressman of the opposite party of Giencoe in October last. Mrs. Symons who besought the president's influence on new husband is said to be about half he behalf of a constituent seeking a position > in one of the departments. He was treated Major Albrecht, the head of the Tranvan so graciously and considerately that he left artillery, captured with Cronje, is not to be the White House under the notion that h placed in the same category as Villebols and had fully succeeded in obtaining what he Marcuil, who are pure adventurers. The wanted. But on recovering his with he major is an ex-German officer, but holds a found that he had only been referred to a Free State burgher's right and has ably lepariment officer, with whom he knew he reorganized the Free State artillery.

could do nothing. Even Senator Ben Tillman of South Carolina, in his rough and rugged bostility to all that the president represents, came away from the White House ome time ago so melted by his treatment there that he called the newspaper corre ondents around him and delivered a eulogy a McKinley. Kelly-Kenny promoted. Consider such a man presiding over the ast patronage of the national government. never so vast as now, and behold him send ing away twenty applicants for one office each one of the disappointed nineteen as which he selects these lines: well satisfied as the actual possessor, if not under the impression of holding the place himself. Why, remarked an observer of the situation at the capital the other day, th opposition might as well throw up its hands for this man, with 150,000 to 200,000 places.

that such persons are all natural born would be extremely gratifying to his numerthieves, but that the temptation offered in ous friends in Saunders county and in many many cases is too strong for their weakly parts of the state to have him chosen as one of our representatives at Philadelphia. developed moral natures to overcome." Wayne Republican: John A. Erbardt o

NEW YORK'S VAST OUTLAYS. Stanton has announced his desire to be sent as a delegate at large by the republicana City Spends More Then Any Other in of Nebraska to the republican national con-

the World. New York Su

in real dead earnest and actually desires Mayor Van Wyck in his last annual menthe honor named, the Republican would be sage to the municipal assembly gave the heartily in favor of bestowing it on him most comprehensive statement of the city' but it has some doubts as to John's sinfinancial condition which has been made, cerity in the matter and believes it has His figures were taken from Comptroller ample reasons for its doubts. There are Color's annual balance sheet. According to me things in the political atmosphere this report, the total bonded debt outstandthat flavor very much of the gentleman ing on January 1 was $358,111,907.11. Of from Stanton being only a "decoy duck, this $45,027,450.88 was in revenue bond intended to help the cause of another. issued in anticipation of the taxes of 1898 and

Nelson Gazette: It may not be generally 1899. The sinking funds amount to $105 435,871.70. During 1899 the city sold hunds known among our readers that G. D. Follto the extent of $30,308,190.68. The budget mer is being spoken of in various places was $93,520,082.03. The difference as a strong man to run for state treasuror raised by taxation and by the income which I on the republican ticket this fall, but such is the case. It is gratifying to know that the city derives from certain departments, notably the Dock and Water department. this class of men are likely to be chosen The receipts during 1899 amounted to for the coming battle. Mr. Follmer is one $220,604,297.01. This includes the money reof the most earnest and practical workers ceived for the account of the city treasury. in Nuckolls county. In the past he has and for the sinking funds, the interest on abored just as faithful for his party when deposits, from the sale of condemned articles allure was inevitable as though success and from many other sources. The exwas a positive certainty, and the work penditures, which include redemption of hasn't all been on his own behalf. He is onds, payment of employes' salaries, ina competent business gentleman and we charges, sinking-fund deposits, should be pleased to see a fighting delegaamounted to $201,846,992.07. The city tion go from this county to the state convention to get his name on the ticket.

BOER AND BRITON.

General Roberts' typewriter loses none of is energy and frequency by rapid marches. General Kitchener is credited with the bulk of the work, but General Roberts gets the boquels.

It is estimated that General Buller and union, and far greater than those of any p other city in the world. In this country General White lost 6.182 men during the Lord Dundonald, the hero of the relief of Ladyamith, is every inch a country 'squire of the new type, which combine

He is thus able to send the applicant for The widow of General Symons, who was Lord Roberts, who is without an heir, will probably be made a duke for his brilliant exploits in the South African campaign, and will also probably be given a sum in cash of $25,000. General Kitchener is to be ele valed several numbers, according to the present program, and Generals French and Trooper W. Barnes of the Second Life Guards writing to his friends at Ashford, Kent, says that one rebel who gave himself un was a B. A., who wrote a poem, from which he selects these times:

The year is ended. What a year!
Who could have prophesied its end.
Have prophesied the sorrow, fear,
The misry and distress that rend
The hearts of thousands in our land,
Of tens of thousands over the sea?
'Midst all our wee we kiss Thy hand,
Submissive, Lord, to Thy decree, Thy ways are to our feeble sense Incomprehensible, tho' just,

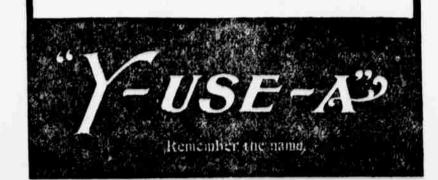

And bears beyond the bending skies The music of her voice. Then, through the mighty anthem's swell Her laughter striketh clear Sweeter than tone of any hell, And angels pause to hear.

Of anguish and despair. What wonder if they ho hold it dear. The laugh that hides no care

So when my baby's laugh rings out, As the city grows its financial transactions xpand. They are now greater than the And say, "Some angel is about." expand. They are now greater than the To try to catch the whisper, too, In vain, in vain 1 try; For angels head what bables do, financial transactions of any six states in the In vain, in vain 1 try; For angels head what ha But pass their elders by.

> USEA BACK A new standard of strength and light ; without a peer in brilliancy, durability, and economy. Costs 50c. and is 50 per cent. cheaper than any other mantle. Try it and see.

laced, remarked the plain girl, as they filed slowly out toward the foyer, 'it is a good deal of trouble to throw an opera cloak over one's shoulders, isn't l 'I don't know," said the handsome girl. "I never have to.

Philadelphia Press: "Graclous, my dear," said the first society belle snitefully, "I trust you're not ill. You look so much older tonight." "Do I, dear?" the other replied sweetly. "I feel quite well. And you how wonder-built therewell. And you how book positively remarked the fully improved you are. You look positively

Indianapolis Journal: "What do you think of a man who would sell his vote for 20" said the indignant citizen "It depends on where he lives," said the cold-blooded politician. "Io some parts of the country $2 a vote is downright cheap."

WHEN BABY LAUGHS.

San Francisco Examiner. I wonder what she's dreaming bout.
 Long some time in the alght.
 When of a sudden she laughs out
 In infantile delight.
 I guess some angel from above.
 Swift winging to and fro.
 Doth pause to whister to my loss was Such words as bables know And when she laughs I guess he file-Straight where God's hosts rejoic

For what bath heaven compared with this, in doth miss urposes. The cash balance on hand on January 1 was $18,757,304.04. Of this $5,200.-566.42 stood to the credit of the sinking fund. The balance, $13,556,737.62, was deposited to

Sold everywhere