seventy-five feet distant. From all showing now the whole Diorite dyke, 175 feet across, at the 160-foot level, is pay rock running from 8 to 15 per cent copper and scarrying considerable gold valties. With the smelter and concentrators that will be erected at Grand Encampment this property, which has one of the largest bodies of low grade ore in the district, will pay handsome dividends to its owners.

This is the kind of a company that makes mines and develops the district. Few mines are found; most of them are made. These people have driven ahead, notwithstanding the heavy snows and the many other obstacles in the way of opening up a mine in a country at so high an altitude,

JUHN GRANT'S NEW POSITION

Is Now Acting as Local Promoter for the Barber Asphalt Company,

John Grant, manager of the Grant Paving company of this city, has been temporarily appointed manager of the Barber Asphalt company at Omaha, taking the place made vacant by the death of C. E. Squires.

Mr. Grant said yesterday: "The appointment is not permanent at present, but some one had to take charge of the work upon the death of Mr. Squires, and as I was interested in the business I was chosen until permanent arrangements can be made. So far as the work is concerned I am only attending to the work of promoting."

John Grant is one of the oldest street paving men in Omaha. He came here with the Barber company when asphalt paving was introduced in the city. For several years he was general foreman of construction. While employed in that capacity he invented a process for the manufacture of artificial stone for sidewalks known to the trade as Grant's slagolithic walks. Local capital was interested and a company was formed of which Mr. Grant became manager, which place he will continue to hold even it

TWO NEW COUNTERFEITS OUT

1. M. C. A. Notes.

The reports of the work for the month of February given at the directors' meeting showed a steady growth in all lines of work. Total membership February 28 was receipts from May to February 28,064; expenses for same period, 38,229; deficit for 1900 is $600.

The expenses have increased proportionately with the receipts. This is due to the greatly increased use of the building, and means that the association will have to call on the community for just that much more money. In order to close the year May 1 free of debt it will be necessary for the directors to raise $2,000 in subscriptions. This they are now working on and have no doubt that the business men will respond as usual.

The regular monthly meeting of the Volunteer league will be held Monday evening. William Baird will give another talk in his series of bible readings; Miss Cady, secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, will give a talk illustrated by charts and diagrams on "Our Part in Missions." There will also be reports from the field.

SWEDE EATS THE SHAMROCKS

Varrowly Escapes the Wrath of a Patriotic Irishman Who Was Saving Them for St. Patrick's Day.

Billy McKinney, who keeps a saloon at Sixteenth and Locust streets, is a true son of Ireland. Consequently when he received shipment of shamrocks Friday fresh from the "ould sod" he placed them in a pitcher of water and put the pitcher on a small shelf just above the lunch counter. This of the pictures you get through a Bee cou was probably done for the purpose of in- pon. It is a reproduction of a famous paintiting a feeling of reverence for the pre- ing and is a work of art. Coupons and it ious green in the breast of the free luncher. As the day was drawing to a close a big son of Sweden entered and purchased a foaming glass of lager, then sauntered over o the lunch counter. Between swallows ne took bites of rye bread and cheese and sausage, occasionally helping himself to the chamrocks near at hand. Just as the last oit of green was disappearing in the Swede's apacious mouth, McKinney returned to the saloon after a brief absence. "Say, Billy, lose water cress is good stuff. Got some more?" The Irishman gave one look at the empty pitcher and the next instant, had he not been forcibly restrained, would have committed a bodily assault upon the Swede with intent to teach him due respect for he sacred emblem of old Ireland and to distinguish the difference between water cress and shamrock.
