THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, MARCH 25, 1900.

Photographer of New York.

TIPS ON SPRING WARDROBES.

.

60

Set Off Woman's Beauty.

National 🚹 👫 contract in the proceeding of the contract of the

after all life is worth-"

"Living?" interjected Maisic's hostess. Maisie shook her head. "No, dressing," she the hostess. Maisie smiled softly: "I can natural. No one in an unaccustomed pose said. "Clothes are a stimulant-you can't say with Brummell, let them look and ever looked natural or well. Follow. deny that. I suppose like all other stimu; die," she answered, reaching out for same rule of balance in sitting as in standlants, the resultant inteximant brings its another violet. MARY DEAN." fits of deprocesion afterward."

"Since when did you experience it-the depression, I mean ?" the hosters asked. Appropriate Suggestions by a Famous Mainte sighed pensively. "Since I beran to" give my whole mind to the senson's styles," The great photographer of women in New "They are adorable, yet in a che said. York, Aime Dupont, has the following sugway, dreadfully disappointing. Simplicity, gentions to make regarding the posing of his he you know, is the background best calcu-sitters: lated to set off my-well, we will say, rome-what piquant personality. There are simple grace. The possessor knows this vaguely, things, of course. The trouble is, they are but is not sure what particular beauty or so elegantly simple, they at once suggest what special grace is hers. It is the province Newport, American Beauties with siems of friends and photographers to point out two yards long, diamond stick pins as co- these. There is no one who does not have tillion favors, and all that sort of thing, both and yet no one is quite able to locate They are so trying, indeed, I have been them without help. It is at this point that almost driven to ordering things that miss intelligence is an aid to the photographer. being fursy barely by the skin of the losth." The photographer must be a Columbus of "I shall never believe that until I see it." figures and faces. He must discover charms the hostess said, casting up her eyes. Maisie whose existence was unsuspected. smiled a gentle martyr sort of smile, and If you expect to have photographs taken "Listen' I am hesitating over a seen don't make any preparation beyond said: gown of this sort-and you know the who selecting your most becoming gown. An hesitates is lost. The stuff is all right-one evening gown is best, because it lends the of the new pastel green cloths, no soft it much-to-be-desired softness to the pleture A street dress, as a rule, gives harsh out green or blue. The skirt is cut very long, jines about the face and shoulders. If you and very tight, but there is a box plefit at want a pleture that shows you at your beat the back of another, or rather a cascade, wear an evening gown. It is safe to assume at the side, where the skirt rounds up to that every one wants to look her bert in a show a pleated silk underskirt, just a little picture. Occasionally some one size to picture. Occasionally some one says to i darker. The skirt is embroidered all around photographer: "Show me as I am," but the in the same darker shade, enriched with fact that she is wearing her prettiest gown gold thread. That does not sound very is an expression of her desire to look her formidable. Wait until you hear about the best.

Light dresses are better than dark for waint "At the back it is a plain, round waist, photographic purposes, Pinks, blues, mauves melting into the skirt. In front it is a and whites are best, because they blend with jaunty jacket with deeply folded belt of the lights of the photograph. Black and very dark gowns form too striking a contrast ribbon to match the understand with the arm, course, goes only as far as under the arm, The fronts are heavily embroidered and the left one bedizened with a big fly-away bow of ribbon like the belt. Above the belt there is soft silks and wools lend themselves to plear. The hunds are a bugbear in a photograph a close-fitting vest of very dark green pannel ing effects. Avoid stiff silks that "can stand velvet, with a collar so high and stiff it re- alone." A gown of boards is almost as All poseurs fear that they will look so large calls the guillotine, edged at top with the pliant as they and as graceful. The stiffly some gold-threaded embroidery as are the starched ducks and other heavy summer macuffs to the very long, tight sleeves. Then terials are tabooed by these who want, and one thing only in regard to the hands; try by way of finish I shall wear a yellow straw know how to get, a good photograph. Softhat, trimmed with long black plumes and a nece of feature and fabric is the one thing stunning bow of green ribbon, very broad most to be sought in photographic effect. and embroidered with gold." Having chosen your gown, leave the rest to

The Perfect Dressing Gown.

That does not sound so desperate," said your hair in any becoming fashion you madam, the hosters. Maisie flung up her choose, so long as it is simple. Be careful bead tragically. "I know it does not." she that it is not an exaggerated fashion. The said. "Some things have to be seen. 1 large pompadour gives a hard, dark line tried on the whole rig, looked myself over, above the photographed face that makes the then covered my eyes and sighed: 'This is features look heavy and destroys the symwhat it means to be tailor-made in 1900!' I metry of the head. assure you, my dear, it is almost tragic to Don't practice posing before a mirror. You will only make the photographer's work look back." "Then look forward!" counseled the hestess. Maisle smiled: "I did ever so much better-1 looked further," she said. "Virtue had its reward. I discovered some things that would heal a broken heart. One of them was the loveliest dressing gown, a truly classic garment with long sweeping folds and no tag ends anywhere about it that anybody can make at home themselv s Mine is in pale ivory cashmere with falls of deep ivory lace in the neck and a girdle of rich salmon pink ribbon fastening just beneath the bust. I shall only need to put ! on to forgive all my summer enemies-even those who have bought the fracks I ought to have bought or said the things I wish I had said."

@ uists of gauze caught with jewelled orna- They have a decided advantage, photograph

6

00

Simplicity the Best Background to anot of tulle and paneles. The flowers are take a standing pose, even though for a bust the only touch of color except the bird in picture. Sometimes I have arranged hoxes NEW YORK, March 22 .- "I have been my hair-which has deep yellow wings and in tiers and placed a subject upon them, as speculating this last hour," Maisie said, her a yellow breast. I shall wear black gloves upon a sidesaddle. This has insured a natforchead pontentously wrinkled, "whether of course, and carry a black fan with gold ural pose of head and shoulders that might after all life is worth-" "How the other women will stare!" said If you sit comfortably, then you will look the ing Should you insist upon accessories in pho-HOW TO POSE FOR A PICTURE. tographs, the photographer whom you honor

by your patronage must, of course, comply with your wishes. But if he is a good photographer your decision has caused him distress of soul. The woman or the man is the thing in the photograph. The figure should he to well defined, should stand out so clearly from the background, that you are impressed Every one has beauty and every one has that it is possible to pick it out from the

The hands are a bugbear in a photograph. as to be out of all proportion to the picture. Drive that fear from your mind. Think of supply at the side or rests gracefully in the lap will not look large. It is the straining of the muscles, the anxiety of the . minshowing in the taut enuscies, that make the hand look large. The eyes are another photographic bet noire. The eyes of one too eagerly attentive or one not attending at all are likely to hav the hide us, photographic stare. To obvia e this the subject should be made to think of a variety of subjects. The mind, in the act of leaping from one subject to another, gives an animated expression to the face. The photographer should be intelligent enough. by means of conversation, to lead in this thought chase. He should magnetize the subject, and magnetize him to the point where he can arrest a train of thought and hold the mind in that arrested attitude. "Stop! Think of the subject that is in your mind now. Don't change." This from best expressions should be caught.

the Canadian government. It is little more the beam of the plow is attached a long rops, dors closely, fall moderately full below atthan three years since the colony landed at into which are tied stour sticks equal to Winpipeg and was sent forth to carn a living half the number of women in each relief. As by farming. The colonists numbered nearly draught animals the women go to their 2,000 families and were divided into three places, dividing on either side of the rope, lots for purposes of distribution. One was and the day's work is begun. sent to western Manitoha, another to the province of Alberta and a third to the banks of the plow, gives a grunt. The women bend of the Sankatchewan, about the center of the forward to the yoke. The plowshare enters province of Assinibola. They were in a con- the ground, and at a rapid rate the first furlition of great poverty. Their transporta- row is turned over. For four hours each retion to Canada is said to have been paid by lief works. As fast as returned the women the Canadian Pacific railway. | are privileged to go home. During working At any event, that line took care of the hours not a word is spoken. The women are party after its arrival. The immigrant traine as dumb as the animals they represent. to points of disembarkation were furnished Spring and fall this is the lot of the women with food. The journey inland was made in of the Canadian Russian colonies. During wagons and there the colonists are today, seeding time the women do all the planting to make them supple. The hand that falts Canadian Pacific railway is now engaged in nessed to small wooden sulky rakes, they line, on the bleak prairie of the great Cana- fed. The ford is coarse, but substantial. At chiffon mutching the cloth are really good line, on the bleak prairie of the great Cana-dian northwest, 's a colony of Russian set-ther who, driven from home by an exacting the field are begun. The party is divided into three reliefs. To Talk About Women.

Mrs. Maggie G. Cormody of Teleda has re-ceived $5,050 with which to go to Austrialia to inherit a fortune of over $1,050,000, but she is in doubt as to whether she will make the trip, because she is not fond of travel-its special form.

have to be broken in.

any other make is as good at any price.

Miss Edith Rhodes, one of the sisters o Cecil Enodes, has better and larger di monds, it is said, than most of the revail These were given to her by her brother al taken from the famous Wessellon mine Kimberley.

Miss Jennie Creek of Millgrove, Ind., who Miss Jennie Creek of Affigure of the when a little girl won the ribben of the French Legion of Honor by saving a train from being wrecked, is going to the Paris Exposition us one of the official representa-tives of her state.

interesting in their habits and customs, a curious sight to visitors who may find the time to look their way. The Russian colonies and their conditions are interesting at the present day, more par-ticularly on account of the fact that that that the women again played a prominent part. Har-horde of Finlanders, variously estimated at horde of Finlanders, variously estimated at horde of estimated at horde of Finlanders, variously estimated at horde of estimated at horde of Finlanders, variously estimated at horde of the police wagons. But even with the assistance of the police the contracts were much delayed. In contract of the contracts were much delayed. In spite of all these conditions the Russian colony on the banks of the Saskatchewan is growing. When lo-cated the contingont numbered about 200 women and fifty children. During the three years of their stay nearly 200 children have years of their stay hearly 200 children have been born. There have been but few deaths, and at the same rate of increases it will not be many years before more land is needed. At this season, when the far north is frozen so as to prevent agricultural work, the women of the colony are scattered about the schemet for state of the stage are greater than these of society.

the women of the colory are scattered, saw the adjacent cities, where they scrub, saw wood and do all kinds of rough labor. Yet they are happy, it is said, for they have never known aught but toll.

MUNYON'S GUARANTEL.

Strong Assertions as to Just What the Remedies Will Do.

Manyon

that

guarantees

nearly

Cure a and ubles; Cure cent. sidney that will p auy list of crite Prof. Mupyon, White it is absoluted, from am as the least barn coarations. For sale by all Dru soods Dealers in the United State FERD T. HOPKINS, Prop'r. 87 Jones St. N Y.

is published monthly as a palatable literary diet for the busy business man

5 :: 3

When an R & G Corset is made, it is stretched over a steam-

R & G Corsets are the only corsets that are made in this way

Every R & G Corset is guaranteed to fit and wear satisfactorily.

The picture shows the style of our popular Number 307 which

Your dealer can supply you with R & G Corsets, if he will, If heated, iron form with a pressure of 600 pounds, that takes out every atom of "give" in the goods. The iron form is modeled after a perfect human figure and each style of R & G Corsets has

-the only corsets that will not stretch-the only ones that do not sells at $1. It has absolutely all the perfection of shape, fit and wear that any corset can have, no matter what the price. No corset of he will not, write to R & G CORSET CO., 375 BROADWAY, N. Y.

Some New Blouse Waists.

"It must be the result of inspiration," the hostens said, laughing. Maisle tucked another pillow comfortably beneath her head stretched out a slippered foot, so she could inspect the bow upon it critically, took a candied violet from the box beside her and said with the purple confection between her lips: "It does feel that way, but I have had a desperate experience making up my min4 between the lovely new blouses. One of them is Luxeull lace as to its lower half. both in waist and sleeves. The lace goes up to'and opens over a guimpe and sleeve tops of deeply tucked silk. The silk is pastel blue. So is the broad ribbon which comes from under the arms to tie in a rich knot. with deeply fringed ends over the bust. There is a lace collar, very high, of course. And I have such a pretty white neck! Imn't It a shame I must swathe and hide it so?

"The other blouse is truer to name. By that I mean that it really blouses all round the lower part. And the blouge is lace, big open-meshed lace, with very rich flowers in it. The same lace goes up to the neck and shows as a vest there. Over the lace there comes a sort of odd bolero in the richest brocade, fastening with a velvet chou very much at one side. The brocade is apple Mossoms upon an ivory ground. Beneath the Ince blouse comes a lining of ivory silk. The belt and collar match the chou-both are of black velvet. The most fotching touch is at the top of the collar-a row of apple blossoms made in pink chiffon and delicately applied. I shall feel like Flora or some other classic person, rising up from a foam of flowers.

"Venus from the sea, perhaps!" the hostess smiling. Maisie made a grimace. said. all her looks, if she saw the frock I have just planned for an after Lenten dance."

'Tell me about it." conxed the hostess. "About my frock," 'said Maisie, "the beginning of it is grandmamma's black satin, that was never made up for her, the poor dear. It is rich enough to stand alone, but soft enough to cling beautifully. Of course I did not waste it on the foundation skirt-that is just plain, fairly good satin, long and tight fighting and flaring no end at the bottom. Over it there is slik gauze, very full, with five pleated ruffles so full they are al most ruches. They are pretty, but not dis tinguished-distinction comes from the cuirass of the black satin, deeply tucked. It reaches half way to the knce, and fits as though molded if the tucks are two inches wide. It does not reach quite as high as the armpit, and is veiled four inches down with a heavy fall of black tulle, edged with pleated gauze., A tulle scarf, likewise edged across the onds, tics in front beneath a cluster of big violet pansies purple and yellow and black. ... There are no sleeves, not even shoulder straps-only

ALWAYS BRINGS BACK YOUTH ful color, life and beauty to gray, white ful color, life and beauty to gray, while of bleached hair. Produces a new, thek growth on hald heads and immediately arrests the falling out of hair. Cures dandruff and itching scelp. DOES NOT STAIN SKIN OR CLOTHING. A clean, heathful hair dressing for men and women. Nothing sike it or just as good. Unequaled as a quick hair grower. One Bottle Large Bot. 50c At Leading Does it. Large Bot. 50c At Leading your photographer-all but the hair. Dress

MAISIE'S SILK BLOUSE WITH LUXEUIL

AISEES SILK BLOUSE WITH LUXEUL LACE. Table with possing the bear. And so it is with pos-ing. He must put the subject through his or projects with second process as to be pack, must make them to dotain, except that your carefully studied is look process. The observation of the control grammer to is observation of the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is the source grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to control grammer to the control grammer to is to be made during the control grammer to the follow grammer to the new lass follow the source grammer to from the source grammer to the follow grammer to the new lass follow grammer to the brots and properly that is during the source grammer to the new lass follow. The hands one section of the new lass follow grammer to the follow grammer to the new lass follow grammer to the follow grammer to the new lass follow grammer to the follow grammer to the source grammer to the follow grammer to the source grammer to the source grammer to the follow grammer to the source grammer to the source grammer to the follow grammer to the source grammer to the source grammer t middle of the upper and lower lips he would transform it into a Cupid's bow. If the a triffe while posing.

Far back from the international boundary Tall, slender persons may pose any way.

I have heard blondes say wistfully: "Of course, you cannot make as good a photo-

"Really I believe she would be envious, for standing well is to divide his weight equally rapher as a wooden Indian.

A BLACK EVENING TOILETTE

from 30,000 to 50,000 persons, who are expected to arrive in this country about July. mouth is merely a characteriess slit in the Advance agents are now in British Columface he can give it individuality by both of bia, where they are being royally enterthese devices. It is well to moisten the lipa tained by the Canadian government through with the Canadian Pacific railway.

graph of me as of my sister. She is a bru- for location in the northwest any part of nette," and it has been my pleasure to say the immigrant party, it is not at all improbtruthfully: "My dear mademoiselle, I shall able that a small proportion will come over rings make of you quite as good a picture as of to this side of the boundary. America has lighting is the greatest. It is the attention to lighting that makes the difference be-tween a studio in Fifth arenue and one on Avenue A. Expression is the signboard of individuality. But even that the photog-rapher must develop by an eclectic system of choosing the best. And so it is with pos-ing. He must put the subject through his or her "paces." so to speak, must make them

Frilis of Fashion.

The Tuscan hats shown by high-class French milliners are soft of texture, won-derfully light and ingeniously woven. Jeweled chains falling with an ornament of some kind, just above the line of the sust, are worn around the neck over the ligh-necked bedies.

high-necked bedies. Among the pretty fancies in buttons used to fasten the cuffs and fronts of dainty silk and lawn waists are silver and enameled ishes, pearl balls and pale pink coral but-tons. Any antique picce of jewelry which can be utilized as a button is a valuable consession.

Toques made entirely of foliage, with the accompanying flower for a finish and pos-sibly a touch of the black so fashionable in all things this season, are one of the sea-son's vagaries. Ivory white face toques with ostrich pompons or down and York roses are another variety.

the Canadian Pacific railway. While none of the great American trans-continental lines are enaking efforts to secure for location in the porthwest any part of the inmigrant party, it is not at all improb-able that a small proportion will come over

Light-colored gloves are introduced this her. Coloring makes no difference in photog-raphy. A blonde may fare as well as a branette." Posing and light and expression! These three are the essentials of photography. And lighting is the greatest. It is the attention to have been instructing the herees ap-parent in the duries and privileges of a social queen and has found an apt pupil. Mrs. Eavlies is of old Knickerbocker stock and therefore, at least so far as "blood" is concerned, fully qualified to wield the scenter. copy to Ad Sense, 83 Fifth Ave., Chicago One dollar a year. Every month, from cover to imprint it is suggestive of better things in business. conter. Congressman Bailey of Texas writes Harper's Bazar to say that women fall as narilamentarians "because the feminine temperament is constitutionally opposed to the perfect mental polse absolutely indis-

Gn Lard, on Ham, on Bacon is a guarantee of purity. Swift and Company, Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, St, Louis, St. Joseph, St. Paul, BLEEDING PILES.

Mr. E. D. Skelton, a telegraph opera or of Fremont, Neb., says: "I had piles for eight years and got so badhad to guit work. I crawled up to the drug store part of the way on my hands and knoes and got a package of DR. MASON'S PILE REMEDY, used it, and was able to work in three days. I have never been troubled since.

sold in Omaha by Kuha & Co., H. Schmidt and H. B. Graham, in South Omnha by M. A. Dillon and all druggists.

WANTED-Case of Daû health that R-1-P-A-N-S will not benefit. Send a cents to Biona Chemical Co. New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials

How to Avoid Pain

の時間の時間になっていた。ここの時間の時間で、時間の時間での時間で、時間で、100mの時間であった。ここので、100mので、100mのでのなどの時間の時間であるで、100mの

I have been afflicted with pains in the Lick and hips, and bearing down pains ever since I became a woman. Last spring I commenced using McElree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and they have done me a wonderful amount of good, and I wish to recom-MELISSA CREMEANS mend them to anyone, who suffers as I did.

For nearly a century, Wine of Cardui has been helping women to avoid pain and suffering. This wonderful remedy has made a reputation for curing "female diseases" that no other medicine enjoys. Irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb are the most frequent female disorders. Few women escape them. None but a woman knows what they are. The terrible dragging pains and oppressive mental torture are beyond description. But Miss Cremeans' experience shows you can avoid this suffering and misery by procuring a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui at your drug store and taking it as directed. Women will do well to keep a bottle of Wine of Cardui on hand for immediate use when sick headaches, pains in the back, abdomen, arms and legs, and other troubles coming from menstrual derangements appear. In this way many hours of suffering may be thwarted and the visits of the family doctor frequently made unnecessary. Wine of Cardui should be given every girl at the age of puberty. It is used with great success during pregnancy and the "change of life" and after child-birth or miscarriage. Thedford's Black-Draught, the companion medicine for the stomach, liver and kidneys, assimilates with Wine of Cardui perfectly.

Eddyville, Neb., May II, 1899. For the last two months I have had pain in my back and bowels, and got no relief until I used McEiree's Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and now I am up and doing my housework.

For advice in cases requiring special direc-tions, address, giving symptoms. The Ladles' Advikor: Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

(c) Dotted pique blouse for little boy with wide white collar.