MAGNETIC INFIRMARY.

PROF. AND MRS. KHARAS now own and operate nine large Magnetic Infirmaries in Nebraska and Iowa. The last to be established is at North Loup, Neb. Prof. Davis, a graduate of the Nebraska School of Magnetism, was placed in charge by Prof. Kharas. Prof. Davis works on a salary for the Kharas Infirmary company. Prof. Kharas was guaranteed ten patients and also given a large cash bonus by the people of Valley county to induce him to establish this infirmary at North Loup. Other schools take their students' money and then let the student hustle for himself. Do you want proof? Ask for it. All kinds of "free" offers are made by unprincipled parties to catch the unwary, but the propositions made by Kharas are plain and square for all concerned. Nothing free but information. Treatment and instruction cost money at the Kharas institutions, but you get your money's worth. Next week the price of tuition for the course in the Nebraska School of Magnetism will be advanced to $200 and it's cheap at that price. Every acceptable student guaranteed a position, and none but acceptable students taken. Main office, 1515-1517 Chicago St., Omaha, Neb. —M575 28
