MID-ROADERS IN POSSESSION

Enter the Peter Cooper Club Room and Change the Locks.

RECOGNIZED AS TENANT BY RENTAL AGENT

Anti-Fusion Populists Spring a Surprise Upon the Pie-Hunters--National, State and County Headquarters at Club Rooms.

The headquarters of the Peter Cooper club presented an animated scene Friday afternoon when the "expelled" contingent, or middle-of-the-road populists, took possession of the disputed club rooms. Last Tuesday night when the fusion branch of the club formally expelled all those members who had taken part in the Lincoln convention which decided to send delegates to Cincinnati, they professed to believe that they would be permitted to retain peaceful possession of the rooms, and at that time served formal notice upon E. F. Morearty, erstwhile secretary and custodian of the club rooms, to remove his effects, as his services would no longer be required. Mr. Morearty refused to move and some time thereafter his desk and contents were ejected from the room and placed in an adjoining room which the expelled members promptly re-occupied. To maintain possession of the hall the fusionists put a new lock upon the door. Upon being expelled the middle-of-the-road populists incorporated under the name of the Peter Cooper Populist club. On Friday the officers called upon A. O. Barker, agent for the building in which the club-room is located, and paid the rent on the room until May 11. They then proceeded to the building where a number of their associates had congregated and attempted to enter the hall. No one was present to oppose them, but the door was locked. The leaders then left the building for a few moments and when they returned they found the door open.

White-Roaders Get Possession.
While no one can be found who will confess that he knows how the door was opened, the triumphant middle-of-the-roaders entered and removed the lock which would not respond to their keys, placing in its stead one provided for the occasion. As soon as they had changed the lock and the door a triumphant procession was formed and the desk of Morearty returned and placed in its accustomed position. The next thing was to defend themselves from reprisals. An appeal to the mayor for protection resulted in a regular policeman being detailed to guard the room and prevent disturbance, while three members were sworn in as special officers to assist him if necessary. This accomplished, the members resied from their labors in the hall, where one of the "expelled" had provided a graphophone for their amusement. While the men were awaiting developments which did not develop one of their number saw the picture of Bryan, which has heretofore decorated the wall of the room and upon formal motion the picture was turned toward the wall. In South Omaha the primary election was held also in the afternoon, but returns were not brought into headquarters last night. The voting in the country precincts was done between 7 and 9 p. m. No returns therefrom reached headquarters last night. In most of the country precincts lists of republican voters had been prepared under the direction of the county committee for use at the primaries, fulfilling the functions of the registration lists in the city. It appears that in two or three of the country precincts these lists were not prepared, although the action of the county committee contemplated their preparation in every precinct, so that participation in republican primaries might be limited to republicans and that the committee should have the lists as a basis for future operations.

QUIET PRIMARY ELECTION

Selection of Delegates to the Republican State Convention is Uncontested.
The republican primary elections yesterday throughout the county for the election of delegates to the state and congressional conventions were so quiet as to be totally devoid of incident, all chance of a contest having been eliminated by the recent compromise between hitherto active and warlike factions. In the city the primaries were held during the afternoon. As was to be expected there was an extremely light vote, only 461 voters turning out. It was futile to scratch a ticket, but there were a few who could not overcome that habit. There were seventeen votes scratched out of the total cast and of these eight were in the First ward, where the total vote was forty-six. The Second ward cast only forty, all straight. Out of 166 votes in the Third ward only one was scratched. Two were scratched out of sixty-four cast in the Fourth ward and in the Fifth the fifty-eight votes cast were straight. Of the eighty-five votes in the Sixth ward two were blank and two were scratched and of the forty-two in the Seventh four were scratched and one was blank. There were four tickets scratched

FIFTH WARD REPUBLICANS

Contemplating Immediate Steps for Organization and Active Campaign Work.
About twenty members of the Fifth Ward Republican club met in the hall at the corner of Sherman avenue and Locust street last night and discussed plans for awakening early an interest in the issues of the approaching national campaign and the early inauguration of active campaign work. R. W. Richardson presided. A discussion of the vexed Porto Rican tariff question had been postponed from last meeting, and remarks were made on that subject by Chairman Richardson and Ben McClain, the latter favoring the proposed 15 or 25 per cent of the regular tariff schedule and the former mildly inclining to the belief that some sort of a moderate tariff would be a good thing. Both were certain that the republican party

WILL CALL HIS PRIMARY OFF

Chairman Blackburn of Congressional Committee Announces This to Be His Intention.
The primary election called by the republican congressional committee for April 24 for the selection of delegates to the congressional convention will be called off, at a meeting of the congressional committee called for April 4 for that purpose. It will be remembered that the primary election called by the county committee for March 30 was for the election of a delegation to the state and congressional conventions, and that in spite of this fact Chairman Blackburn of the congressional committee, with other members of that committee, met on the same day and issued a call for a primary election April 24 for the selection of a delegation to the congressional convention. This action aroused a strong protest from republicans, who looked on it as an intrusion upon the business of the county committee. Since the general agreement on a single delegation Chairman Blackburn has been circulating a petition to enable him to call off the congressional primary election. This petition is addressed to Congressman Mercer and has been submitted only to those whose names appear upon the ticket as delegates to the state and congressional conventions at the primary election held under the auspices of the county committee. In it these delegates, assuring Congressman Mercer of their individual desire for his renomination, respectfully request of him that the republican congressional committee of this district be reconvened at an early date and reconsider its action by issuing a call for a congressional convention to be held in Omaha not later than April 28, at which the appointment to the several counties shall be: Douglas, ninety-six delegates; Washington, seventeen delegates; Sarpy, eight delegates; 121 in all, being the same as that in the state convention. The petitioners express the opinion that such action on the part of the congressional committee will avoid misunderstanding and friction in the district and materially simplify the situation in this county.

Fifty-seven of the ninety-six delegates have already signed this petition, all of them being residents of this city and South Omaha. Chairman Blackburn says that twenty out of the twenty-five delegates from the county precincts are known to be pronounced Mercer men. He expects to have out of the ninety-six delegates at least eighty-five who are pronounced Mercer adherents.

Commentation.

MR. EDITOR—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at night. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Newer in Riverview Park.

Following complaints of property owners in the south part of the city the park board has passed the following resolution: "Whereas, many complaints are coming to the board that the lake in Riverview park is becoming an offensive cesspool and likely to breed disease, therefore be it resolved, That the honorable the mayor and city council, be requested to extend the Valley street sewer through Riverview park."
