INDIANA DURING LATE UNPLEASANTNESS

Clive Holland Writes of the Latin Queen in an Interesting Sketches of Foreign Travel

Alfred Henry Lewis, whose "Wolfville" sketches of western camp life are quite the best things of the kind we have had in a generation...

"Knights in Pustian," by Caroline Brown, is a story of a most interesting episode occurring in Indiana during the war for the union...

"Marcelle of the Quarter," by Clive Holland, is a charming romance. The chief character is a young artist, who, on the death of one of his models, gives her in his daughter a father's care...

The thumbnail sketches which appeared some time since on the editorial page of the Chicago Evening Post have been brought out in a little volume bearing the title, "Glimpses Across the Sea," by Sam T. Clover...

"The Life of William H. Seward," by Frederick Bancroft, is a most valuable contribution to history. Mr. Seward was so closely identified with the civil war that the story of his life naturally includes much of the history of that momentous struggle... that the assassin's attempt would have been successful. The biographer also recalls the fact that as early as 1862, Mr. John Bigelow had written from Paris warning him that he had heard of a wholesale attempt which was to be made to murder the president and his cabinet...

A History of Greece for High Schools and Academies, by George Willis Boistford, instructor in the history of Greece and Rome in Harvard university, forms one of that splendid series of school histories lately brought out by the Macmillan company...

PASSING OF A FAMOUS CASE

Suit of Creodon Against Patrick and Others Before Judge Fawcett.

IT HAS BEEN IN COURT SINCE 1890

After Having Passed Through All Possible Delays the Case is on Final Hearing on Approval of Referee's Report.

One of the oldest cases on the docket of the Douglas county district court is now being tried before Judge Fawcett. The lawyers who have watched it drift its weary length through term after term are now expecting to see an end of the case of Thomas J. Creodon against J. N. H. Patrick and others.

On the table in the court room are papers so long folded that they look rheumatic and as though to bend their folds would give them exquisite pain. Judges have come and judges have gone, but the case has not been decided.

Kirby Case at Sioux Falls. Judge Munger returned Tuesday afternoon from Sioux Falls, S. D., where he tried the more or less celebrated Kirby case, wherein Kirby was charged with receiving stolen property.

Would Enjoin a Contender. In the district court yesterday Henry Helsey and others filed suit against Ed A. Snow and Constable Charles T. Ferguson to restrain the enforcement of an execution issued by Sheriff Helsey against the property of the defendants.

Notes of the Courts. Judge Munger Tuesday evening signed the order authorizing the drawing of the jury today for the May term of the United States court.

There was no session of the United States court yesterday. Judge Munger returned to his home at Sioux Falls, and Judge Munger had not returned to this city.

Before Judge Baker yesterday the case of the State of Nebraska against Philip Genest was on for trial. Genest is charged with stealing clothing from the home of Annie Daily on March 24.

In the United States district court David B. Howard of Lincoln has filed petition to be declared bankrupt.

The Marshall Paper company of Omaha and other creditors of James Madison Champe of Western New York, who has filed a petition in the United States court seeking relief from bankruptcy, have filed a claim against the defendant.

PURSUED BY UNKNOWN ENEMY

Imagined This, Victor Landerger, a Postal Clerk, is Being Examined as to His Sanity.

With visions of persons who desire to take his life floating through his clouded brain, Victor Landerger was examined by the insanity commission of Douglas county Tuesday afternoon. Landerger is a veteran of the civil war, and was wounded at Fort Fisher. He has never given signs of a weak mental condition until recently, when he became impressed with the idea that enemies are seeking his life.

AMIDST MUSIC AND FLOWERS

Thousands Revel in Splendor of Annual Spring Opening of People's Store.

MEMORABLE FETE FOR OMAHA SHOPPERS

Six Ample Floors Crowded with Novelties Engage the Attention and Admiration of Rich and Poor, Old and Young.

Every aesthetic shopper in Omaha was attracted some time during Monday to the grand spring opening of the People's store, interest in which was doubtless largely augmented by the curiosity of the shopping public to note with what the management would fill up the vacant spaces caused by their having recently closed out some of the lines they had been carrying.

During the day and evening the great store was brilliantly illuminated throughout, many unique and beautiful electrical effects being employed to bring out the rich and glowing colorings of the endless array of variegated novelties in every line.

The visitors generally manifested their interest in the display of the rearrangement of the great store, in view of the fact that the dry goods, shoes and grocery departments were recently closed out.

On the second floor are located the offices with its corps of busy clerks. On the same floor is a variegated display of baby carriages, go-carts, iron beds, cots, silverware, etc.

On the fourth floor is located the extensive carpet and draperies department. On the fifth floor is found the parlor and living room furniture, some of the most gorgeous parlor suites were on display, with hundreds of beautiful and novel divans, odd chairs, unique fancy pieces, bookcases, writing desks and secretaries.

IN THE FIELD OF LABOR

Drivers and Teamsters to Organize Wednesday Night-Farmers to Be Given Opportunity to Unite.

There will be a meeting of the teamsters and drivers of the city at Labor Temple this evening to perfect an organization. There was a preliminary meeting Monday night at which the matter was discussed, and it was decided to add one more union to those at present affiliated with the central body.

The latest scheme for the organization of the farmers is the International Farmers' union recently organized at Binghamton, N. Y. A copy of the constitution of the new union has reached Omaha and an effort will be made to organize a local union among the farmers of Douglas county.

The Frank family is well known in New York. The late Augustus Frank, sr., uncle of the deceased, was known in his day as "king of Western New York" and was many times a millionaire. It was on business in connection with his uncle's estate that Augustus Frank, jr., came to Omaha.

E. G. Solomon, chief clerk in the county clerk's department, has invented what he terms a "modern calculator," which expert bookkeepers say is a wonderful piece of patent here just issued.

The greatest healer of modern times is Banner Salve, for cuts, wounds, sores, piles and all skin diseases. It is guaranteed. For sale by Myers-Dillon Drug Co., Omaha; Dillon's Drug Store, South Omaha.

DOG CATCHER IS AT WORK

About Fifteen Hundred Tags Have Been Taken Out at the City Clerk's Office.

Now has come the time for the dog to show a license in order to live. The license must be marked 1900. The dog catcher is out with his traps, and while the animals are dodging him their owners are hastening to procure the tag that saves. Up to the present time 1,500 tags have been sold.

There is no diminution in the love of Omahans, rich or poor, for their canine pets, says the city clerk. The number of applications is about the same as that of 1899. There is not a great difference in the number of dogs in Omaha, or in nomenclature. They vary somewhat with the country's history, political and otherwise.

SUICIDE THEORY DISCREDITED

Relative of Augustus Frank Insist that He Died of Heart Disease—Body Sent East.

The body of Augustus Frank, found dead in a room of the Paxton hotel Monday morning, was sent to Warsaw, N. Y., last night for burial. Mrs. C. H. Elmendorf of Lincoln, Neb., who is the widow of Augustus Frank, met the remains at the depot last evening to accompany them to New York.

Mrs. Elmendorf does not credit the theory that her husband gives it as her opinion that her brother died of heart disease, from which he had been a sufferer for several years. For two years prior to his arrival in Omaha ten days ago, she says, he had a total abstainer from alcoholic stimulants.

The Frank family is well known in New York. The late Augustus Frank, sr., uncle of the deceased, was known in his day as "king of Western New York" and was many times a millionaire. It was on business in connection with his uncle's estate that Augustus Frank, jr., came to Omaha.

GOOD judge must have both experience and learning. A housekeeper should be a good judge for she too must have experience and learning or she may think that the soaps made to look like Ivory Soap are just as good. With experience she will know that they lack the remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ivory Soap—99 1/2 per cent. pure.

WIFE HIDES HER LORD'S HAT

Thereby Mrs. Fleming Keeps Him at Home While She Goes to Fetch a Policeman.

After hearing his wife, as she alleges, Alfred J. Fleming's conscience permitted him to go to sleep, and then she took his hat and one shoe out upon the back porch and hid them in the bottom of a wash boiler full of soiled clothes. This was a move preparatory to swearing out a complaint against him. It was a stroke of strategy to guard against his leaving the house while she was gone to fetch a policeman with a warrant.

The plan worked admirably, for when she returned to 465 North Fourteenth street from the station she found her lord industriously searching the oven of the gasol stove and delivering himself of some choice explosives he had learned as a brakeman on a freight train. He seized her roughly and spun her around a few times to show how strong he was, but just then Officer Dan Baldwin, who had followed the woman, appeared upon the scene and placed him under arrest. He will have a hearing to-day.

A Testimonial from Old England. "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory of Warrington, England. "It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be able to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy.

Civil Service Examination. At 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon forty persons presented themselves for examination as eligibles for appointment to government positions under the civil service rules. The examination covers many positions and is technical in its nature. It is being conducted by William C. Beecher, chairman of the local board, assisted by Mrs. Virginia Coffin, secretary. The persons applying one desire to be assistant in the Department of Agriculture, thirteen to be assistant microscopists, and one desires a position in the fisheries department.

How About The Price—

Like the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, it isn't much we ask—no more than you're willing to pay—We're speaking about the women's shoes we advertised last night—the kind that are just light enough for dress and just heavy enough for the street wear—a perfect shoe in all respects—that we are selling at $3.50—has the high military heel and extra high arch that gives them the swell appearance of the higher-priced ones—You will have to see and examine this shoe before you can appreciate the half we're told.

Such Tempting Pastry—

comes from our bakery that it's hard for any one to resist taking a bite when ever he sees it—One of the things we pride ourselves on is the way our bread and pastry looks—It isn't enough for us that our products taste good—they must look so dainty that they will tempt the most languid appetite—in this department we make special efforts to have everything made as choice as it can—We'd like you to try our whole wheat bread—Let us show you what we can do.

'Encore'

The automatic Banjo is the most marvelous invention of the age—as it plays the most difficult music absolutely correct and in a most artistic manner—no human muscles being able to compete with it—it plays by means of automatic fingers and hands and gives the selection a natural finish as to time and phrasing impossible in any other self-playing instrument—A great money-maker for newstands, hotels, drug stores, etc.—plays more than 1,000 tunes—For information apply to IRREPROACHABLE. Sometimes it is difficult to know what to give the children as a tit-bit or what to take, when starting for a journey, a picnic, or a spin on the wheel. But if you choose Van Houten's Eating Chocolate you know that you have a wholesome snack of splendid flavor. The irreproachable composition, and nutritive, highly digestible ingredients, render Van Houten's Chocolate preferable to the cheap chocolates and confectioneries (which are often of very questionable composition), while it far exceeds all similar products in the delicious cocoa flavor. Sold in Tins of Croquettes and Tins of Drops. Also in Square Tablets and Small Bars.
