CARPENTERS AND PLANING MILL MEN OUT

Mill Owners Refuse to Accede to the Demands of Their Workmen-Stage Employes' Demands Are Granted.

All of the planing mill men and practically of the carpenters were idle yesterday. The assembled at Labor temple and spent time talking over the situation in an informal manner and the planing mill men held a meeting for the purpose of discussing the ultimatum of the employers. There was really no foundation for any discussion, as the reply of the mill owners, expressed through N. S. McLane of Johnson & McLane, was, "We cannot accede to the At noon the meeting was still in terms."

There were carpenters at work on the alteration of the old postoffice building. The two men here employed stated that they had a promise of 40 cents per hour, but Peter Suderberg, the contractor, said that he was paying but 35 cents. At 1517 Dodge street Hugh McCaffery is making repairs on a building and has conceded the increase of wages. It was also reported at labor headquarters that a dozen carpenters were at work on the new Country club building at Benson and were receiving the new scale of 40 cents.

One of the complaints of the contractors against the carpenters is that the men will work for any one for the same wages they receive from the contractors and in consequence of this the contractors are debarred from certain classes of work, where the journeymen take jobs at prices which would ruin the contractors. So far as can be ascertained there will be about 450 men directly affected by the strike, 350 carpenters and 100 woodworkers. The agent of the woodworkers visited all of the planing mills yesterday and removed all union labels.

Regular meetings of the Builders' and Traders' Council and the Contractors' Exchange were held Tuesday night. The strike situation was discussed at length, but inquiry from several of the members of the two organizations failed to elicit any information relative to the trend of the discussion. A movement is on foot looking toward a settlement of the existing troubles, and owing to an apparent anxiety on the part of the builders and contractors to adjust the differences speedily, it is a reasonable certainty that overtures in the form of either a compromise or an arbitration have been made to the strikers. The opinion was expressed that the troublous labor conditions would be satisfactorily adjudicated within the very near future, and all efforts are being concentrated toward the attainment of this end.

The regular meeting of the local union of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, held Tuesday evening at Labor temple, was a record breaker for attendance, though but little business was transacted outside of routine affairs. As no reply had been received from the contractors, there was nothing to be done in regard to the strike situation, but there is every indication that the union wil stand firm in its demand for an increase of wages to 40 cents per hour.

The Stage Employes' union has announced that the local theater managers had conceded their demands for an increase of 33 per cent in their wages, the new scale to go into effect next Monday. The rumored strike of the plumbers for increase of wager failed to materialize and all plumbers are at work as usual.

MYSTERY IS CLEARED

Search for the Whereabouts of Julia Rose Discloses the Fact that She Was in Jail.

The whereabouts of Julia Rose, colored. was the subject of anxious speculation for a time Tuesday. Julia is elated by the police as an ex-convict, having done time for robbing a male companion of what he had in his pockets. Saturday night she was again taken into custody on suspicion of having robbed a confiding male companion of a small amount. Tuesday morning Mack Smart ascertained that she was in fall and Frank Munn was employed to get her out. Application was made to Judge Vinsonhaler for a writ of habeas corpus, on the ground that the Rose woman had been arrested and detained without a warrant, that no complaint had been filed against her and that the proposed change, said: "This change he had been denied permission as her at- is attempted at the request of the posttorney to see her at the jail. Attorney Munn stated to the court that the Rose woman had been released and in her stead the police had an hour or thereabouts before taken Mack Smart and thrust him into jail. Munn declared that he had also been refused permission to confer with Smart. He insisted that the costs in the action should be charged up against the police and said they had not liberated Julia until after service of the writ upon them. This he declared his ability to prove if

Omaha Association Holds Its Annual Session at First Congregational Church.

The Omaha Association of Congregational Churches closed its annual session Tuesday night at the First Congregational church in this city. The meetings began Monday evening, the first being held at St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church. At this session the official sermon was preached by W. H. Buss of Fremont, the retiring moderator. The subject of the sermon was, "Spiritual Servce and its Results." The moderator made strong plea for more activity in the Chris ian life of the people.

Yesterday morning the first business was he election of officers for the coming year. Those chosen were: Rev. J. B Stocking of Wahoo, moderator: Rev. Jacob Flook of Hillside church, Omaha, secretary; Rev. J. 3. Adams of Blair, treasurer, and Rev. H. C. Herring was chosen delegate to the biennial convention of the Chicago seminary. Mempers received into the association were: Rev. 2. S. Sargeant, St. Mary's Avenue church, Omaha, from the St. Louis (Mo.) association; Rev. F. A. Hatch, Plymouth church, Omaha from the Northern Texas association; F. B. diffenbacher, Irvington, from the Lincoln association; Rev. H. E. Wyckoff, Pilgrim hurch, Omaha, from the Arizona association: Rev. F. W. Leavitt, West Point, a newly ordained minister. Letters of disto other associations were granted Rev. Alexander F. Irving to the New Haven (Conn.) association and Rev. C. H. Beaver to the Blue Valley (Neb.) association.

deports were received from the twentyeight churches composing the Omaha asociation, showing that the work of the last year has been of a most gratifying character. The devotional hour was led by Rev. F. B. Diffenbacher, after which Rev. C. S. Sargeant read a paper on the subject of the Congregational Church Building society, showing he work undertaken and accomplished by that organization, and setting forth its needs. The paper was well received and was declared to be one of the best of the meeting. In the basement of the church at noon the women's societies of the First Congregational church spread a dinner for the members of the association, which received even greater applause than the paper to which the members had just listened.

The afternoon session opened with the subject of home missions, led by Rev. H. C. Herring. It was discussed at length by Rev. H. Bross of Lincoln and others and quite an animated discussion arose over the methods to be pursued in the work in the home field. "Congregationalism" was the subject of a paper by Rev. F. W. Leavitt, and a general discussion of the subject followed. At 3 o'clock the women took charge of the meeting for an hour, discussing the question of missions. Mrs. Wood of Omaha spoke of the foreign missions and Mrs. Sumner presented the claims of the home mis-
