

ENGLISH STAND TOGETHER

Orders for American Meats Coupled with Conditions that Favor Great Britain.

MUST BE CURED WITH LIVERPOOL SALT

Goods Designed for Export Must Also Be Packed in English Tin Plates—Packers Do Not Object.

"The English merchants are celebrated for standing together," said a traveling man at the Merchants yesterday. "Here is a sample of the way they do things over there."

"You see," he continued, "this order is for canned beef and smoked ham and bacon, but do you notice that it is specified in the order that the meat is to be canned in English tin plate and that the hams and bacon are to be cured with Liverpool salt."

"The manufacturers of Omaha use little or no foreign tin plate at present," said a clerk in the office of the surveyor of the port of Omaha.

"We have had no goods coming under the new Porto Rican law up to this time, but we have a comparatively large amount where exporters ask for rebates for goods shipped to foreign countries."

DOG THAT WORRIED THE CAT

Sunday Scrimmage Between Feline and Canine Brings Walnut Hill Residents Into Court.

The old story of the charmed life of a cat was rudely disputed in police court yesterday morning when the name of A. C. Luchenberg, a prominent resident of Walnut Hill, was entered upon the docket.

The scrimmage that resulted so disastrously occurred last Sunday, it is said, and the affair at once betook neighborhood importance.

No. 27 No. 27 No. 27

We are going to tell you about this shortly. If there are any 24 percentage paying pets in Omaha who think when we take hold of anything to do with No. 27 has nothing to do with it. No. 27 has not.

SCHAEFER'S SURE DEATH. Used for all kinds of bugs, insects, etc. It is harmless to use and acts like a charm. Comes in bottles—25c, 50c and $1.00. Of course you wouldn't think No. 27 has anything to do with it. No. 27 has not.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. It's just like this. You have read about it so much lately that you certainly must be satisfied that in case you need any medicine for your kidneys it is worth trying. No. 27 anything to do with it. No. 27 has nothing to do with it. No. 27 has not.

SCHAEFER'S SARRAPARILLA. Same size as many of the bottles on the market. Only difference is we make it and that's what convinces us that there are not any better preparations on the market.
