A canvass is now being made to rulse funds for the limit, raised by taxation within the city limits, should be turned over by the county board to the city to be used by it as it deemed best. This is exactly where the contention arose last year and resulted in the city taking the matter into the courts. The case, however, pever came to trial, as an amicable arrangement was come to between the city council and the supervisors.

an amicable arrangement was come to between the city council and the supervisors. The county board turned over 60 per cent of the city's portion to the committee on streets and alleys of the council and retained 40 per cent, which it expended on the county roads. This arrangement was brought about at that time mainly owing to the fact that the city was much in need of the money for street cleaning purposes and making repairs on certain of the principal thoroughfares.

This agreement was not reached until after the question had been submitted to Judge Smith of the district court, who held "that in his opinion the law did not contemplate that a county road fund collected" to be reported to the provisions of this bill, and Whereas. Issues of Democrats.

There is not likely to be much of a spirited discussion over anything. The democrats now here are against any specific stand for free silver, but when the great majority of the delegates arrive tomorrow there may be another story to tell. Secretary Walsh of the national democratic committee, who arrived today, said: "The national campaign this year will be made on whatever issues the people adopt as the prevailing sentiment. If the people want the fight to be made upon silver it will be silver, but if they want something else, then the prevailsentiment. There is no question but what the state convention of Iowa and the coming national convention will strongly endorse the Chicago platform, but beyond that it is impossible to say what will be done. Silver and all of the other issues of imperialism and the trusts will be in the platform, and Bryan, and he will be the nominee. As to who will be nominated for vice president it is hard to say. There have been a number of men mentioned in connection with the place, but the sentiment does not seem to have been crystallized in favor of anyone in particular. Former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson will accept the nomination again, and it is not unlikely that he may be nominated. I believe that he would be one of the best men for the place. Dewey's candidacy is a joke and he will not be thought of in connection with the place."

A cold, or shock, or exposure, or any excitement may interrupt the menstrual habit in its regularity. That is the time to seek relief. So sensitive is the feminine organism, and so close is its connection with the nervous system, that a menstrual disorder instantly affects every part of the body. Some of the results are pains in the head, back, bowels, legs and hips. It is dangerous to allow leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, painful or irregular menstruation to exist a single day. They quickly get worse instead of better. Wine of Cardui gave Miss Armstrong complete relief from menstrual pains. Every month it gives permanent relief from suffering to thousands of women. It invigorates the menstrual function and makes the patient healthy and strong. There is nothing like it to assist young girls approaching womanhood to form correct menstrual habits.

"I have suffered from the first with painful and irregular menstruation. I tried different doctors and different patent medicines without any permanent relief. The sickness would occur every three weeks and I would suffer almost death, with pains in the lower bowels, back and head. Lately I have been using Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught at each monthly period and they have given me great relief. May you prosper inyour noble work of relieving suffering women."
