He declared that the district attached to the bill after a spirited debate, attorney had eight witnesses and many documents in the Caynor case before the United States commissioner in New York. WORK TOO IMPORTANT TO DROP

Forces the Addition of the Appropriation to the Omnibus Measure.

WASHINGTON, May 4.- (Special Tele gram.)-An effort will be made when the oundry civil bill reaches the senate to inthe work of the Mississippi river commission as well as the Missouri river commission. Senator Allison stated that it is necesof the work and that to abandon either commission at this time would be the highest He said that while the river and harbor bill might be abandoned at this seseion, it is absolutely necessary to protect some of the rivers, and the sundry civil bill is the only measure to which appropriations of this character can properly be attached. Director Merriam of the census today issued commissions to the following special agents, who will be entrusted with the work. of taking statistics of live stock: Nebraska-O. C. Williams, Clay Center; N. G. Knight, Inavale. Wyoming-A. G. McGregor and E. P. Snow of Chevenne.

The census bill provides for the appointment of twenty-seven special agents, twenty of whom have now been appointed. These agents will not only have charge of securing live stock statistics in states from which they are appointed, but will be sent into states which have no special agents to look after this very important feature of the census. Governor Merriam will issue a circular to all supervisors of census, callng upon them to ask priests of Catholic churches having charge of non-English speaking congregations to explain the merits f the census and also that the taking of the ceneus will in no way interfere with their rights or liberties. Governor Merriam believes that if the churches will do this it will greatly facilitate the work of the enumerators.

An effort will be made soon to substitute the house free homes bill for the senate measure, Senator Platt of Connecticut stating that the bill would pass the senate by about as large a majority relatively as it passed the house, although he is unalterably opposed to the bill.

The hearing today was at times quite exciting, owing to personal exchanges between members of the committee. Representative Ray of Virginia asserted at one point that efforts were being made by the majority to suppress testimony. Representative Mondell of Wyoming said that this assertion impugned the motives of members and was due to a failure by the minority to get answers they desired. Mr. Ray hotly retorted, throwing back the insinuation and declaring it was an "absolute falsehood." frequency of these encounters made the progress of the testimony slow. WASHINGTON, May 4 .- At the cabinet meeting today considerable time was consumed in discussing the new Hawaiian and Porto Rican acts. Although the treaty under which Hawaii was annexed to the United States provided that the United States should assume the debt of the islands amounting to about $4,000,000, there was some doubt as to the right of Secretary Gage under the Hawaiian act to pay off the debt and it is probable that a bill will be introduced in changes, with a view to set-

Appropriation Bill in the House. WASHINGTON, May 4 .- The house made fair progress today with the sundry civil appropriation bill, completing seventy-three of the 132 pages of the bill. Much of the time today was consumed in an effort of the members of the naval committee to cripple the coast and geodetic survey in retaliation for refusal of the house to adopt their recommendation, when the naval bill was before the house, to place the survey of the waters of our insular possessions in the hands of the navy.

They tried to strike out the item in the authorizing the coast survey to survey the coasts in the jurisdiction of the United States, but were defeated. They made a point of order hold against a new vessel for he survey and against an appropriation of $182,745 for enlisted men on survey vessels, but the latter appropriation went back in the bill in another form.

From 10:20 this morning. when the members of the Merchants' exchange and their families met the admiral and bade him welcome to St. Louis, until late tomorrow afternoon, receptions, dinners and parades will follow in quick succession. Admiral and Mrs. Dewey breakfasted rather late, the long ride from Chicago and the parade at Jacksonville yesterday having tired the admiral considerably. A crowd of several thousand people had gathered in front of the Planters' hotel, and in the street in front of the Merchants' exchange, and the admiral was given an ovation all the way along the short drive to the entrance of the exchange. The interior of the exchange had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, the walls, gallery railing and the platform on which the formal reception was held being covered with flags and bunting in festoons, with here and there pyramids of potted flowers and palms. As Admiral Dewey, excorted by President O. L. Whitelaw of the Merchants' exchange, stepped on the platform he was greeted with enthusiastic applause and waving of handkerchiefs, which continued for several minutes. Settle an Old Strike. CLEVELAND, May 4.- The strike of the employes of the Big Consolidated Street Railway company, which resulted in much rioting during its progress last summer, has been formally declared off by the union. A boycott was successfully maintained against the various lines of the company for several months after the strike had been broken, which proved very costly to the company. It is announced now that a settlement satisfactory to the men has been reached. It is said that those of the former employes who are desirous of reinstatement will be taken back.

Strife Between Labor Unions. PHILADELPHIA, May 4.- The strike of the building trades unions remains a conest between rival organisations rather than a struggle between employers and employes Secretary Joseph Allen of the Allied Building Trades council said today that at least 10,000 workmen are unemployed in consequence of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners persisting in speech in reply, simply thanking the peotheir refusal to affiliate with the councir.
