BOSTON HET ORETONAHAS

Lining, black and all colors,

Dress Lining

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. BOSTON STORE, OMAHA

Binding

binding, all colors, worth

Monday Bargains That Assert Our Underselling Power

Values to be found only at the Boston Store. We're constantly striving to secure bargains for our patrons. Our superior trade methods and a thorough knowledge of the markets and its conditions enable us to get them for you. (As we buy-so we sell).

Millinery Bargains

First grand exhibition of May hats. A special line to select from, introducing all the new materials for summer millinery, including Neapolitan, tuscan hair braids, leghorns and chips, all light materials for comfort in hot

$2.98 for women's hats, hand made shapes, fancy straw braids, etc., leghorns, turbans, pompadour and face bats, trimmed with flowers, chiffon, foliage, ornaments, fruits, worth up to $7.00. $5.00 for women's beautiful trimmed hats, copies of pattern hats of Paris creation, identical quality of trimmings being used. The new leghorns, turbans, round hats, etc. Also the new black values up to $12.00. $7.50 buys an elegant pattern hat, no end of styles to choose from. Rare black hats are greatly in evidence in this lot. Values range from $10 $2.50 for choice lot of women's trimmed hats, those hats that were shown at our recent opening, and almost as fresh as when first shown, they were formerly priced $5.00, $6.00 and $7.50. But to clear them out, we have placed them at this special low price for Monday. There is not an undesirable hat in the lot.

Flowers at One-Quarter Values. Having purchased an immense quantity of high grade flowers, fruits, signettes, etc., from Louis Auerbach, formerly A. Heliburn & Co., we will place on sale Monday, fruits, cherries, berries, currants, in fact all $1 bunches of fruit at 25c cach. Large bunch of roses in all colors, 6c bunch.

Large bunch of daisles with foliage for children's hats, 25c value, at 5c per bunch.

Big Cloak Values

Low prices for fashionable sults, skirts, capes and children's jackets. $7.35 for a very stylish or fly front suit, in a large variety $1.98 for a special bargain cloth cloth skirts in black and colors, storm of materials, choice $7.35, worth $15.

$1.39 for choice of 2,000 children's and misses jackets in cloth and fancy mixtures, checks and plaids, trimmed with fringe, braid, etc. All of them this spring's styles, and many of them heretofore $5.00.

$1.98 for $5 golf capes from in beaver cloth with plaid hood and flounce. Also 100 cravenette capes, guaranteed water proof.

Having bought an entire manufacturer's stock of silk capes, we will give

$1.98 Capes for $2.98 Capes for $5.00 The waist season is here and we are ready serges, black and navy blue. These are all with the new back and were with the greatest assortment of shirt waists ever shown in Omaha. New percale shirt waists in beautiful light and dark patterns, all of them made with French backs, many of them plaited 49c colors, $1 values, on sale for Silk Waists. $2.50 for $5.00 Silk Waists. $3.98 for $10.00 Silk Waists. Over 500 to select from, all of them tucked and corded, many of them lace trimmed -

$35 Watch $19.98

$10 Watch $5.49

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

Dress Goods & Silks

Most remarkable offers we ever made in fine dress fabrics and silks.

yard for 2,000 yards of all wool 44-inch Black Mohair Brillian-De Beiges in the new tans and grays, bro- tine. This is a bright, lustrous, plain These goods are especially adapted for in vogue. Go on special sale Monday warm weather wear and will shed dust, only, yard, 44c. on sale at 19 cents a yard.

yard for strictly all wool black and colored jacquards, heavy corded plaids, large assortment of black henriettas and serges, all on sale at

Monday at 21c a yard.

caded brilliantines in black and colors. and practical fabric, and is very much

To special leaders on bargain square for Monday. A bright red brilliantine, also black, extra fine quality 11/2 yards wide, strictly all wide wate two toned cheviots, and 100 pieces handsome plaid imported novelty suitings, especially adapted for separate skirts, Former price $1.00, on sale for 39c, Specials in Black Crepons.

Crepons-These are foreign The greatest bargain in fine creations in the richest and most mohair and wool Crepons ever offered.

elegant designs-imported to sell. This popular fabric is actually worth $1.50, go in this sale at 75c. Beautiful Silk for street and evening wear > blue and greens, floral designs-also wash best bargains ever offered in our store, a silks, corded silks and taffeta silks, for heavy quality black taffeta silk for waists or suit lining-$1.00 quality, yard yard for exceptionally wide $2 Silks, 75c-10 pieces very colored taffeta silk, soft finished, will heavy pure Bedford Cord Silk in black, reds, not cut, suitable for waists or linings, navy, heliotropes, etc., especially adapted and positively worth 75c, on sale at for entire suits or oping capes, on sale in

Big Basement Bargains Monday

10,000 yards of 40-inch lawns, India linens, mulls, long cloth. etc., slightly damaged on the edges, worth up to 25c yd., go at.....

One big table of corded piques in fine and wide cords, white and all colors, worth 25c yd.,

10,000 yards best standard grade Amoskeg apron checked gingham, per yd.....

10,000 yds. of mill remnants of bleached sheeting, all grades, per yd.....

10,000 yards mill remnants, best grade of prints, go at per yd......

for extra wide China Silk, tans, Black Taffeta Silk-One of the Drapery burlap, worth 15e yd. on sale for 50c Pearl Buttons, 6c

1,000 dozen medium and large size fancy pearl buttons, many of them guaranteed imported pearl, in plain, fancy carved and assorted colors, slightly imperfect, regular price up to 50e dozen, go at.....

worth 15c yd, at...

The best grade black

long mill remnants, sateen, worth 25c, in

go at, per yard

Turkey red oil

10,000 yards remnants, 36-in. wide

best grade percale, calico, worth 8½c yard, on sale for .. -

Fine buckles, including almost every style of gilt, cut steel, jet and bronze buckles, all sizes, worth 25c each, go at each, go at

25c Buckles for 5c

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

Big Lace Sale Monday

Embroideries at One-Third and One-Fourth Their Value

1,000 bolts of high class lace bought from a New York importer at 50c on the dollarall new choice patterns, will be sold on bargain counters at less than one-half price,

500 bolts French valenciennes lace and insertion, a great variety of patterns, fine quality, worth up to 10c yard-go at

3C and 12C

5,000 yds, handsome new patterns in English and German torchon, meeland and point d'esprit laces and insertions, worth up to 10c yd., go on bargain tables at

3C and 5C

3,000 pieces net top oriental, Normandy valenciennes and point d'esprit laces, also black and cream silk chantilla lace and insertion, terns, regular price 25c yd., on bargain table at.... 72C

500 bolts of colored embroidery in almost every color, all widths, many different patterns, some dark colored, .extra wide, worth up to 25c, go on bargain table at 10,000 yds, fine embroidery and insertion, including Swiss, Nainsook and fine cambric, all widths, large variety of patterns, worth regular up to 25c yd., go on bargain counters-

50 and 100

75c Ladies' Neckwear 10c

One large bargain square piled high with big assortment of ladies' summer neckwear, made of all colors of silk, including puff ties, many styles of plain white and fancy colored washable pique ties, stock collars, etc., also jabos, string ties, wascots and colored puffs-worth up to 75c—on bargain square, choice.....

75c Summer Corsets 25c

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA. BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

100 dozen ladies' perfect fitting summer corsets, made of the very best quality heavy double strength summer nets, well boned, side steels, made by the best manufacturers. A small lot of thece corsets are slightly soiled in transit, otherwise they on bargain squareall sizes-

at 2.50 Bicycle Shoes 75c Silk Veiling 5¢ yd, 10,000 yards plain and fancy silk veiling, all colors, all styles-

worth up to 25c yd., go on bargain counter

Ladies' high cut top bicycle shoes with cloth and leather uppers, all sizes, worth fully $2.50 75c

Eastern Farmers and Stock Raisers Settling in Fertile Western Valleys.

RAILROADS ASSISTING THE MOVEMENT

on Liberal Terms-What it Means for Omaha's Commercial Interests. and ground capable of being profitably tilled | enterprising, ambitious agriculturist of the by the energetic agriculturist, situated in east is in a particularly receptive mood be-three or four years and the next twelve vestment of his capital. months promise to witness an influx of settlers unprecedented in the history of the settled portions of the states named is the roads are not bending their energies toward for the price that a single farm of corre-Mecca toward which the eastern farmer and the disposition of lands owned by them sponding size in the east would bring. stock raiser, who, in accord with the ex- The Union Pacific is the only railroad compansive spirit of the times, is seeking to for wealth earning, has turned in search of the limitless possibilities presented. The railroads which pass through Omaha as the gateway to the vast expanses of the west much to fester this tide of emigration to the section tributary to Omaha, by reason of the direct and easily accessible railroad ! communication.

Means Much to Omaha.

Omaha is interested in this present and minimized. prospective tide of emigration. The populating of these states with more people means an entargement of all those commercial institutions, whose province it is to motive of the railroad companies in increasing the population of the states tributed, in which the true status of west-through which they operate is by no means ern farming and grazing lands and condipurely a philanthrophic one. Railroas man- tions are shown. Beside, the Burlington has money. In most cases this either represents to reach the limit of earning power for their a circulation of 25,000 copies, which is de- or else the proceeds from the sale of their respective systems, thickly settled commu-voted exclusively to articles relative to eastern property. The Burington directs the nities, supported by productive farming and cattle regions contiguous, must necessarily be provided. They have reached a full realization that the lands that are open to the settler are as possible of profitable cultivation as those to be found anywhere in the east or the middle west, more especially in the states east of the Missouri river and relatively adjacent to the Mississippi river. The land is present in unlimited area, ready homes, and induce them to court the rea- mechanic or professional man can find during the past four or five years and the templates establishing his future home.

GREAT TIDE OF IMMIGRATION the broad prairies or in the fertile valleys talent in the growing towns and the new

This development and settlement of the Choice Lands Offered to Homeseekers semination of information relative to westland and emigration agents are now emand eastern states dilating in glowing terms those states, spon the opportunities ready and waiting Millions of acres of splendid grazing land in Nebraska and other western states. The cause he, too, has been touched by the ecation and price of available lands are renter is a land-owner. given by the railroads, but beyond this

What the Burlington is Doing. The Burfington railroad has in operation unlimited quantities is constantly being dis- west, where such an expedient is unnecesagers and executive officers appreciate that a monthly publication, the Corn Beit, with the saving and accumulation of a few years western farming and live stock industry. Kansas, Wyoming and Montana, and to capable of cultivation under conditions used these sections whatever emigration it con- in farming the world over. trols is directed. The diversified interests ' of these four states are such as to meet the too, the eastern farmer does not take to this health, cententment and progress. to the homescekers who are dissatisfied with for the purchase of cheap but adaptable eastern Colorado. to the nomes exert who are dissatisfied with grazing land, and the artisan, merchant, "Western emigration has been growing sires to visit the country where he con- I am sorry to say, few opportunities to accompanies to accompanies to accompanies to accompanies to accompanies to their eastern grazing land, and the artisan, merchant, "Western emigration has been growing sires to visit the country where he con-settlements of the west.

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

$1.00 RAZORS, 39c.

George Butler's well known

Sheffield (England) razors, hand forged and value, on sale in basement

ready for use, $1.00

"Since the Burlington land grants have west has in it no element of boom. It has dwindled so that but little land is now crop is in, along about June, he is able ownership of a reasonable acreage of land, region to which emigration is now directed county is divided between farming and teen taken up by the railroads and is being owned by the railroad company the passen- to travel in search of a more desirable lo- The bona-fide homeseeker is given ten the following is quoted from an advertising stock growing. That section has splendid responded to by the homeseekers primarily ger department has had entire supervision cation than he has. After his return home, years' credit on the land he wishes to buy, pamphlet, showing the inducements held soil, plenty of small atteams in addition to ecause of the existence of prosperous times, of the work of fostering emigration," said when he harvests his wheat and small grain One-tenth of the purchase price is payable out to the homeseeker: unequaled for a number of years. By General Passenger Agent Francis. "We are and has his corn laid by, he is ready to at the time of purchase. At the end of virtue of growing busin as and increasing making no effort to dispose of any particular start out and make arrangements to settle the first year interest only, at the rate of 6 earnings the railroads are now enabled to land. Our work is to get the people located in the location he has selected, in the late per cent per annum on the deferred purpay more attention to the question of emiin the west and it makes no difference to us winter or early spring. That is the senson chase money, is payable. At the end of the gration. Their departments for the dis- whose lands they buy. The states from of the year when the new settler becomes second year, and each year thereafter, oneere lands have been enlarged and numerous lows, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illi- vestigation is now about here and I and together with interest on the deferred ployed in traveling throughout the mid-west fostering emigration is largely confined to who will visit Nebraska and other trans- Contracts may be paid up in full at any

Factors in Western Emigration.

"There are two or three factors which promote the spirit of western emigration. Take, for instance, the case of a man who the states of Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, magic wand of the god Prosperity. He has has a family of grown-up sons, who are South Dakota, Colorado and Utah are at- money available for investment. The east desirous of becoming land-owners and agritracting now, as never before, attention does not offer the opportunity that he refrom thousands of homescekers. Emigraalizes is possible in the west, and hence he charge each of his some a farm at the prices. from thousands of homescekers. Emigra- slizes is possible in the west, and hence he chase each of his sons a farm at the prices tion to these sections has been increasing seeks out that section where the greatest prevailing for farm lands in Illinois. Bein magnificent proportions during the past dividends will be likely to attend the in- sides, the young men have a certain spirit of adventure and are anxious to try their In consideration of the efforts that are fortune in the west. So the father disposes new being conducted by the Omaha rail- of his Illinois farm, comes west with perroads to increase the population of the west haps $10,000 in cash, buys each of his sons The territory comprised in the sparsely it is of passing importance that the rail- and himself a quarter section of western land

"Another class from which many western pany that owns any considerable area of homeseekers are recruited is the renters. broaden his sphere and enlarge his capacity western land and in its efforts to gain new They can't get enough money to acquire settlers the sale of its own lands is al- their own property in the east and continue of acres of rich agricultural lands open for together subordinated to the main issue- year after year to pay cash rental. Above it creased population of the lands through all things they desire to own a farm, 60 which the Omaha ratiroads operate. Con- they come to Nebraska and purchase a quarters are located in this city, are doing sequently it can readily be appreciated that plece of land, the first payment not exthe railroads are not indulging in a venture- coeding the rent they formerly paid in a some, speculative undertaking. To the pros- single year. In a short time the new home for the business, professional man and the pective settler who seeks information, the is freed from encumbrance and the former artisan, the growing cities and towns of the

"Then there is the eastern farmer, who their interest in the sale of the lands is in order to get a crop must fertilize extensiyely. In certain sections of Indiana and and location of industries. Ohio the farmer has to fertilize more or lers and it costs as much for the fertilizer necessary to raise a good crop as it would western emigration in the thickly populated we live departments of emigration and pub- take to buy a western farm. The farmer supply the demands of trade. It means the licity. They are adjuncts to the general figures over these things, considers that growth in importance of Omaha as a dis- passenger offices of P. S. Eustis in Chicago his land is practically worthless unless fertributing and manufacturing center. The and J. Francis in Omaha.. Literature in tilized and decides to etrike out for the

"The majority of the emigrants have principal portion of this travel to Nebraska The Burlington is particularly interested and Kansas in the rain belt. There is good in increasing the population of Nebraska, land, cheap in price, in abundance and it is

"Irrigated lands are more expensive. And, demands of the homeseeker, no matter what class of farming naturally until he has had homeseekers come are principally a bona fide resident. The period of in- tenth of the purchase money becomes due. nois, Indiana and Ohio and our work of ticipate that the number of homessekers amount at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

> will be larger than ever before." What the Union Pacific Can Offer. cific railroad has in the vast territory through which it operates opportunity to oftune's favor. The country it traverses in varied in character and offers to those contemplating a location in the west a more diversified territory to select from than es any other transcontinental line. Passonnections, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington, every commercial interest is represented along its

For the farmer there are yet thousands settlement; for the stock raiser there are immense areas of excellent grazing land to be secured; for the miner the great mountains of the west await but the opening to route. west are daily offering unequaled opportunities, unsurpassed by older sections of the United States, for investment of capital

For many years the Union Pacific Railroad company has been sowing the seeds of regions of the east. The entire west is now reaping the harvest and the Union Pacific is receiving its proportional benefit its general passenger office at local headquarters are distributed annually tons upon tons of literature relative to the west. Through its land department liberal inducements are offered settlers who seek to own their homes in a land where the opportunities for advancement are practically unent the advantages of educational and religious training for the younger generation.

his desires may be. For the farmer there experience. About 10 or 15 per cent of the distribution of advertising never again say of our government that is an abundance of valuable farming land the homeseekers go into the live stock matter. Emigration agents are employed it was but an experiment. We would have sonably certain graces of Dame Fortune on ample opportunity for his capital or his transmissouri region is now looked upon While the Union Pacific does not bend its room for the honest, industrious homeseek-tide of emigration is in operation when the lands, it offers the new settler terms so many years to come." missouri states during the next two months time before maturity and interest charged only to date of final payment. Five per cent discount is allowed upon the unpaid, Extending as it does half-way across the unmatured installments of principal, which discount is allowed on cash sales. Irrigation Reclaiming Arid Wastes. In the eleven western states in which the Union Pacific operates especial attention has been given during the last few years to the important question of irrigaintroduction of irrigation methods were ing as it does through or reaching by its sterile, unproductive wastes, a transformation has been effected and the entire region is dotted with fertile farms and ranches. There are yet innumerable choice farms in the irrigable ecctions. The inauguration of irrigation has been fostered by the Union Future of the Transmissouri Regions. Pacific company and the promoters of many

"Irrigation and emigration," says the become the source of large fortunes, and Union Pacific, "are in themselves enternections are situated 150,000,000 acres of admirable in location, rich in soil, have penetrated by the railroad he represents an abundance of water and immunity from malaria and are at an altitude where every sort of product, not tropical, can be grown. Quoting from an address delivered by W. D. Doyle of South Dakota at the seventh annual session of the National Irrigation congress the Union Pacific says;

"This vast territory is capable, under a practical system of irrigation and proper cultivation, of supporting in comfort three imes the present population of the United States, or upwards of 200,000,000 of people who would be a bulwark of strength to this limited, where perseverance is sure to be nation in either peace or war. Build up an crowned with success, where there are pres- American citizenship west of the ninetyseventh meridian by reclaiming and populating these arid and semi-arid lands, and where the climate is all that could be de-sired, where, indeed, the Ruler of the Uni-beyond the power of my imagination, but verse seems to have been lavish in His dis- I am sure we would have placed the everlasttribution of all those things that premote ing permanence of this, the great republic of all time, beyond all question of doubt Nor do the efforts of the Union Pacific, Philosophers and political economiets would it was but an experiment. We would have vote his energies to its cultivation or its in southern Nebraska and in the irrigated business. To the man who desires to raise who visit the east and describe accurately made room for the unemployed of the nause for grazing purposes. Effort is, there- districts of Wyoming; for the cattle or cattle or sheep we recommend the purchase and without exaggeration the limitless, un- tion; room for the 2,000,000 of young men fore, being directed to present these facts sheep man there is is unlimited opportunities of the west. Liberal and young women now annually coming of rates are afforded the homeseeker who de- age in this country and for many of whom quire homes of their own are now available with greater favor than ever before. The energies toward the disposition of its own ers from all other states and countries for over one hundred thousand people where eastern farmer is at leisure. After his liberal as to bring within his reach the As being applicable to the entire western Splendid Inducements for Settlers. "The country tributary to railroad facilfarmer or investor. Here are found all the advantages of railways, markets, schools, churches, society and neighbors that can be found in an old, settled country, with the additional advantages of cheap lands unsurpassed in fertility and a climate of acknowledged healthfulness. To the man who is the possessor of a few hundred dollars this country presents better opportunities for continent from the banks of the Missouri have more than nine months to run, where securing a home and a competency than it is river to the Pacific coast, the Union Pa- final payment is made upon a contract within possible for any government land district with its free lands to offer. It is unneces five years after its date, and 10 per cent sary to say why the above statement is true. for a little thought on the part of any intelligent farmer will convince him of its accuracy. The man who has experienced the hardships incident to the homesteader's and pre-empter's life, in a country remote in those regions which before the from railways, markets, schools and society, the increased expense for provisions and fuel, will find, at the end of five years' residence that he has expended more than the

> The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley an irrigation enterprise which has proved railroad has not been behind its competitors an unqualified success received his first en- in promoting emigration to Nebraska and couragement and endorsement of his plans contiguous states. Its main line penetrates from the officials of the great Overland the northern half of the state and continues into the heart of Wyoming and to the rich mineral fields and cattle sections of South Dakota. Major J. R. Buchanan, general pasprises distinct and yet closely akin. On senger agent of this road, has long been the line of the Union Pacific and its con- optimistic concerning the future of the transmissouri region and has accomplished land capable of being irrigated. They are much toward the settlement of the sections referred to above are ready at hand."

"Since the early days when 'Free Homes -free government lands-by millions of acres, were offered to the settler of Nebraska there has never been a more favorable opportunity or outlook than the present for prospective settlers," says Major Buchanan There are speculators and adventurers who are eager to take chances in all prespecwhich have a show of promise of gain. Those people came to Nebraska in early days, endured the hardships and made great winnings. They are today the wealthy, responsible and leading citizens of the state. "There is another large class of people who prefer to wait until the experimental braska has passed the experimental stage and now promises splendid returns to the in-"The Elkhorn road extended up the Eikorn Valley-concededly the best part of Nebraska-when there were millions of ac es of free government land, subject to hometead and pre-emption entry. That land is now worth $25 to $35 per acre. Crops have never proved a failure in the east 150 miles stage is passed and a sure return is promised. That is the condition of today. Ne-of the Elkhorn Valley "As the Elkhorn road opened up the enire northern portion of the state, the adventurous citizen from neighboring states atreets, N. Y.

fifteen years ago there were not fifteen bundred. The newer country west of Helt the considerable streams of Long Pine and the Niobrara rivers; but the rainfall is hardly sufficient to warrant reliable crop raising and so the country is mainly de voted to stock raising and dairying. For the farmer or the crop raiser the eastern onethird of Nebraska has no equal. For the dairyman and stock raiser the northwestern portion of the state, along and adjacent to the line of the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri

Valley railroad is undoubtedly the superior to any section of the country in the west,

What is the Elkhorn doing to promote emigration? It is publishing and distributing, monthly-and sometimes oftener-a 'guide' which gives some statistical figures of the products of the state. It gives the population of towns, the business interests of the towns, the prices of lands in different sections along the line. It is showing what different interests prosper and offers inducements to immigration. It joins all roads in making cheap homeseckers' rates to this state, and along its line of road as frequent intervals. It is not striving to get lanybody' to come, but is encouraging emigrapurchase money of a quarter section of land thon from a good class of thrifty, industrious where all the conveniences and advantages people, who will surely succeed with the onportunities here offered. We think that with Nebraska producing two hundred to two hundred and fifty millions of bushels of corn, thirty to fifty million bushels of wheat, with shipments of over $70,000,000 worth of stock per year, with an according marker, an increasing demand and especially a growing export demand for our products of farm and range the promise of success and the inducements offered by the state and the railroads ought to double the population in the next three years."

HUMPHREYS'

Humphreys' Specifics are the ideal cure pecifics which act directly up on the disease n such doses as cure, without exciting disorder in any other part of the system.

Specific "77" breaks up Grip and Colds hat "hang on. Specific "1" breaks up Fevers, Conges-ion, Inflammation. Specific "10" breaks up Dyspepsia, Inligestion, Weak Stomach. Specific "15" breaks up Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains, Lumbago.

Specific "16" breaks up Malaria, Chills and Fever. Specific "27" breaks up Kidney and Bladler Diseases.

Manual of all diseases, especially about children, sent free. For sale by all druggists or sent on receipt of price, 25c each. Humphreys' Homeopathic Medicine Co., Cor. William and John extended his exploration, and now there are 22 Rue Etienne-Marcel, 32, Paris.