Matthewson, at about the age of 61 years, occurred at Los Angeles, Cal., Tuesday morning, April 24, after long and painful sufferings from an incurable malady which continued for eleven years. The ead news of Mrs. 'Matthewson's death has brought with it a keen sense of personal bereavement to those who remember her se she was during her many years' residence in Omaha and Lincoln, and they will be quick to recall her rare gifts and qualities of womanhood in the triple character of Christian wife, mother and friend,

Dr. R. C. Moore of this city served with him at that time and bears testimony to the efficient services of Mrs. Matthewson there and to her beauty and charm of manner, which won all hearts. It was about the year 1866 that the McKinley, doctor came to Omaha and engaged in the practice of his profession, and he continued his professional life here until Governor Garber called him to the superintendency of the insane arylum at Lincoln. It was in assisting her husband in that trying public service that Mrs. Matthewson found a field for the display of her womanly and gentle sympathics and those rare qualities of head and heart by which she was distinguished in every circle in which she moved. After Dr Matthewson's retirement from this service the family moved to Los Angeles, Cal., where they have since resided.
