

TRoubles of SLOBODISKY

Belligerent Russian in Need of a Secretary to Help Keep His Dates.

NOW DEFENDANT IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE

His Young Wife Files a Petition for Separation and Charges Her Husband with Unseemly Conduct.

If business continues at its present rapid pace Louis Slobodisky—he of Ninth street fame—will need a bunch of private secretaries to help him keep his office dates. Ever since the case of Henshaws inaugurated his crusade for the collection of personal taxes a few weeks ago a large proportion of court house and city hall ink has been consumed in writing Slobodisky's name.

The latest epoch in Slobodisky's stormy career occurred in Judge Keyser's court yesterday, when the divorce case of "Beatrice Slobodisky against Louis Slobodisky" was called for trial. Neither side being ready, the case was postponed indefinitely. There is a rumor that reconciliation may be brought about, but official verification is lacking.

Mrs. Slobodisky instituted divorce proceedings last October, long before the name of Slobodisky was known to the casual observer. She never suspected that Louis Slobodisky figured in a romance, but he did, and this divorce case is the sequel. Three years ago Slobodisky met Miss Beatrice Hunter, a young dreamer, conceded to be one of the most strikingly beautiful women in Omaha. It was a case of instantaneous love, such as is depicted in story books. Slobodisky and Miss Hunter went to Council Bluffs on the afternoon of October 23, 1898, and were married. Unlike the story book version, they did not "live happily ever after," but on the contrary, their bark struck storm seas. If the contents of Mrs. Slobodisky's divorce petition may be taken as an index.

The petitioner alleges that on the night of February 15, 1899, her husband locked her out of the house and refused her admittance. Subsequently, so she alleges, he ripped $150 worth of her fine dresses into shreds such as farmers' wives use for carpet rags. It is further alleged that he made himself generally disagreeable, heaping various accusations upon his pretty young wife.

In concluding her petition, Mrs. Slobodisky sets forth that her husband derives at least $150 per day from the rental of tenement houses, that he owns three $5,000 residences at 2522 Wirt street, and that he has a large income from other sources. This recitation is preliminary to an appeal to the court for a liberal allowance of alimony. Mrs. Slobodisky did not appear in court yesterday, her attorney being there to represent her. Slobodisky's attorney was also present. As to the rumored reconciliation, the attorneys declined to make positive statements.

While this was going on in Judge Keyser's court, a local piano firm was hurriedly instituting a writ of replevin against City Treasurer Hennings to recover possession of a piano, which it was alleged was seized with other property for the payment of Slobodisky's personal taxes. The piano was set forth that the instrument was only leased to Slobodisky. Only two days ago Slobodisky was before Judge Dickinson in an effort to enjoin the city treasurer from further interference with the collection of rents of the "Ninth street tenement," and final settlement of that question is still pending, with possibility of a compromise.

HOLD-UP CASE ON TRIAL AGAIN.

Ray Brown Said to Be Prepared to Prove an Alibi.

Ray Brown is on trial in Judge Baker's court on the charge of complicity in the "hold-up" of a street car on the Twenty-fourth street line near the northern terminus on the night of November 23, 1899. Brown was tried once before on the same charge, but the jury disagreed. Hugh Landy, charged with being a confederate of Brown, was released a few days ago. Brown, a beardless boy of perhaps 20 years, is accompanied in court by his father and mother. The specific charge is that he took $16 from the pockets of Conductor Armbrust. The forenoon was taken up with jury deliberations. It is understood that Brown's attorney will spring a surprise of some kind by which he hopes to have the case taken from the jury. Failing to bring an abrupt termination of the trial, the defendant's attorney will seek to establish an alibi, it being asserted that Brown was in South Omaha at the very moment the "hold-up" occurred.

SALOON CANNOT BE OUSTED.

Jeweler Coleman's Suit Against Retainers of House is Dismissed.

In the Coleman case, the South Omaha jeweler, sought an injunction restraining Tierney & Stroch from operating a saloon adjoining his place of business. Judge Dickinson has decided in favor of the defendants. Coleman set forth that the saloon was a menace to his business, and further alleged that the proprietors had not complied with the license regulations. Judge Dickinson held that it is not within the province of a court of equity to act in such a case. He said that Coleman has

ORDER WAS COMPLIED WITH

Rock Island Instructors Section Foreman to Be Examined for Color Blindness.

MIKE DONOHUE TOO BUSY TO COME

So He Extracted His Glass Eye and Sent It to the Company's Oculist for Inspection.

Recently the Rock Island railroad issued an order requiring all its section foremen to report to an oculist on a certain day and have their eyes examined. As the result of this order Charlie Rutherford, general agent of the Rock Island in this city, is telling a good story in which a section foreman, near Topeka who uses a glass eye for one of his lamps and the railway oculist at Topeka are the principals.

"One afternoon last week," says Mr. Rutherford, "after our company oculist at Topeka had finished his examination of several of the section men and was preparing to leave his office, a messenger boy rushed in with a small package tied up in tissue paper, which proved to contain a glass eye. It was accompanied by a note evidently hastily scribbled, which read: 'Oye Inspector: Dear sir: The day before yesterday, at nine, I got word to come down and have me looked into for color blindness as ye call it. I had forty-five tin tags in my eye, but beyond the sand put out and as Jerry Sullivan and I were coolly but in indisposed since the wind that was held over the ded corpus of Danny Doherty, me hands wot two short to spare me. Twas lucky that the ritie eye tagger was first in my hand. Myself, I wot a pik, an me glass eye that is a perfect figger uv the eye that was not put out is sent to you for hexamination. I cud spare the glass eye better than the eye in me head, and if she is called blind I'll me one what aint. Mike Donohue.'"

CHANGES IN RIO GRANDE ROAD.

Underwood, Now of Baltimore & Ohio, to Be General Manager.

DENVER, Colo., May 16.—A special to the Times from Denver, Colo., says: "The Denver and Rio Grande road, the most prominent railway men of the country there will be a change in the official roster of the Denver & Rio Grande company about June 1. Frederick G. Underwood, now general manager of the Baltimore & Ohio, will be made general manager with headquarters in Denver. George Coppell, chairman of the Board of Directors, has been in ill health for about six months, and will resign in favor of Underwood, who will be in the dual capacity of president and chairman of the Board of Directors. He will be clothed with the same powers and prerogatives with Coppell and have absolute control of the policies of the road.

UNION PACIFIC'S NEW OFFICE.

The new city ticket office of the Union Pacific will be ready for occupancy July 1. A five years' lease has been made and it is reliably stated that Mr. Cahm will derive approximately $22,000 per annum from the lease. The removal of the Union Pacific ticket office to Fourth and Farnam streets will make the intersection of these thoroughfares an important railroad center, as every corner building will then be occupied by a railroad office.

No detail has been overlooked that will contribute to the elegance and convenience of the new home of the Union Pacific's city office. The interior will be fitted out with mahogany furniture, with woodwork to match, and City Passenger Agent George Abbott will occupy a private office.

ROCK ISLAND RECEIVES NEW ENGINES.

The Rock Island road has just received twenty-two mammoth new engines, constructed for both speed and power, which will be put into service on the fast freight and passenger trains running between Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis. It is estimated that they will be able easily to pull a train of from twelve to fourteen heavy Pullman sleepers at an average speed of fifty miles an hour.

WORKING TO RESTORE TRADE.

One of the objects of the present meeting of the Western Passenger association in Chicago is to reach an agreement, if possible, that will prevent the slaughtering of rates for the transportation of goods and troops returning from the Philippines. The local pooling agreement has gone to pieces, owing to the refusal of the roads which carried the largest proportion of the business to turn over part of their earnings from that source to the other lines. One of the roads which carried the troops have already settled with the government on the basis of party rates, less the land grant. As matters now stand, the government can get much more for the transportation of troops during the Cuban war, and it is to do away with this condition of affairs that the passenger men are now discussing the proposition.

CASHING AWARDED CONTRACT.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 16.—(Special.)—Ex-Mayor R. C. Cushing of Omaha has been awarded the contract for two miles of the Sherman hill cutoff. The work will consist of Dale Creek and the big tunnel and eight months time has been allowed in which to complete the job. Mr. Cushing is now in the east purchasing about $15,000 worth of machinery for the work. As a large part of the distance is through the mountains much of the work will be removed in cars, there being but few places where teams and scrapers can be worked to advantage.

PLANS FOR UNION PACIFIC.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 16.—(Special.)—A report is in circulation here to the effect that the Union Pacific will shortly assume control of the Cheyenne & Northern branch of the Colorado & Southern. This line is about 150 miles long and runs from Cheyenne to Orin Junction. It is said that by gaining control of this road the Union Pacific will need have no fears of the Burlington securing all of the Black Hills-Colorado trade which its Brush-Alliance line is competing.

RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS.

W. P. Jenkins, freight traffic manager of the Hammond Packing company, is in the city from Chicago. General Freight Agent K. C. Morehouse of the Elkhorn left last night for a business trip to Chicago. Thomas Hest, agent of the Baltimore & Ohio, left last night for a trip to Minneapolis and other northern points. Lyman Sholes, division passenger agent of the Omaha road, left last night for a business trip over the line. Before returning he will visit St. Paul and Minneapolis. R. Smith, contracting agent of the Memphis line, is in town from Kansas City looking after freight business. John B. Webster, general manager of the Omaha Bridge and Terminal company, will return today from a business trip in the west. Freight Traffic Manager J. A. Munroe of the Union Pacific is expected to return this month, he being here in the afternoon. George Glah, chief clerk in the Illinois Central office at Denver, arrived in the city Tuesday to attend the funeral of his mother. Under his new time card, which went into effect Sunday, the Northwestern has scheduled a train to leave Omaha at 7 o'clock in the morning to stop at Missouri Valley, Logan, Woodbine, Redwood, and other points. These additional stops were made at the request of commercial travelers, who have been waiting for the early morning train from Omaha to the points mentioned.

REAL "OLDEST INHABITANT"

J. T. Adair of Decatur Visits Place of His Birth After Thirty-Three Years' Absence.

Among the witnesses called before the United States grand jury at this term is J. T. Adair of Decatur, Neb. Mr. Adair lay claim with truth to being one of the "oldest inhabitants," as he was born in Kanesville (Council Bluffs), Ia., fifty years ago this month.

The father of Mr. Adair joined the Mormons at Nauvoo, Ill., despite the protests of his mother, who, nevertheless, accompanied him in the migration as far as Council Bluffs. Here the polygamous practices of the Latter Day Saints became more than she could endure, and with her infant son she decided to leave the society. At that time in that part of Iowa it required more than ordinary resolution to make such an attempt, but in the dead of winter, carrying her child in her arms, Mrs. Adair started from the settlement. She was soon missed and her husband with other Mormons started in pursuit. She heard that they were following her and took precautions to throw them off. She was so successful and finally found shelter and concealment in the home of a family named Thompson, living near what is now Magnolia, Harrison county, Iowa. With this family she remained until the brightening of the morning of the 11th of May. Then she removed to Omaha, where she lived for several years, and where the witness of today stayed until he was 17. He then left this city, and while residing within 150 miles of Omaha ever since, this is his first visit to the town in thirty-three years.

A WOMAN'S AWFUL PERIL.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation," were the startling words heard by Mrs. L. B. A TREE WON'T GROW.

Unless properly cared for, nor will a shoe wear properly made. We have taken the greatest interest in selecting our line of men's $3.50 shoes and what we offer this summer is not in reality a $3.50 shoe, but one of far more value—made by the best shoemaker in the world and sold only by us in Omaha—every popular shade, every popular toe and last. We know that no such shoe can be bought for $3.50 anywhere else. There are, of course, $1.50 shoes everywhere, but none like these. We guarantee every pair and our guarantee is good, too.

NUISANCES TO BE ABATED

Unsanitary Conditions to Be Removed and the Expense Charged Against Owners of the Malodorous Property.

With the coming of warm weather the health department has entered upon an active crusade against the existence of various stagnant pools and similar nuisances which under the influence of a summer sun might become a menace to the health of the community. A number of complaints have been received from persons who believe they are exposed to noxious influences and these are being investigated by a sanitary officer. The officials say they will go to the full length authorized by the ordinance and if necessary order work done, charging the necessary expense to the property owner concerned.

Nervous Spells,

Neuralgia, headache, rush of blood to the head, numbness, an irritable temper, loss of appetite, sleepless nights, poor memory and a general run-down condition. There is no remedy so sure and safe as Dr. Miles' Nervine. From the very first dose its soothing and quieting influence can be felt. Nothing in the past has ever equaled it in power of building up weakened nerve tissues and giving strength to the tired body. The weary sufferer who has walked the floor at night with throbbing temples and bursting brain, will find restful sleep and sweet repose, and awake feeling strong and refreshed. Dr. Miles' Nervine searches out the weak parts wherever they may be hid and gives them new life and vigor.

"I used to suffer from terrible attacks of nervous and sick headache at least once a week, and it seemed that my head would split open. I became so weak that the least excitement would unstrung my nerves and I would have spells when it seemed impossible to get my breath. I had to give up my millinery business and was on the very verge of the grave when I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and began taking it. The very first night I was able to sleep soundly and the next day I felt like a different person. I continued taking the remedy and now I attend to my customers without any headache or nervousness."
