COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL Quiet Day on Board with Fall in Wheat Prices.

CORN MARKET IS SOMEWHAT IRREGULAR

Trade in Oats is Unimportant and Fluctuations Show Influence of Corn-Hog Receipts (ause Provisions to Open Lower.

CHICAGO, May 17-With the prediction of rain in the northwest today came a price-fall in wheat, July closing "su'zunder yesterday. Corn and oats closed up changed and provisions unchanged to 7220 lower.

The trade in wheat throughout the session was about as quiet as a Quaker mosting. The opening was firm, because Liverpool was a little higher, but later the weather man said conditions pointed to rain in the thirsty northwest and idea $13.00.

Weather man said conditions pointed to rain in the thirsty northwest and ideas concerning the present value of wheat shrank somewhat. July, having opened unchanged at sequences, conched are inrediated and alid down to sear, with very little support. Traders were inclined to see nothing serious in the continued pro-cipitation of moisture in the content of the day. Frimary recepts were allow hu, compared with allow bu, last year. Min-receipts here were 20 cars, none of non-tract grade. Clearances in wheat and four were equal to 34,000 bu. The shipping dur-man dwas shark and New York reported only nine loads taken for export. The corn market was some the information to the weakness, while the heaviest of the rables but shortly afterward the market with the wheat decline. Later, after vari-strength. Spot coffee, Rio, dull and unchanged.

GREAT ENGINEERING WORK.

Resources Which Will Be Opened 1 p by Trans-Siberian Railroad.

In point of magnitude and cost, says the Scientific American, the Trans-Siberian railroad is certainly the greatest engineering work of the age. According to figures furnished by the Russian imperial ministry of ways and communication, the total cost of the railway will be $500,000,000, of which about $295,000,000 has been already expended. t is considered that this lavish outlay is justified by the fact that the work, when completed, will make available the resources. of a country whose wealth has never been told.

According to the official statistics, Siberia has a total area of 5,333,333 square miles. It is liberally watered by some of the finest rivers in the world. The total area of land that is capable of agricultural development. is about 20,000 square miles, and the soil of these sections consists of a deep layer of black learn. A total of about 16,000 acres of land has already been colonized and the government is now parceling out the prairies through which the line runs, with the confident expectation that Siberia will become one of the most powerful competitors in the world's supply of wheat. For the immediate future it is expected that the new settlers will devote themselve chiefly to cattle raising. It seems that the virgin forests of Siberia have been cut down in the same ruthless and was: oful manner that charac erized the denudation of our own forest lands; nevertheless, it is estimated that there still remains about $0,000 square miles of valuable pine and fir timber.

The official estimate of the mineral wealth of Siberia is remarkable reading, for it would indicate that this mysterious country is, minerally speaking, one of the richest in the world. North of the Aral sea and mountains the land is rich in lead, silver, copper and gold. Several ranges of the Altai mountains are known to be rich in gold, copper ore and minor precious stones, while the varieties of porphyry and jasper, known by the name of this range, have an established reputation. Extensive deposits of coal are found in the Kusnetz region. It seems that in far eastern Siberia the mountain ranges are equally rich in silver, copper, iroa, coil and graphite, while the gold fields of eastern Siberia are known to be particularly promising. Elsewhere, coal and naphtha have been developed, while the coast line of eastern Siberia has yielded good results to the gold was a | washers.

REIGN OF TERROR.

Havor Wrought by Two Lions Among

Camps of Workmen in India. If the whole body of lion anecdote, from the days of the Assyrian kings to the last year of the nineteenth century, were collated and brought together, it would not equal in tragedy or atrocity, in savageness or in sheer insolent contempt for man. armed or unarmed, white or black, the story of these two beasts. The scene of their exploits, relates the London Spectator, was 130 miles from the coast, in the valley of a cool and swift stream, the Tsayos river, Filled by the melting of the snows on Klimanjaro, bordered with palms and ferns, and at a further distance by a dense and impassable jungle of thorns, its banks beame suddenly the camping ground of Heavy Steers Slow-Hogs Lower-Lambs About Stendy.
