President Steyn left here for the Free platform he urged them to be of good cheer. LONDON, May 18.-A special dispatch from Amsterdam says a telegram from a relieved Tuesday.

A special dispatch from Lourenzo Marquez, dated yesterday, says the last 500 that Mafeking had been relieved.

From the mention of the laagers in the Pretoria dispatch it is understood here that prior to the raising of the siege of Mafeking the Boer laagers around that place were vigorously bombarded by the British relief column and the burghers practically compelled to abandon the siege.

The dispatch of the Associated Press announcing the relief of Mafeking was posted outside the Mansion house and the news rapidly apread. A large crowd collected and the streets in the neighborhood were scon resounding with cheers.

4 a. m .- London's millions epent half the night in the streets and even at 4 a. m. troops of young men are parading, singing and cheering and there are crowds in front of the Mansion house, Marlborough house, the clubs on Pall Mall and the War office and in Parliament square, waving flags and joining in the national airs. This sustained bellowing and uproar of hundreds of thousands amaze the Englishman, who ceases for a moment to be an actor and becomes merely an observer.

Sober, phicgmatic London is beside itself with emotion. Gusts of patriotism have set the town quivering twice or thrice before during the war, but nothing has quite equaled tonight's hundred square miles of almost furious demonstrations. It was a curious thing for the onlooker to see solemn, gray-haired men toss their opera hats into the air and join in the hurricane of cheers when a wreath-crowned banner with the portrait of Colonel Baden-Powell women in broughams waved union jacks from the windows. Conventional family parties stopped at street corners to take part in singing "God Save the Queen" and "Soldiers of the Queen." Everywhere were the Transvaal and Orange Free State." abandon, good feeling and astonishing roars of human voices.

It was all brought about by a twenty word telegram from Pretoria that Mafeking had been relieved. Although the government has not a word and nothing confirmatory has been received from any African source, except Pretoria, nobody apparently questions the news. Arthur J. Balfour, government leader in the House of Commons, speaking from the government beach late last evening, said: They Cheer Him Anyhow.

"The only news I have is through the formation at the War office, nor would we pital, Omaha, are results of her workhave it as soon as it would arrive through other channels. Therefore the fact that we have not received it neither confirms nor disproves the accuracy of the information. I need hardly say that we all trust, and we have good reason to think, that it is probably true." (Cheers.)

George Wyndham, parliamentary under secretary of war, replying to several members of the house who had privately interrogated him, said:

"Although the government has heard nothing. am disposed to believe the bulletin. It may be temorrow and perhaps even Monday before the government gets dispatches from our nilitary commanders, even if the siege were raised some days ago, as the news would need to be conveyed over a gation to Kansas City. long distance by messengers on horseback. whereas the enemy would probably be able to avail themselves of telegraphic communication
