Ex-Secretary of War Says He Has No

Connection with Cuban DETROIT, Mich., May 21.—"The whole story is a dastardly lie and you cannot denounce it in any too unmeasured terms." that John Harrington, late superintendent of construction of the government railroad in Cuba, asserted that he was interested in the construction of the above named road.

Continuing, he said: "No senator or any other person ever spoke to me about being interested in the construction company which built that road. I have never invested or had invested for me one dollar in any property in Cuba, and neither I nor any a hundredth part of a mill out of the island in any way. "Further than that. I have consistently refused since I resigned as secretary of war to take part in any investment in Cuban property. I was asked to go into the railroad now being built on that island and refused. I have also been asked to go into timber land purchases and purchases of tobacco or sugar lands. These things I have refused to consider, and I never expect to have any investment there, although the field is promising. I should not like to have anybody think that I had used inmy own private gain, as some might if I should invest money in Cuba, even now," General Alger, however, defended the government railroad, saying the construction of it was a rush job and this was no oppor-
