

DENOUNCE MOISE METHODS

County Democrats Adopt Resolutions on the Delegate Question.

WANT OPEN PRIMARIES TO CHOOSE

Action of the Anti-Slavery League to the Governor Stirs Up More of a Hum than the Party Leaders Can Smother.

The County Democracy has thrown down its bankers good and hard in their scheme to take a packed delegation to the state democratic nominating convention.

At the regular meeting of the club last night at the club rooms thirty-six members were present. While the club has something like 100 names on its lists of members, a meeting with thirty-six has for some time been exceptionally large.

Whereas, the Douglas county democratic central committee has heretofore at a meeting proclaimed to its members that a congressional convention and such other business as may properly come before the committee, should be held at Lincoln, Neb., on the 15th day of July, 1906, and to the congressional convention.

Resolved, by the Douglas County Democracy, that the said action of the said committee be and the same be and it be deemed: That we demand that said committee take such action as may be necessary to call and hold local primary elections to be held in accordance with the rules of said committee and proceed in accordance with the principles and practice of the democratic party and the constitution of the Douglas County Democracy.

Platt Engineers a Beat.

This strategic political movement is attributed to the ingenuity of Platt, one member of the club who has heretofore felt counter to the wishes and designs of Moise, Fanning & Co., especially at the last state convention, when he had the audacity to get himself elected district delegate to the national convention, a position which Moise had marked as peculiarly his own.

The meeting also endorsed Dr. Lee Van Camp for the position of county physician in view of the understanding that Dr. Wearne, the present incumbent, has lost his political pull and is likely to be removed.

J. E. Reagan of the committee on transportation to the Kansas City national convention submitted a report showing that all who accompany the club's excursion need have no trouble in securing admission to the convention, as all they will have to do will be to put up in the price of the railroad fare and hotel and club badge, the twin admissions being procurable for $3.

Harry Miller and W. H. Gauslund put in an appearance at the club rooms after the meeting had adjourned and the crowd had dispersed. The former said it will take the signatures of fifteen members of the county committee to call a meeting of that body and a vote of two-thirds of the members of the committee to undo the action of the last meeting in appointing a delegation according to the liking of Moise and his preferred gubernatorial candidate.

Harry Miller views it "As far as I am concerned," said he, "if there are found fifteen members of the committee who want to call primaries and a convention and two-thirds of the committee so order it will make any material difference to me. I am speaking only for myself, however, as I have not seen Fanning and Moise's list out of town. But what do you think of this man Platt?"

There were only thirty-six members of the County Democracy present at that meeting, while there are 100 names on the list of membership and there were forty-one members present at the last meeting. The committee out of a total of sixty-one. There does not appear to be such consistency in the action of these thirty-six.

Over at Jacksonian headquarters it was stated last night that if Moise should conclude to stand pat and not appoint a delegation at the meeting last Saturday, not enough members of the delegation will go to Lincoln to make a respectable showing. Jacksonians frankly declared that this action of the County Democracy left the Moise delegation a dead bird.

Meantime J. J. O'Connor, a member of the state committee, who was appointed to stay at home by the men who named the state delegation, has been for three days diligently circulating a notice among the members of the committee, the purpose of which is to call primaries and a county convention for selection of a state delegation. It is stated that enough members of the county committee have signed it to insure such a meeting. Those who favor primaries contend that it will not require a two-thirds vote.

REV. SAVIDGE RETURNS HOME

Says His Misunderstanding With McInturf Will Have no Effect on Proposed Church.

Rev. Charles W. Savidge, pastor of the People's church, arrived home yesterday from Spokane, Wash., where he has been in conference with Rev. W. H. McInturf relative to the proposed building of a new church edifice in this city. Rev. Savidge talks freely about the misunderstanding that arose between him and Rev. McInturf, and declares that he has no ill will against the Spokane minister, although he does not feel that he has been properly treated.

While Rev. McInturf was in Omaha last winter he was the guest of Rev. Savidge and was widely introduced by him. Their cooperative plan met with popular favor and contributions came in rapidly. Option was secured on prominent pieces of real estate and the plans were maturing in a gratifying manner when a woman whose name has not been made public complained to Mr. Savidge that Mr. McInturf had borrowed $200 from her and that he had not made proper provision to her.

Rev. Savidge briefly states his position to be that of one who discounts any wrong that may be done by McInturf and he feels it incumbent upon himself to bring about adjustment if possible. His conference with Rev. McInturf, however, was unsatisfactory and the tangible is now a peaceful solution that it was before the attempt was made.

Justice Dickinson has appointed Edward Stout, his court bailiff, receiver for the Omaha Gas Engine and Motor company. This action was the result of a petition filed several days ago by creditors of the concern. It is alleged that its affairs are in a complicated shape. For ten days the sheriff has been in charge of the establishment, pending Justice Dickinson's decision as to the receivership. The liabilities are comparatively small, but creditors are none the less persistent on that account.
