

FANNING IS EXASPERATED

Colonel Moise's Chief Lieutenant Betrays His Feelings of Chagrin.

ALL OVER ACTION OF COUNTY DEMOCRACY

Calls the Objectors to the Colonel's Pro-Populist Scheme a Lot of Traitors Who Could Never Secure Endorsement.

In the absence from the city of Colonel Moise's the governor's staff none of the executive lieutenants seem to know what course they are collectively likely to pursue in regard to the proposition to hold democratic primaries and select in that way a new delegation to the state convention.

Colonel Moise, who has the leadership of the executive commands in the absence of the real colonel, although usually a man of prompt action, appears to be at sea.

"I don't know what we will do," says he. "I believe we ought to go into the primaries and skin them out again. I don't know, however, whether we will stand pat on the delegation already selected. Oh, we don't care what the county Democracy and Louis Platt have done. They don't amount to anything anyhow. What would the county Democracy have done if it had not been for Moise, Miller and myself? We are not bound by the action of any club.

"Why didn't they kick on the method of selecting the congressional delegation? If it was wrong to select the state delegation it was wrong to select the congressional delegation. But these fellows have not said a thing about that being against the constitution of the club. Why don't they kick on that? Those fellows who passed that resolution are a lot of traitors who were left off the state delegation and sent out at the last state convention. Not one of them could get on a state delegation in 100 years by their own efforts and yet they are running around making such a huller because they were not put on. I am disgusted with these business men and am out of politics. I tell you I would not walk from here to that curbstone to see Bryan elected. I said that once before and someone rushed up to tell Bryan about it."

It is apparent that Fanning is exasperated, as much so as what he said especially in his references to Louis J. Platt and the others who participated in Thursday night's meeting of the County Democracy, would not look well in print.

Meantime it is stated that the Platt forces are urging the nomination of Lyle I. Abbott for congress, which explains why Platt opposed the endorsement of Edgar Howard at the recent meeting of the county committee. Members of the Jacksonian club say, however, that Howard will be nominated, inasmuch as he has been announcing that he is not an aspirant, as it is well understood that he would gladly accept the nomination if he were sure he could get it without arousing any democratic animosities.

The endorsement of Dr. Lee VanCamp for the position of county physician by the County Democracy draws out some drastic criticism from Charles Fanning. VanCamp has been acting as intern at the county hospital, and it is suspected that his boon for county physician has been hoisted by the superintendent of the poor farm, although J. J. Mahoney presented the resolution of endorsement.

"He is a quack for county physician," said Charles Fanning. "Why, in the last election he wouldn't pay the assessment levied upon him by the committee. You know there is a rule of the county committee providing for the assessment of county employes for campaign purposes on a basis of not to exceed 5 per cent of their salaries. The assessment of VanCamp was only 3 per cent, but he never paid it. nor any part of it. And yet he is put up and endorsed for county physician. You may say that if the county committee does meet again it will knock the waddin' out of that endorsement."

Possibly because of the troubles that beset Colonel Moise and his fellow workers in behalf of Governor Poynter's renomination it is not nearly so certain now that the populists will hold primaries and select a delegation to the state convention, instead of allowing John O. Yetter to name his delegation in pursuance of authority given him by the convention some weeks since. Colonel Moise had some of the populists worked up to the proper pitch of exasperation because a convention had assumed to grant such power to any one without awaiting an expression of the voters in the ordinary way, but since Colonel Moise set out to capture the democratic outposts in exactly the same way populists fervor in behalf of the primary system has abated somewhat.

It is now announced that the populist county committee has been called to meet on Saturday, June 2, at which meeting a conclusion will be reached as to whether or not the party will hold primaries and select a delegation in a county convention.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Fifth Ward Republican club last night. The principal business was the election of officers for the coming year and the following were chosen: President, W. R. Richardson; vice president, Charles M. Knox; secretary, Paul Stewart; assistant secretary, Ben McLean; treasurer, George Parker. The main item of business was the membership of the club was discussed and a plan outlined by which every republican in the ward can be reached. A vote of thanks was extended to W. T. Nelson, the retiring president, and the club adjourned to meet next Friday night.

Albert Anderson has filed suit in the district court against Annie Anderson, asking for divorce on the ground of cruelty. Anderson alleges that, during the marriage, she had been cruelly treated and that she struck him viciously with a stove poker on January 15, 1898, when they were married at Wilber, Neb., August 6, 1894.

Tax Levy Restored. John A. Freilich has filed suit against the city to resist payment of $1,000 tax levied upon several pieces of property. The improvement was made by the city. The suit is based on the allegation that street improvements against the property were not properly authorized by the city council.

SIGNS OF PARALYSIS. Can Be Discovered in Time. "Numbers of the hands and arms, with premonitions of paralysis, kept by me while I was using coffee. I finally discovered it was caused by coffee. When I quit, the coffee and began drinking Postum Food Coffee the numbness ceased entirely and I have been very well ever since. At that time I was unable to sleep, but now I sleep perfectly."

"Husband was also troubled from lack of sleep while he was drinking coffee, but now he uses Postum Food Coffee with me, and we both sleep perfectly. Our little boy had peculiar nervous spells and I stopped the use of coffee with him and have been giving him all the Postum Food Coffee he cares for. He is perfectly well now."

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

An interesting meeting of the South Omaha Commercial club was held last night and several important matters were discussed.

The suggestion of President Flynn the club will take up the question of charter revision and a committee consisting of Messrs. Wells, Cheek and Walter was named to investigate and report.

This committee will go over the present city charter and pick out the sections which should be repealed or amended. The mode and manner of passing ordinances, the powers of the council, of the chief executive and the collection of taxes will be given into particularly. It is thought that by commencing this matter early there will be plenty of time for a thorough revision of the charter.

When the amendments are agreed upon a bill is to be drafted which will be presented to the legislature next winter.

In this connection it is stated that Mayor Kelly is heartily in accord with the move and is willing to appoint a committee of the council to work in conjunction with the committee named by the club.

Considerable time was taken up in the discussion of the hair field problem. The special committee composed of Dr. McCrann and A. H. Murdock reported that they had visited the field and they do not consider it a nuisance. Both members of the committee asserted that the odor arising from the city dump just below the hair field is the real cause of the complaints.

Dead animals and vegetable matter are allowed to decay on the river bank. Herman Koutzke has instructed the hair company to move on June 1. Secretary Watkins was instructed to communicate with Mr. Koutzke and send him a copy of the report of the special committee, with a view to having him rescind his order about the removal of the fields on June 1.

The drying of hair is quite an industry here, as twenty-five men are employed. An effort will be made by the club to retain this industry here.

Philip Krause brought up the question of repairing Bellevue avenue from Wyman street to the county line. This roadway, he said, is in a deplorable condition. The county commissioners are asked to make some repairs at once, while an effort will be made by a committee to secure signers to a petition for the paving of the street.

As the Union Pacific owns the property abutting on one side of the street the paving problem may be a difficult one. Secretary Watkins was instructed to communicate with officials of the Union Pacific and see what the company will do about making a permanent roadway on this thoroughfare.

If this concession is granted the club stands pledged to assist the company in a number of ways.

The annual dues were fixed at $2 per annum. At the suggestion of Mr. Cheek the directors will negotiate with the South Omaha club for the use of the club rooms for the holding of directors' and committee meetings and the entertaining of out of town guests.

Snack Thieves at Work. Thursday evening a sneak thief entered the kitchen of Mrs. J. M. Tanner, Twenty-fourth and D streets, and carried away four dozen silver spoons. A portion of the property stolen consisted of souvenir spoons, which are highly valued. When the robbery was reported at police headquarters the sergeant in charge immediately arrested Fred Sly, better known as "Kid," and Frank Wilson. These young crooks are being held on suspicion. In hunting for the stolen property the house of Max Johnson, which is located in the rear of the property, was searched, but nothing was found.

In a pile of refuse near the Johnsons but the twelve souvenir spoons were found wrapped in a piece of newspaper. A hoister in a barn near by saw a young colored woman, who goes by the name of Olive Banks, hide a package among the rubbish and the police promptly arrested her. Captain Alle is confident that he will recover the balance of the stolen property.

Collecting Delinquent Taxes. City Treasurer Koutzky has just completed the work of copying the names of those delinquent in the payment of personal taxes in alphabetical order and as soon as the addresses are filled in notices will be served upon these parties to call to attention and pay the overdue taxes. These lists contain 1,800 names and the work of going through the books and copying the data has taken almost a week. Those whose names appear on the list owe all the way from $1 up to $50 and an earnest effort is to be made by the treasurer to collect all the money due the city from this source.

High Prices for Hogs. Hog receipts at this market continue to show an increase over corresponding dates of last year and the prices paid here are higher than at other markets. Out of 14,000 hogs received at Kansas City on Wednesday only 4,000 sold above $5. The same number, 14,000, were on sale here on Wednesday and only 500 sold below $5. Shippers realize that this is the best market.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS MEET. Annual Convention of the Omaha and South Omaha Societies Held Last Night. The annual convention of the Christian Endeavor societies of Omaha and South Omaha was held Friday night at the First Christian church. The attendance of the members of the various societies was unusually large and an enthusiasm surging that of any previous convention was manifested. An interesting program had been arranged for the occasion, in which representation was given a number of the different organizations situated in the district.

A song service, led by Dr. W. O. Henry, inaugurated the program, followed by Rev. T. S. Hawley's invocation, reading of the scriptures by Rev. E. D. Wyckoff and prayer by Rev. F. A. Hatcher. Musical selections by the Young Men's Christian association quartet and congregation singing interspersed the remainder of the program, which consisted of the following addresses: "Watching Our Sacrifice," Rev. E. H. Jenks; "Mission of Christian Endeavor," Rev. S. T. Martin; "What Are the Juniors Doing?" Mr. Edwin Gray. The consecration service was conducted by Mr. Arthur Chase.

BRIDEGROOM'S UNHAPPY LOT. Two Hours After His Marriage He is Arrested on Complaint of a Former Sweetheart. William Holden, a Bremen at the Willow Springs district, Fourth and Fifth streets, was married at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon and two hours later, at the instance of a former sweetheart, he was arrested on a charge of battery.

After a hearing in Justice Baldwin's court Friday afternoon he was bound over to district court upon $1,000 bond. The complaining witness is a young woman named Mary Daily. Her child is two months old. She says Holden promised to marry her, that until she heard of his marriage Thursday she supposed he intended to make his word good.

Discusses Plans for a Monument. Omaha lodge No. 22 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, gave a concert Friday night to discuss the matter of raising money to erect a monument to the memory of the nine members of the company who were killed in the Philippines, but no definite understanding was reached until Monday night, when the discussion will be resumed.

Elks Give a Benefit. Omaha lodge No. 22 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, gave a concert Thursday night as a testimonial to Mrs. Jussen-Dommit. The attendance was good and the program highly entertaining. Numbers were given by Miss Frances Roesler, contracts; Ernest B. Shaw, bass; Sigmund Landberg, guitar; Charles E. Johnson, drums; and Karl Smith, cello. Miss Daisy Higgins appeared as accompanist. Mrs. Jussen-Dommit gave several readings, among others a monologue by Mark Twain, a sketch in dialect, and a selection entitled "Child Life."

PERUNA CONQUERS DISEASE WHILE DOCTORS DISAGREE

MEMBER BOARD OF HEALTH, ALBERT LEA, MINN.

DR. LEANDER J. THOMAS. To The Peruna Medicine Co.

"I have repeatedly had occasion to note the valuable qualities of Peruna in cases of diseases of the bladder, kidneys and other pelvic organs, and I recommend it in cases of weakness peculiar to women, as it seems to afford speedy relief and a permanent cure."

DR. LEANDER J. THOMAS, Albert Lea, Minn.

Dr. Thomas is a member of the Board of Health, Albert Lea, Minn.

A person who has chronic catarrhal difficulties and has not given Peruna a fair trial, is unfortunate, indeed. To be afflicted with chronic catarrh and not try Peruna, is as foolish as to have the old fashioned chills and fever and refuse to try quinine or to have a broken bone and not allow the doctor to set it.

Peruna has come to be so universally recognized as a specific cure for catarrhal affections, acute or chronic, that it is amazing that anyone should continue to suffer on with such a persistent malady, neglecting to take a remedy that is sure.

Congratulations Pouring in From All Parts of the World to Dr. Hartman for the Success of His Universal Acknowledged Catarrhal Tonic.

J. LOUIS PRATT, JR.

To The Peruna Medicine Co. "Last June I had a severe attack of nasal catarrh which was very annoying and debilitated my system. Seeing your advertisement I wrote you for advice. I used Peruna constantly, until last November, when the symptoms disappeared entirely."

J. LOUIS PRATT, JR., Suite 204, Times-Herald Building, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Pratt is manager of the Central Trust Co.

Of course, it may be that many people have not yet come to know of this remedy for catarrhal affections, but it is strange it should be so after such multitudes have been cured by it and so many papers have heralded it from one end of the country to the other. Men and women of all ages and rank, the rich and poor, the learned and illiterate, are daily giving unsolicited testimony to the fact that Peruna will cure all catarrhal diseases.

A free book on catarrhal ailments, written by Dr. Hartman, the compounder of Peruna, will be sent by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

MONUMENT TO FIFTH CORPS

President and Party Attend Memorial Services at Fredericksburg.

GENERAL SICKLES ORATOR OF THE DAY

Public Exercises and Official Welcome for Society of the Sons of the Potomac-Butterfield Lays Cornerstone.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., May 25.—Fair weather favored the presidential party in their visit to the memorial services of the Army of the Potomac here today. It was distinctly confederate weather, however, with more gray than blue in the sky.

The special train from Washington arrived at 11:40 and found the whole population of the small old Virginia town grouped about the depot or massed along the main street, with the national colors appearing everywhere.

The special carried all the members of the cabinet except Secretary Wilson. There also were in the party General Nelson A. Miles, his chief aide, Colonel Michler, General Joseph Wheeler, former Adjutant General Ruggles, who was colonel of the president's old regiment during the war, and the Marine band.

The train was met at Quantico by a reception committee from Fredericksburg, consisting of Hon. Horace P. Crissman, Major T. P. Morris and Postmaster John M. Griffin, who accompanied the presidential party to Fredericksburg, where they were turned over to the hospitality of the local committee.

The procession formed at the depot and, headed by the Marine band, moved at once to the court house, where the public exercises were held and an official welcome tendered to the Society of the Potomac. The address of welcome was delivered by St. George R. Fitzhugh and the response was made by General Martin T. E. McMahon. The oration of the day was then delivered by General Daniel E. Sickles.

Mr. Fitzhugh's oration was a striking piece of oratorical work. He paid the highest tribute to the Army of the Potomac and to its confederate opponents, saying that to erase the names of the Spotsylvania battlefields from the history of the American army would be to rob it of half its glory. The same blood shed on the Fredericksburg fields, he said, still flows in the veins of the American soldiers, wherever the American arms might be in the future, whether those who bore them were ex-federals or ex-confederates or descendants of the two, they would stand shoulder to shoulder and their record would be one that would take no luster from the glory won by the stars and stripes on the bloody battlefields of Virginia. President McKinley and his cabinet officers applauded this sentiment heartily and the are ailing women. When a woman has some female trouble she is certain to be nervous and wretched.

With many women the monthly suffering is so great that they are for days positively insane, and the most diligent efforts of ordinary treatment are unavailing.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

comes promptly to the relief of these women. The letters from women cured by it prove this. This paper is constantly printing them.

The advice of Mrs. Pinkham should also be secured by every nervous woman. This costs nothing. Her address is Lynn, Mass.
