Hildegard Beats Enemy Between Both Pass and Inkwelo.

ROBERTS' SILENCE PUZZLES LONDON

It is Possible that Marshal May Be Preparing to Reach After Botha.

FEW PRESS DISPATCHES RECEIVED

It is Surmised that Details Are Now Being Arranged at Capetown for the Annexation of the Two South African Republics.

LONDON, June 8.—The offensive and by maneuvering he has secured a position west of Laing's Nek which he can make the Boer position untenable.

General Buller's dispatch reads: "YELLOW ROOM FARM, June 8.—On June 9 General Buller, with the 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th regiments, and the South African Light Horse, brigaded Van Wyke Hill. The enemy made some resistance and a good deal of sniping occurred. Our casualties were about four killed and thirteen wounded.

"During that day and the following one we got two 57 and two 12-pounder naval guns on to Van Wyke Hill and two 5-inch guns on to the southeastern corner of Inkwelo. Under cover of their fire General Hildegard's army routed all the Boers of the berg between Botha's Pass and Inkwelo.

"The attack was well planned by Hildegard and carried out with immense dash by the troops, for whom no mountains were too steep. We outflanked the enemy, who were forced to retire from their very strong position.

"I think we did not have any casualties and I hope I have obtained a position from which I can render Laing's Nek untenable."

Lord Roberts has communicated nothing for three days nor permitted the correspondents to wire what is going on. London telegrams filed a week ago are only just now arriving. Among these are spirited descriptions of the fighting at Elandsfontein.

According to one of them the streets were filled with women and children. Rifle shots could be heard everywhere. The British soldiers would stop fighting and join in the chase after chickens. The burghers surrendered to any one. Kaffirs went about looting the Jewish stores and mounted infantry galloped hither and thither.

Lord Roberts' army has a new song. It runs thus: "We're marching into Pretoria, 'Til we belong to Queen Victoria."

The Daily Express has the following from Pretoria, dated Wednesday: "The 1,000 prisoners who were deported from Waterval were told that they were about to be given up to Lord Roberts. They entrained cheerfully and were sent to Nooit Gedach instead of Pretoria.

"At Lourenzo Marquez station a crowd waited all night to see President Kruger, as it was reported that he would arrive by a special train to gain an asylum on board the Netherlands cruiser, Friesland.

Middleburg is said to be full of Boer refugees and wounded. The railway station is a scene of confusion. A British column is at Bredersdorp, Swaziland. Eleven British prisoners have been taken to Middleburg. The British at Beira are moving into the interior in detachments of 200 daily.

F. V. Fiddes, imperial secretary to the high commissioner, with a part of Sir Alfred Milner's staff, left Capetown Tuesday evening for Pretoria, possibly, as the Capetown correspondent of the Daily News thinks, to arrange the annexation details.

INTEREST IN THE PRISONERS

Belief that All but One Thousand British Held by Boers Have Been Released.

LONDON, June 8.—The dribbles of news filtering from the Transvaal fail to throw much light on the situation in and around Pretoria.

Public interest centers largely in the fate of the British prisoners, but it seems probable that about 1,000 have been released, including 125 officers. The Germans therefore have removed about 1,000 as hostages.

The Lourenzo Marquez dispatch to the effect that United States Consul Hollis has been conferring with President Kruger is creating some comment, but in view of the Washington dispatch which asserts that Mr. Hollis has no official errand to the Transvaal there is little disposition to regard his movements as at all significant.

A special dispatch from Pretoria says that the only shift which took effect in the town today prior to the occupation of Pretoria by the United States consulate. A dispatch from Capetown announces that the work of organizing the government of the Transvaal is proceeding. A portion of Sir Alfred Milner's staff has gone to Pretoria to start the machinery, so the proclamation of the annexation of the Transvaal may be speedily expected.

A dispatch from Pretoria describes the visit by officers of Lord Roberts' staff to the presidency Tuesday, June 7. It says: "We were received by a Dutch pastor and shortly were joined by Mrs. Kruger. The latter wore a black silk dress and white cap. She compassionately exchanged greetings with her visitors, who notified her of their intention to replace the burgher guards by a guard of British troops. The burghers thereupon laid down their arms on the asphalted porch of the building, near the lions guarding the entrance."

Rehearsing Rates Stamp Duty. BERLIN, June 8.—In the Reichstag today, after a debate on the amendments to the stamp law, necessitated by the recovery in the navy, it was agreed to raise the stamp duty on home shares to 2 marks and on foreign shares to 2 1/2 marks per 100.

UNITED STATES' HELP WANTED

England Unable at Present to Check Russia's Designs on the Chinese Empire.

(Copyright, 1899, Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, June 8.—(New York World & Special Telegram.)—The Chinese government is believed that the Boer movement in South Africa is a mere set, so that the Boers, with long-learned advantages in China, will be able to take advantage of the Boers' troubles in Great Britain or her South African trouble. In this predicament the British press and politicians are looking anxiously to President McKinley to interpose some effectual check to the fruition of Russia's alleged designs.

The British army is so locked up in South Africa that there is no reasonable prospect of being able to safely withdraw any part of it for at least two months.

The British army in India is already below the lowest reach of the establishment and it seems certain that another expedition of 15,000 men will be necessary to restore British authority in the East.

England is in a sore plight so far as concerns any effectual defense of her interests in the far east.

It is known in diplomatic circles that Lord Salisbury is being every effort to arrive at an understanding with Russia, but while Russia negotiates she also steadily pushes her advantage in China. It is recognized that if Russia gets a foothold in China under a plea of preserving order she will be withdrawing from Russia, but while Russia negotiates she also steadily pushes her advantage in China.

Communications have been actively passing during the week between Ambassador Choate and Lord Salisbury. It is understood that while the British prime minister is seeking an agreement with Russia, he is working at the same time for joint action with the United States as the second string to his bow.

Each country would certainly be accepting as demonstrating that an Anglo-American alliance is morally, if not formally, accomplished.

RATHBONE MUST MAKE GOOD

Auditors Throw Out $15,000 Worth of Vouchers and Many Twice-Paid Bills.

HAVANA, June 3.—The troubles of Esteban Rathbone, former director of posts, seem to be increasing. The auditor's department has thrown out $15,000 worth of vouchers, including $8,000 worth of bills, which have been paid twice, most of them at Muncie, Ind.

The fidelity company has been notified that it will be held responsible on Mr. Rathbone's bond. Mr. Miller, the manager of the company, and Mr. Rathbone have held prolonged interviews during the last few days, but no decision has been arrived at regarding the necessary course of action.

The authorities contend that the fidelity company is responsible. Mr. Rathbone's friends insist that C. E. W. Neely's receipt Mr. Rathbone, who signed at Neely's request without knowing what.

Coydon Rich has been placed under a $2,000 bond as a witness in the Neely case. A letter has been received here by a friend of Neely saying that if forced to return he will show that Rich is a liar and that the latter received as much as he (Neely) did.

DUEL OVER PAPER REPORT

Statement that American Pavilion at Paris is Unsafe Causes Exchange of Cards.

PARIS, June 8.—As a result of the statement published in New York that the United States pavilion at the Paris exposition is unsafe, cards have been exchanged and seconds have been appointed, on one side at least, between M. Morin Gustiaux, the builder, and assistant architect, and M. Henri Dumay, the correspondent who sent the story to America.

The two men were introduced last night at a reception at the National pavilion with the United States assistance of commissioner, and at the Paris exposition, Benjamin D. Woodward, who is an intimate friend of Mr. Gustiaux. After some words, M. Gustiaux and Dumay exchanged cards. Newspaper circles are deeply interested.

SAID TO HAVE SURRENDERED

Unconfirmed Report that Sir Frederick Hodgson Has Captured.

LONDON, June 8.—According to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Kourou, dated June 8, a native rumor is in circulation that Sir Frederick Mitchell Hodgson, governor of French Guiana, had been captured by the Kourou, where he had been held for some time. It is said that he was forced to surrender ultimately to the Kourou.

Mail advices from Accra, dated May 17, say: "Fifty thousand Ashantis are in arms and the insurrection is spreading. It is impossible for the railway to go into the interior successfully during the rainy season."

VACATION IS CUT SHORT

Members of West Point Graduating Class Get But Thirty Days.

WEST POINT, June 8.—The examination of the various classes is now over with and only thirty days remain for the academic board to review the work and announce its findings. The members of the furlough class are busy making preparations for their journey home next week for a two-months' leave.

The graduating class who will not be permitted to enjoy the customary three months' leave of absence, as advices have been received that their services are needed to fill vacant places in several of the regiments. Their leave has been restricted to thirty days.

FREEZE IN NORTH DAKOTA

Quarter-inch Ice Near Minnewaukan, Where Wheat is Ruined.

MINNEWAUKAN, N. D., June 8.—A hard freeze last night formed a quarter of an inch of ice. Much wheat was cut back to the ground. The damage is hard to estimate, but the crop cannot exceed one-half the ordinary yield.

OTIS SAYS WAR IS OVER

Guerrilla Methods in Philippines Cannot Last Much Longer.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Major General E. S. Otis of the United States army arrived at 7:20 this morning from San Francisco and Manila and left at 10:30 for Washington.

Mrs. Otis and daughter arrived in Chicago last night from New York, and the general and his wife and daughter spent the hours between trains together—the ending of a separation of two years.

General Otis declined to enter into a detailed interview, saying it would not be consistent with his position as an officer to enter into an extended discussion regarding the situation in the Philippines before reaching Washington. He said he was perfectly willing to talk in a general way, however. The general was apparently in the best of health, and confirmed his appearance by saying he had not been ill a day since he left for the Philippines, and that he was enjoying the best of health.

"I left the Philippines in the best of health," he said. "The officers are able men and well qualified to cope with the different questions and situations that may arise. The war is over. This guerrilla warfare cannot last long. To be sure, we will have to repress those people for a number of years, but there is no organized force of Filipinos. The deprecations that are now going on are conducted by robbers and druggists. The United States troops are now engaged in defending the inhabitants of the Philippines against the robbery and murder committed by their own people. But the conditions are generally improving and in some parts are better than they have ever been."

He has 55,000 effective troops under arms in the Philippines. Estimates regarding the number of inhabitants in the islands are all wild, but the number is considered to be between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000. The great majority of the people desire peace and wish to again begin their business pursuits. Business Manila has again resumed activity and the inhabitants are peacefully pursuing their avocations.

Never Saw Aguinaldo. "I do not know where Aguinaldo is. I never saw him personally. It is possible, but not probable, that Aguinaldo is in the Cagayan section of northern Luzon. It is a rough, mountainous country, very sparsely settled. At that he was regarded by his people as a leader, but of late he is losing prestige and is not held in such high regard.

MRS. LOWE CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Federation Elects Officers and Alters Basis of Delegate Representation.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 8.—Today's session of the Federation of Women's Clubs was marked by the election of officers. The ticket as offered by the nominating committee went through with little contest, the result being as follows:

President, Mrs. Rebecca Lowe of Georgia; first vice president, Mrs. Charles Denton of New York; second vice president, Miss Margaret J. Evans of Minnesota; recording secretary, Mrs. Emma A. Fox of Michigan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Kenning of Pennsylvania; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Van Vechten of Iowa; auditor, Mrs. George H. Noyes of Wisconsin; directors: Mrs. Charles K. Fairbanks of Indiana, Mrs. Edward Buchwalter of Ohio, Mrs. Annie D. West of Massachusetts, Mrs. Mary Lockwood of the District of Columbia, Mrs. H. C. Christ of Montana, Mrs. Lillian Streeter of New Hampshire, Mrs. W. T. Coad of South Dakota and Mrs. L. R. Priddy of Kansas.

Nominations were made from the floor for Mrs. Margaret J. Evans of Minnesota as president and for Mrs. H. C. Christ of Montana as second vice president. The result was that out of the 754 vote cast for president Mrs. Lowe received 534 and Mrs. Evans 121, with a few scattering votes for others. The announcement of Mrs. Lowe's election was received with the warmest enthusiasm, the address being to the effect and waving handkerchiefs. Mrs. Lowe was obliged to make a speech of thanks.

Changes Basis of Representation. The long business meeting which occupied both the morning and afternoon sessions was devoted to changes in the by-laws growing out of the question of reorganization. As to the side issue of representation, the by-laws provide that for every 100 members there shall be one representative.

That for all clubs numbering less than fifty the representation shall be through the president or her representative only. For clubs numbering fifty and less than 100 the representation shall be through the president and one delegate. For clubs numbering more than 100 there shall be allowed for every 100 members.

The other vexed question of taxation was not changed, nor was any effort made to have a triennial convention instead of a biennial. The state chairman of the convention was done away with and president's individual clubs are no longer vice presidents of the general federation. Another change was to the effect that the council could be called at the request of the board of directors or twenty-five members of the council representing a majority of the clubs.

A number of resolutions were passed, one of them urging the protection of women and children in the industrial world, and another recommending greater care as to sanitary conditions.

By unanimous vote the "Club Woman" of Boston was named the official organ of the federation. The officers in charge are as follows: President, Mrs. Rebecca Lowe of Georgia; first vice president, Mrs. Charles Denton of New York; second vice president, Miss Margaret J. Evans of Minnesota; recording secretary, Mrs. Emma A. Fox of Michigan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Kenning of Pennsylvania; treasurer, Mrs. Emma Van Vechten of Iowa; auditor, Mrs. George H. Noyes of Wisconsin; directors: Mrs. Charles K. Fairbanks of Indiana, Mrs. Edward Buchwalter of Ohio, Mrs. Annie D. West of Massachusetts, Mrs. Mary Lockwood of the District of Columbia, Mrs. H. C. Christ of Montana, Mrs. Lillian Streeter of New Hampshire, Mrs. W. T. Coad of South Dakota and Mrs. L. R. Priddy of Kansas.
