TO LAND MORE TROOPS

Admiral Remy's dispatch announcing the departure of the vessel reads as follows: "CAVITE, June 8.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington. The Nashville leaves today for Taku; thirty marines, two Howitzers, according to your telegram of June 6. The Newark has twenty-five marines from the Oregon and is authorized to draw upon the ships at Shanghai for more."

In view of the length of time required by the Nashville to make the trip to Taku it is fortunate that the Navy department has other reinforcements en route at hand in the shape of vessels at Shanghai. This force is only about three days distant from Taku and only about half the time would be required for the vessels at Shanghai to make the trip to Taku than would be consumed by the Nashville. The Navy department has sent instructions to the commander of the Monocacy at Shanghai to report to Admiral Kempff at Taku and that vessel is already on its way. Though an old ship the Monocacy is admirably adapted to this kind of service, drawing only nine feet of water and carrying a very good secondary battery. Its personnel is twelve officers and 116 men. The Castine and Yorktown also are at Shanghai and can be drawn upon, according to Admiral Remy's dispatch, should Kempff find it desirable to have more troops.

These vessels are of 1,600 and 1,700 tons displacement respectively, with batteries about the same as the Nashville. The Castine's personnel is eleven officers and 142 men; the Yorktown's fourteen officers and 181 men. Most of the daily report was even less encouraging than usual. In his cablegram to Secretary Hay this morning he said the situation was not improved; that the burning of railroad plants continued, and that owing to the inactivity of the Chinese troops it would be necessary to employ foreign troops to protect the railways.

The state has not deemed it necessary to send any specific authorization to Minister Conger to employ the United States naval forces ashore at Tien Tsin and Pekin in quelling the Chinese railway riot and to exercise his own discretion in that respect. The State department officials felt that the action taken by the Navy department in the dispatch of naval vessels to the scene of the Chinese railway riot and the force represents all that can be done, or at least all that should be done by the United States at this moment. The department remains unshaken in its attitude, and while willing to work on parallel lines with the other powers to restore peace in China, insists on retaining its independence of action. When attention was directed to the probability that the United States naval forces ashore at Tien Tsin might be called upon to join with the foreign naval contingents in the landing of naval troops, it was pointed out that this action would be purely military and would not constitute joint action from a political point of view. The foreign embassies and legations in Washington are intensely interested in the developments in China, and applications are frequent at the State department from them for the latest news as to what is going on. There is a strong desire on the part of these diplomats, probably based on something broader than personal curiosity, that the United States should be in the van of the United States government. It appears that the State department has dealt frankly with such inquiries and has made no concealment of its policy of non-interference beyond a point necessary to protect American life and property. It is deemed entirely proper, however, to move along the same lines as these followed by European nations, toward the accomplishment of this object, so that while there are no entangling understandings or alliances all the substantial results of a joint action may be achieved.

BOXERS DO GREAT DAMAGE

Over Thirty Miles of Railroad Torn Up and Many Stations Destroyed.

TIENTSIN, June 9.—Chinamen who walked from Machow Pu bring reports that the railway line from Tientsin to Lo Fa, a distance of thirty-three miles, has been destroyed. Every bridge and all the stations have been burned. The Boxers are working toward Tien Tsin. The special Yu Lu, granted the British officials a special train to Tientsin to Lo Fa, is as far as possible. The train left with Lieutenant Wright, C. W. Campbell of the consular service, four British engineers and 111 French troops with a machine gun. It arrived here Friday night. A home guard has been formed to bring in the women and children to safety at Tientsin. It is announced on creditable authority that unless a foreign guard is sent to Tientsin by June 11 all foreigners in southern China will leave. This is considered very serious, as valuable railway plants and other property are unprotected, except for native troops.

NASHVILLE GOES TO TAKU

Gunboat Sent to Reinforce Americans in Chinese Waters—Marines Aboard.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Admiral Remy informs the Navy department that the gunboat Nashville, with a force of marines aboard, left duty yesterday for Taku. It is a light draft gunboat of the same type as the Helena and it is presumed that it is sent in place of the latter. The Monocacy at Shanghai also has been ordered to join Admiral Kempff.

REFUSES TO CALL OUT TROOPS

Governor Stephens After Conference with Citizens of St. Louis Declines to Wait.

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—Any hopes the general public may have indulged that Governor Stephens would call out the state militia to maintain law and order in St. Louis during the prevalence of the great street railway strike were dissipated tonight when he departed for Jefferson City without having taken any decisive steps in the matter or giving any indication as to what course he intended to pursue in the future.

The calling out of state troops was discussed at great length today by Governor Stephens, the police commissioners, the sheriff and commanding officers of the militia, but no decision on the direct issue was reached. It was learned that while the governor could not be brought over to the way of reasoning of some of the city officials, he offered some suggestions which he thought might have a salutary effect upon the more rabid element of the general public. If not, then he would act as in his judgment seemed proper for the preservation of the law. He advised, among other things, that the transit company increase its night service, and if this experiment resulted in disorder and its attendant results he would unhesitatingly call out the state militia for its suppression.

Acting, apparently, upon this advice the transit company tonight ran cars on three more divisions, Laclade avenue, Market street and Olive street. The Lindell division, which resumed its night service two days ago, was also in operation. The police officers were at the most part withdrawn from guard duty during the day to properly prepare them for the duties of the night in protecting the cars and doing police duty along the thoroughfare through which the four divisions run. Two regiments of the posse comitatus were also assigned to patrol duty along the same thoroughfares. Up to a late hour the cars were running on regular schedule and no outbreaks had been reported.

Thomas Reynolds, Albert Nichols, Frank Worth, George Hill, Joseph Ette and William Hanson, who are charged in federal warrants with conspiracy to obstruct the United States mails, were arraigned before Commissioner Gray today. The formal hearing was set for next Thursday. The bonds of each of the defendants are $2,000, in default of which they were remanded to jail.

A communication which ex-Governor William J. Stone, counsel for the strikers, delivered to Nathan Frank, chairman of the citizens' committee, today, practically terminated all negotiations between the St. Louis transit company and the strikers. Ex-Governor Stone said that the Transit company was not disposed to adhere to the proposition formulated by the citizens' committee and presented to the strikers with the approval of the Transit company last Saturday.

"What I took up the case for the strikers," said the ex-governor, "I sought to bring about an arbitration of the questions involved in this controversy, but failed. I will not say who is to blame for the continuance of the strike, but will let the public judge for itself."

Ex-governor Stone said it was not necessary to discuss at this time what other steps will be taken at this time to make the strike successful. At midnight Chief of Police Campbell made the announcement that as a result of operating three additional divisions of Transit company's system tonight there would be no necessity for calling out the militia. The chief of police stated that this had been the quietest Saturday in St. Louis in several months.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEET

Features of Federation of Women's Clubs is Discussed in an Informal Way.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 9.—The departure of Mrs. Rebecca Lowe at 2 o'clock today concluded the club women's convention. The new Board of Directors made no effort to take the color question from the table, and one member is authority for the statement that it will never be taken from the table. There is some talk by Mrs. Ruffin, on the other hand, of instituting legal proceedings in Chicago against the federation whereby she will seek to have her name removed from the list of members. The meeting of the council over which Mrs. Lowe presided brought out informal discussion as to future plans.

Aside from invitations of Boston and Buffalo for the next biennial here, one invitation from Los Angeles and Chattanooga. The invitations are to be considered later by the board.

The Daily News today says:

"The officials of the Federation of Women's Clubs have received startling information regarding their organization. Instead of being an organization with general powers to include all women's clubs, no matter what their object, within its association, the general Federation of Women's Clubs has but the power officially to reform men and women, with the word limited to the actual meaning of reformation as generally understood in charitable work."

Such is the remarkable discovery which has been made by attorneys who have been looking up the subject for leading members of the organization, and it is doubtful if under the present organization the General Federation of Women's Clubs could hold its name should any other organization of women desire to usurp the title.

The defect in the charter is said to have first been noticed when the question of reorganization came up in the convention. Some of the opponents of reorganization were of the belief that the powers desired to be added to the society under the reorganization plan could not legally be accepted.

An appeal to a firm of New Jersey corporation lawyers was made and the federation was advised that the association was not formed under the laws set forth in its charter. To obviate trouble in the future an application will be made to the next congress for a federal charter.

A "CHANGE" BREAKFAST.

Getting Ready for Warm Weather.

A complete change in breakfast would, at this time of year, improve the health of any one. The system calls for a change, but what? Hot and half-cooked pastry and starchy cereals are unattractive. Vegetable taste good, but furnish too little nourishment to sustain one until the next meal, particularly if brain work is required.

A most appetizing, convenient and healthful breakfast can be made on Grape-Nuts (a ready-cooked food), a little cream or milk, some fruit and perhaps two soft eggs. (Put tin cup of sharply boiling water, put in two eggs, not one, nor three, cover and set off stove, serve in just nine minutes. Whites will be like cream and half digested.) The Grape-Nuts food is concentrated and but three or four teaspoons should be used at a meal; that amount furnishes full nourishment and is sufficient for the next day.

A change from the old breakfast to one like this will refresh and invigorate the system in a surprising manner.

Good food in proper variety and a contented mind solves the whole health problem.

MRS. FRANK E. MOORES KILLED

Wife of the Mayor Dies from the Effect of Injuries Received in Runaway.

WAS RETURNING FROM RIVERVIEW PARK. Wild Team on South Tenth Street Collides with the Carriage and in the Rush that Follows Her Skull is Fractured.

Mrs. Kate E. Moore, wife of Frank E. Moore, mayor of Omaha, died at her home at 8:55 p. m. Saturday, the result of a terrible runaway accident, which occurred three hours before.

She had attended a picnic given by her daughter's Sunday school class at Riverview park and was returning home in her own carriage, accompanied by Mrs. T. J. Mackay, wife of the rector of All Saints' church, and her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Mackay's daughter. When near St. Joseph's hospital, on South Tenth street, the horses became frightened at a runaway team attached to Dr. Porter's buggy, which crashed into the carriage occupied by the two women. In an instant the fiery horses were beyond control of the coachman and dashed down the street at a terrific pace. Mrs. Moore, weak and nervous from fright, attempted to alight from the carriage, but fell to the pavement, striking the back of her head on the curbstone. The skull was badly fractured at the base of the brain, which was tenderly carried to the drug store of John E. Conroy at Tenth and Hickory streets. Dr. Hanchett, who lives close by, was quickly at her side and Dr. Coffman, the family physician, was also sent for.

After Mrs. Moore fell the frightened animals galloped on down Tenth street, barely escaping serious mishap a number of times, until Mason street was reached. Here the horses ran into a wagon, throwing them from their feet and stopping the mad flight. Mrs. Mackay had clasped her little daughter tightly to her breast and remained in the carriage until the final collision, when they were thrown on the horses with the coachman, but fortunately all escaped serious injury. The carriage was wrecked and the horse came out with only a few scratches.

After a preliminary examination and treatment by the physicians at the drug store, Mrs. Moore was removed in an ambulance to her home at 617 South Eighth street. In the meantime the son and daughters had arrived, but it was nearly an hour before the mayor could be found, as he had been entertaining Envoy Wessels at the city. The mayor was finally notified and hurried at once to his wife's side.

Surrounded by her family, Mrs. Moore passed away, never having regained consciousness. The daughters, Adele and Kate, are heartbroken, while the bereaved husband and son are no less affected. They were visited at once by many friends, offering sympathy and tendering assistance.

Mrs. Moore was born February 6, 1848, and was married December 26, 1866, at Greenville, O. She was a faithful and devoted wife, a fond and loving mother, who will be sorely mourned for her lovable disposition. She came to Omaha with her husband nearly thirty years ago and has since made this city her residence, manifesting her activity chiefly in the home circle and among a devoted group of friends. Her arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

DR. PORTER BADLY HURT

The runaway of Dr. Porter's team last evening, which was the cause of the fatal runaway accident of Mrs. Moore, did considerable damage in various ways. Dr. Porter, accompanied by Stewart Mackard, was driving on South Tenth street and attempted to cross the street railway tracks, but the wheel caught and the axle broke. The horses started to run and the doctor and companion were thrown to the pavement. Dr. Porter's hand was broken and his arm and leg both sprained, while Mackard was conveyed with a sprained ankle. The buggy was badly smashed, but the horses were not much hurt.

HEAR CONVENTION REPORTS

Delegates to the Travelers' Protective Association Discuss the Recent Meeting.

Post A, Nebraska division of the Travelers' Protective association, held a meeting Friday night in the Commercial club rooms. Twenty members were seated at luncheon, after which issues before the national convention recently held at New Orleans were discussed.

The movement to increase the protective fund by raising the annual assessment of members was commended. It was reported that, contrary to Associated Press reports, no anti-trust resolution was adopted by the New Orleans convention. Several were introduced, but all were tabled.

The question of poor hotels then engaged the attention of the members. It was agreed that any lack of attention or inferior accommodations experienced by a member be reported hereafter to the state central committee, with a view to having the evil corrected. The meeting adjourned to meet on the evening of June 29.

Fire and Electricity.

A small fire in the grocery store of Johnson & Goodell, 304 Lake street, called out the fire department early last evening. The damage was nominal. Driver Al Livingston of chemical company, No. 1, was compelled to go off duty last night on account of the severe electrical storm. Livingston was one of the unfortunate firemen injured in the disastrous fire of the Mercer Chemical company last summer, and since that time an electrical storm affects him as a severe electric shock would affect another person. No serious consequences are feared, but it may be several days before he can resume his place.

DEED.

MOORES—Kate E. wife of Frank E. Moore, mayor of Omaha, 617 South Tenth street, died at 8:55 p. m. Saturday, Horn February 6, 1848. Funeral notice later.

Daily Work Done for Sufferers

In All Chronic Diseases by Drs. Shepard & Headrick.

"I read the statement of Mr. George Spangler, the credit man for McLeod, Brady & Co. I have known him many years and called to see him about it. He told me that every word published was true, both as regards the advertisement, but when a man like George Spangler makes such a statement, it must be true. So, doctor, I want you to take charge of my case."

"I know there must be merit in your treatment when such women as Mrs. Rev. Montford of Aurora, Neb., publicly endorse you," says another. "If you were successful in my case, I would be glad to have my name placed in the paper, for from what I am told I believe your treatment will do the work."

"It is such testimony as this that marks the superiority of the treatment of Drs. Shepard & Headrick—testimony from people who meet every day—who could have no other object than to let the public know where a cure could be obtained for chronic ailments, which have formerly seemed to defy the best skill of family doctors."

Mrs. Rev. G. H. Montford, Aurora, Neb., is one of the most highly respected women in her town. Her husband is a member of the Nebraska conference and is pastor of the orthodox Episcopal church of Aurora. She writes:

"I had suffered from catarrh of the head and throat for several years. Almost by nervous catarrh of the throat. My whole system was in a greatly debilitated condition. There was great mental distress and bearing down pains, weakness and nervousness. I had been compelled to lie down every few minutes while doing my household duties. I commenced with Dr. Shepard's treatment four months ago. I felt a great change after the first month's treatment and for the next three months I have been almost entirely free from pain. The catarrh trouble, which I had given up all hopes of finding help for, is now gone and I am free from rheumatism. I cannot say enough in favor of the treatment. I most heartily endorse the Shepard & Headrick plan of curing sick people at their homes."
