LONDON, June 11.-3:30 a. m.-The Boers have torn up twenty-one miles of Lord Roberts' vital line of railway between America Siding and Roodeval. It is a bold raid and vexatious, but it does not disquiet the military authorities as yet, for they expect Generai Kelly-Kenny to drive off the marauders and to reopen the line.

The rapidity of the advance of Lord Roberts cannot have permitted him to accumulate large reserves of stores. Therefore an Interruption of the railway for a week NU NAVY FOR CUBA JUST YET must embarrass the army and may bring the forward operations to a standstill,

Nothing has been heard from Lord Roberts for three days. This raid on the railway, the strenuous opposition to General Rundle and the escape of General Botha's division have forced the War office authorities to the conclusion that the war is not yet over, though even the occasional civilian a Cuban navy, to be composed at the outset Boer sympathizer can not see how the Boers of sixty vessels, having in view for the will be able to do anything to change the present the protection of Cuban fisheries
