

RAILROAD BOARD TIED UP

Northwestern Gets a Restraining Order from Judge Munger and Completes Circuit.

SECRETARIES STILL DRAWING SALARIES

All Work is Stopped, but the Pay of the Political Rate Makers Goes Steadily on Without Diminution.

LINCOLN, June 13.—(Special).—Another injunction was served on the members and secretaries of the State Board of Transportation this morning.

The restraining order is signed by Judge Munger and restrains the board and its secretaries from proceeding in the matter of rates against the Northwestern railroad or any of its branches.

The supreme court has on numerous occasions upheld the railroad commission law, but the railroad attorneys now claim to have discovered errors in its passage, which will invalidate it when brought to the attention of the supreme court.
