WASHINGTON, June 11 .- Among the foreign representatives in Washington the information that the United States would probably augment its military force in China was received with very general satisfaction, particularly in British and Chinese form of anti-foreign. Mr. Nabashima, the Japines charge, pointed out that the forwarding of a large military force by any one of the European powers would excite suspicion and opposition, whereas, such a course by the United States was absolutely above suspicion. While no joint request had be n made on this government to act yet, he said, the other powers would speidily requi-

When the session began this morning the ontest over the delegation-at-large from Tennessee was immediately taken up, R. S. Sharp, chairman of the state executive committee, being recognized to speak for the contestants hearing the name of Pension commissioner Evans. Mr. Sharp contended on behalf of the Evans contestants that they were prevented from participating in the state convention which chose delegates and that the whole rouble originated in the state committee which issued the call. He claimed that the call designated a date for holding county

This case arose out of the controversy between the counties of York and Cumberland on the question of relative presentation in the coa- ference for the selection of delegations. Originally, the three counties comprising the district had equal representation, but in late years there has been a departure from this rule in some cases and York has been given an increased vote because of larger population. In the last conference demand was made for this increase and was denied. The result was a contest between John L, Hill of Cumberland and James A. Dale of York. Mr. Quay expoused the cause of Mr. Hill, who stood for co-equal representation on the part of the counties and Senator Fearese made an appeal for him. The result was favorable to Mr. Hill. Contest Over Texas. The evening session was devoted to the hearing of arguments in the cantest from trixas.
