> Three More Cases of Police Court Leniency Come to Light.

The clerk of the police court issued mit-timuses Friday for the arrest of Edward Mc-Kenna and J. H. Kalser, charged with assault and battery, and for George Shiller, charged with interfering with an officer. Each of these men had been tried in police court and had been held to the district court, but had secured liberty by putting up worthless appeal bonds. They were to be rearrested because they failed to deposit the filing fees, without which the clerk of the district court refuses to take cognizance of their cases.

When arraigned for assault and battery in police court McKenna pleaded guilty and Rev. George J. Buck has been found was fined $15. In the face of this he was permitted to put up a worthless appeal bond, without the attendant fees, which, in effect, is a guaranty of immunity from pun-

ALABASTINE Is a durable and natural cement-base wall coating. This in 5 lb. paper packages, made ready for use in white and fourteen beautiful tints by mixing with cold water. It is a cement that goes through a process of setting, hardens with age, and can be coated and recoated without washing ALABASTINE different from all the various kalsomines on the market, being durable and not stuck on the wall with glue. Alabastine customers should insist on having the goods in packages properly labeled. They should reject all imitations. There is nothing "just as good."

Prevents much sickness, particularly throat and lung difficulties, attributable to unsanitary coatings on walls. It has been recommended m a paper published by the Michigan State Board of Health on account of its sanitary board of health on account of its sanitary features; which paper strongly condemned kalsomines. Alabastine can be used on either plastered walls, wood ceilings, brick or canvas, and any one can brush it on. It admits of radical changes from well paper decorations, thus securing at reasonable expense the latest and best effects. Alabastine is manufactured by the Alabastine Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Instructive and interesting booklet mailed free to all applicants.
