ORGANIZES AGAINST SALOON

Eva Marshall Shontz Extends Her Work to Council Bluffs.
YOUNG PEOPLE'S TEMPERANCE UNION
Names Enough to Start Are Signed to the Pledge and a Committee to Work Out Details is Named.

As a result of the address delivered yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church by Miss Eva Marshall Shontz of Chicago, originator and national president of the Young People's Christian Temperance union, a local organization will be effected. A mass meeting will be held this evening at St. John's English Lutheran church, when steps will be taken to form a local branch of the union. Addresses will be made by a number of the ministers of the city and prominent workers in the temperance cause.

At the close of yesterday afternoon's meeting the following committee was appointed on organization: Rev. W. S. Barnes of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. J. W. Wilson of the Congregational church, Rev. W. H. Cole of Trinity Methodist church, H. A. Cole, W. C. Coker and W. S. Homer. One hundred and twenty young people signed the pledge.

Miss Shontz was greeted by an audience that completely filled the large auditorium of the church and her address was listened to with much interest. Miss Shontz is an earnest worker in the temperance cause and her enthusiasm leads her to make some very radical statements. Her address was a scathing arraignment of the liquor traffic and every one connected with it. She took occasion to denounce the saloons in Manila, which she said were demoralizing the soldiers in the Philippines. She urged the doing away of the army content and blamed the president for not using his authority as an influence to abolish it. Reference was made by her to the saloons in Manila, which she said were demoralizing the soldiers in the Philippines. She urged the doing away of the army content and blamed the president for not using his authority as an influence to abolish it.

While in this city Miss Shontz is the guest of Mrs. P. J. Montgomery.

Accidentally Killed by a Knife.
MANNING, Ia., June 17.—(Special.)—Henry Hill, a young man 26 years old, living four miles south of this place, accidentally killed himself by a knife cut in the left side of the chest. Mr. Hill was repairing a windmill and took his pocket-knife and was shaving a stick, drawing the knife toward him, when it slipped and entered the body just below the heart, inflicting a wound from which he died within two minutes. A younger brother was with him at the time of the accident.

Saloon Petition Successful.
SARLAN, Ia., June 17.—(Special.)—After a lively contest, extending over the last two months or more, the Shelby county board of supervisors has decided that the saloon consent petition is sufficient, with only three names to spare. Instead of calculating the 65 per cent on the total number of names on the poll lists, the board deducted 231 names of those either deceased or removed from the county, leaving the 65 per cent on this remainder as a base.

SOME STORIES BY SENATORS

Output of a Jug of Peach and Honey Which is the Result of Last Year's Adjourning.
WASHINGTON, June 17.—(Special.)—A jug of mellow peach brandy in Senator Scott's committee room was freely tapped by the senator and his friends on the night preceding the adjournment of that body. Republicans and democrats "got together" over the seductive fluid, and some of the antics of the lawmakers would make powerful interesting reading, if made the usually staid and dignified senators as frisky and as playful as kittens without bringing to the surface any disposition to display their pugilistic qualifications.

Speaking of the West Virginia senator's peach and honey, Congressman Henry of Texas said:
"I am reminded by the treat of Senator Scott of the once famous old Judge Cole of my state. He was characterized by his attachment to that seductive beverage, peach and honey, and his hatred of whiskey and whisky drinkers. While holding court at Austin two men were brought up on a charge of a drunken affray. It was a plain case and there were a score of witnesses to the transaction. The delinquents pleaded guilty and three months' imprisonment was their punishment. They were brought up for sentence separately.
"You are guilty of an affray," growled the judge.
"Yes, your honor," whined the offender, "but I hope that it might mitigate his punishment added that he was drunk."
"Drunk on rye whisky, too," roared the judge, in a voice of thunder.
"Yes, your honor, drunk on rye whisky."
"Mr. Clerk, record a fine of $50 against this man," said the judge, "and let him go to jail for sixty days. With I could double it."
"This was poor comfort for the other fellow who was waiting his turn, and he came forward with fear and trembling, but in an instant his case was over. The judge was not understood until the judge began to question him, first asking him if he, too, was drunk.
"Yes, your honor; drunk, very drunk," was the reply.
"And on rye whisky, too?" snapped the judge.
"Oh, no, your honor; I never drink whisky. I got tangled up on peach and honey."
"The judge's features relaxed in an instant, and the prisoner realized that he had made a ten-strike. As the judge raised his spectacles he contemplated the offender with interest and then with something like tenderness said:
"Ah, sir, peach and honey, eh? That's a gentlemanly habit, and I don't regard your offense as very serious. Mr. Clerk, enter a fine of $1 against this gentleman and discharge him on payment of costs."

According to Senator Tillman, Ninety-Six, South Carolina, was named by an Indian woman, it being the end of a journey made by her on foot during the revolutionary war to inform the British that the enemy would attack them. The Indian woman knew the fort was in danger and determined to inform the British. She left her home on the Keowee river and made her way on foot through virgin forest, swamp and snow. On crossing each stream of water she gave it the name of the number of miles she had traveled before reaching it. In Pickens county, along the Keowee, she met a man, which the Southern railway runs, there are eighteen creeks named up to twenty-six.

It required a day and a night for the squaw to reach Ninety-Six. It is one of the oldest towns in the state's history. The buildings are of ancient construction. The typical architecture of this city is in abundance, with hair tied up in strings in long strands that characterize the old-time darkey. There are a few ginger-cake colors there who have defeated the "Jim Crow" car by having their hair done up in a French twist.

There is a peculiar portrait in Washington which has created much interest among those who know of its existence. Its peculiarity is that every year it has been changed to show the changes which time would have made in the subject. The portrait is by a Washington artist and is that of his wife, and was painted many years ago when she was a young bride. A few years after the portrait was painted the young wife died and so great was the grief of the artist that he determined to keep her likeness with him all the time and to do so he decided that year by year he would change the portrait so as to make it grow old with him. Every year, on the anniversary of their wedding day, the artist locked himself in his studio and changed the lines of the face of the portrait. The artist who he thought would make the difference of one year. There have been many anniversaries of that wedding day and consequently many changes in the portrait. Today the picture is that of an old woman, the hair turned gray, and the face pale, but still bright with the marks of time, as if he had brushed the marks of time, as if he had thought would make the difference of one year. The amount of 2 per cent bonds redeemed to date under the secretary's recent call is $1,935,650.

BIG CONVENTION HALL BURNS

Des Moines Auditorium Goes Up in a Sunday Morning Blaze.
WORK OF REBUILDING ALREADY TAKEN UP

Business Men Call a Meeting While the Firemen Are Still at Work and Prepare to Put Up a New Hall.

DES MOINES, June 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The Des Moines Auditorium, built in the spring of 1899 by popular subscription for the purpose of furnishing a big convention hall, was destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning, entailing a loss of over $50,000. The building originally cost $41,600, but was recently renovated and fitted up as a complete theater by the lease, W. F. Chase, at a cost of several thousand dollars. The building was insured and this will be used for the rebuilding fund. Insurance, $25,000.

Before the fire department had left the place the business men called a meeting for the purpose of providing for the rebuilding of the structure. It was decided to rebuild at once and an effort will be made to have the structure under roof in time for the republican state convention, which meets here on Tuesday. The roof left in parts of the walls not falling are badly cracked and most of what is left will have to be torn down. The rear wall, ninety feet high and three feet thick, fell outward and a big piece of it crashed into the auditorium, making the grandstand in the park, which is situated in the rear of the auditorium. The fire came at a peculiarly unfortunate time, as the National Association of Music Teachers meets here this week, and every seat in the theater, 4,500 in all, had been sold for the many weeks. The start being made this evening, the start being made this evening. Those who compose the class going are: Charles Chase, Earl Birge, Paul Birge, Gravers Graverson, James Jensen, Earl Kincaid, Delbert McDermid, John Matter, Harry Reschke, Willie Reschke and Roy Smith. While on the trip the boys will be shown all kinds of sports and amusements by Judge Agnew, who is an adept in this line.

Methodists Deeply Interested.
The Methodists in Iowa are greatly concerned over the trouble in China in that section. The Des Moines branch of the Methodist Episcopal church has been most agitated over the threatened danger to Miss Frances O. Wilson of Cornish, Ia., who is in charge of the women's training school at Tsin Tsin, China. When the news of Dr. Elna Terry's reported murder was made public this week, the friends of Miss Wilson in this city were thrown into a state of alarm for fear that she, who is an equal of her husband, might have met a similar fate or be threatened with equal danger. No word has been received from Miss Wilson since the trouble began in China.

Among the other Iowa Methodists who are in China are Miss Lydia A. Wilkinson of Diagonal, Miss Margaret M. Early and Mrs. Susan Tippet, a widow of Sioux City, all three of whom are located at the Foo Chow mission in southern China. Miss Allen left China some weeks ago and is expected to land at any moment for a year's absence. Her husband, Mr. J. W. Allen, is a similar fate or be threatened with equal danger. No word has been received from Miss Wilson since the trouble began in China.

Others Who Are in Danger.
In central China, at the Yangtze mission there is Miss Kate L. Osborn of Union Mills, Ia., who is accompanied by her husband, Mr. J. W. Osborn, and their two children. All these women are directly under the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. Among the workers sent out by the General Missionary society of the Methodist church is Rev. G. A. Stuart, brother of Rev. T. Mackay Stuart, pastor of Grace Methodist church of this city, who is at Nanking, south of the Boxer district. Mrs. Mary Porter Gamewell of Davenport, Ia., is at Pekin. She is in the heart of the danger district. Miss Helen Galloway of Mount Airy, Ia., is at Chung King, on the Yangtze river in west China. Rev. W. E. Manley and wife are at the same place. Mr. Manley was Miss Florence Brown of Iowa, a graduate of Cornell college, and her husband was formerly an Iowa minister. Thomas Owen, who is at Foo Chow, in southern China, is also a former Iowa pastor. Mr. and Mrs. William A. Main, former residents of Iowa, are at Foo Chow.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.
Unless there is a sudden change in the political atmosphere a number of bartenders will be permitted to enjoy a fishing trip this week. Mayor Kelly still adheres to his determination to close every saloon in the city on Tuesday morning unless the legislature passes a license ordinance compelling to law. Prior to the granting of the licenses the ordinance referring to firms and corporations must be repealed. After this the council may then proceed to grant applicants licenses.

In the Bee of Friday Mayor Kelly denied his position and announced yesterday that he still held to the statements made at that time. If Chief Mitchell has an insufficient force at his command on the morning in question more men will be provided and every one of the ninety saloons now operating will be closed, both front and back doors.

In speaking of this the mayor remarked: "I cannot recede from my position, as I stated in open council that unless licenses were granted at the next meeting I would close every saloon in the city. I repeat what I said to the council and mean every word of it."
Inquiry among the liquor dealers yesterday elicited all kinds of information. A majority appear to think that the mayor means just what he says, while others incline to the opinion that the council will give in and repeal the obnoxious ordinance, thus putting an end to the strife. Liquor dealers say now that Mayor Kelly has the best of the proposition, as the police force is absolutely under his control, and all admit the fact that licenses expire May 1 and that they are operating without license. If there is no quorum an interesting session is expected.

School Board Meeting.
An adjourned meeting of the Board of Education is to be held Tuesday night. The report of the finance committee is to be read and it is possible that an agreement on the new school site matter may be reached. Secretary Brennan refuses to draw money for the payment of $4,600 to Thomas Hector until the finance committee's report has been rendered, although by resolution the board instructed him to do so. Through the School lease, which was organized for the purpose of securing honest and fair-minded men to represent the taxpayers on the board, three republican members were elected in April and they have undoubtedly expressed their convictions when recording their votes. Now some who are opposed to the purchase of the Hector site desire to secure an injunction to prevent the payment of $4,600 to the league, providing those who prefer other sites would furnish the plaintiff and the money to see the legal battle to an end. While some complain, a member of the league stated yesterday that it was difficult to secure a taxpayer who would allow his name to be used in the injunction proceedings. Money for the attorneys and court fees has been dreadfully slow in coming in and from present indications the warrant will be issued on Tuesday night, after resolution passed at the special meeting last week.

Another question to come up will be the acceptance of City Treasurer Koutsky's loan. This bond is in the sum of $50,000 and is issued by a well known surety company in New York. As Treasurer Koutsky receives no compensation from the board for his work the school district naturally pays for the bond, which costs $125 a year. In this connection it has been suggested that some provision be made to the treasurer for his work, as under the terms of the surety bond he is not permitted to receive interest on the school money in his hands. This matter may come up a little later and be adjusted to the satisfaction of all interested.

Completing the Census.
Secretary Watkins of the Commercial club said yesterday that the officers of the club had been implored to take some part in the compiling of the government census. An answer had been made, however, that the work was being done by persons in the employ of the United States government and that beyond urging everyone to see that he had been counted no steps would be taken. The club makes the request that every person not counted notify Major Wheeler of Omaha. His name and address should be blanked to be filled out will be sent. Secretary Watkins has a few slips which he will give out to persons who call, but all applications for memoranda slips should be made direct to Major Wheeler. Unofficially it is rumored that up to Saturday night fully 15,000 names had been enrolled. It will take four or five days to complete the lists, as in some districts, especially in the boarding house portion, the collection of names has been very slow.

Camping Party Starts Tonight.
Unless the condition of the weather prevents, Judge F. A. Agnew will take his Sunday school class to the Platte river to camp. The start being made this evening. Those who compose the class going are: Charles Chase, Earl Birge, Paul Birge, Gravers Graverson, James Jensen, Earl Kincaid, Delbert McDermid, John Matter, Harry Reschke, Willie Reschke and Roy Smith. While on the trip the boys will be shown all kinds of sports and amusements by Judge Agnew, who is an adept in this line.

Memorial Services at St. Martin's.
Members of camp 1,095, Woodmen of the World, and the Royal Knights attended memorial service at St. Martin's Episcopal church yesterday forenoon. The members of the order met at the hall, Twenty-fifth and Broadway, and marched in a body to the church. The drill and degree teams were in uniform and presented a very fine appearance. The sermon preached by Pastor Johnson was appropriate to the occasion and was greatly appreciated.

Magic City Gospel.
Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bates of Fifteenth and B streets have sold their property and removed to Omaha.
An examination for teachers in the public schools will commence on Tuesday and continue for three days.
Mrs. W. C. Cox leaves Thursday for Cedar Rapids and Cripple Creek, to be gone two or three weeks.

The trial of Constable Hardy, who was arrested for disturbing the peace on Saturday night, has been set for Friday before Judge King.

Treasurer Koutsky is still after those who hold in the payment of taxes. He is cleaning up a lot of old records and hopes to bring into the treasury quite a sum of money before this work is over.
The presbytery of the United Presbyterian church will meet at the First Presbyterian church here on Monday evening. The sermon on this occasion will be preached by Rev. D. W. McQuiston of Keosauqua.

Nature's Strength for Weak Men

If you suffer from any weakness peculiar to men—years of the disorders, the direct result of youthful indiscretion or excesses in later years—the very worst probable thing you can do is to put drugs into your stomach. The medicines all doctors use for these diseases—morphine, camphor, castor oil, strychnine, phosphorus, etc.—are deadly poisons—they stimulate or deaden—they cannot cure. There are a great many more drugs worse than these. I offer you the only natural remedy for all weakness, my medicine, ELECTRICITY, and I absolutely guarantee a permanent cure where the electricity is applied by the greatest of remedial agents—

DR. BENNETT'S ELECTRIC BELT

You get Electricity by treating with my Belt in its pure form. There is no possible chance for it to injure you. It does not stimulate. It must strengthen. To get good results from Electricity, you must have constant application several hours at a time. You must do this with the batteries used in doctors' offices. It would keep you away from your business. My belt does not inconvenience you at all and you can work, ride, jump or run with it on. I have known for many years that Electricity was the greatest curative agent that would ever be known. I do not give drugs at all. I could make more money if I did. It does not cost anything to write a prescription. I devoted a good portion of my life and money in perfecting my Electric Belt. I do not promise to cure you. I guarantee it. The price of my belts are within the reach of all afflicted. You can rest assured my Belt will not burn or blister you, as do all the other kinds of Electric Belts. It is soft, silken, chambray-covered, and does not conduct the electricity away with the burning. They can be renewed when worn out for 75 cents—no other belt can be renewed for any price. Guaranteed to cure Sexual Impotency, Lost Manhood, Varicocele and all sexual disorders; restores Shrunken or Undeveloped Organs and Vitality; cures Rheumatism in any form, Kidney, Liver and Bladder Troubles, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Female Complaints, etc.
