Rev. MacAyeal Pleads for the Austerity Embodied in Calvinism.

IT IS CHRISTIANITY'S ONLY SAFEGUARD

Basis of Calvinism is the Recognition of the Sovereignty of God and it is Opposed to Worldtiness and Materialism.

Rev. Howard S. MacAyeal, formerly of the Plymouth Congregational church of this city, occupied the pulpit of the Central United Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Mr. MacAyeal now has a pastorate in St. Louis and has been in Omaha to conduct the marriage ceremony of two of his former parishioners. A number who were once members of Mr. MacAyenl's congregation were present yesterday morning.

Mr. MnoAyeal's discourse was a plea for the more nusters but none the less vital portion of Christianity embodied in Calvinposed to the great evils which imperil Chrisnineteen of the twenty-six creeds. Then there is the spirit of skepticism which is threatening the fabric of the Christian church. Even professing Christians are using the words 'I think' instead of 'Thus saith the Lord.' The principles behind Calvinism must be the rallying cry to which all must respond who wish to preserve the faith of their fathers."

IMPORTANCE OF SPIRITUAL LIFE. It is That Which Keeps Man in Touch

With God. Rev. J. A. Monieith preached his first sermon as pastor of the Park Avenue United Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Mr. Monteith comes from Cedar Rapids, In., where has has had charge of a church for the last fifteen years. His theme was "Jesus Christ and Him Crucified," the text being sinful man is living apart from God. To trace this we must go back to the time of the Garden of Eden; there man had no difficulty in realizing the presence of God. How God revealed himself to man in that day I do not know, but he dld make His presence known. I believe that were we not in sin the most natural thought of every man and every woman would be of God and His presence would be the most real. Sin has separated man and God. > Light of Truth Eliminates Evil. Rev. George W. C. Smith of Adrian, M.ch., presched yesterday morning at the Free Methodist church, Eleventh street and Lincoln avenue. "Howbelt, when He, the spirit of truth, is come He will guide you afternoon before an audience which was into all truths," was the text chosen. His sermon was earnest and elequent and dealt with the exact nature of God and the various ways in which the divine spirit makes itself felt by man.

The words of the text were uttered b Christ when He was about to leave Palestine. THEY DEDICATE MONUMENT | ENDS QUARREL WITH KNIFE H. Jackson Stabs Ben Born and Disturbs the Steats at the Police Station.

After the exciting events of an unusually busy day the office force at the police sta-tion were enjoying the customary quiet of a Sunday afternoon, when they were startled to hear a terrifle crash of glass. Looking across the street they saw a negre running north on Eleventh street, who had evidently jumped through a widow of the Bikhorn Valley house. Chase was given and the negro captured at Davenport street. In the meantime other officers had entered the house, where they found that the clerk, Ben Born, had been murderously assaulted with a knife.

The negro, who gave the name of G. H. carriages and 200 members of the order on Jackson, had a dispute with Born about a trivial matter ten days ago, and it had not been settled to his satisfaction. He entered the hotel office about 3:30 and resumed the quarrel. Born ordered him to leave and he refused to go. Jackson pulled a knife and cut Born six times about the head and face. None of the wounds are deep and they are not considered dangerous. The injured man was attended by Police Surgeon Ames. Webster and the reading of the poem, "Why Jackson was charged with cutting with intent to kill.
