

Summer Hints

A few of the many good values to be found here. These reminders are for pepew's speech aroused the most intense turned from the platform. choice merchandise, which will bear your closest inspection.

Kayser silk gloves for women, at 50c, 75c and $1.00 per pair. Kayser eilk gloves for misses, 50c per

Lisle gloves, washable, 50c and 75c per Linen collars, newest shapes, 15c or 3

Plain and figured silk ties for high band collars, 25c. Summer corsets, 50c quality, for 3 c. the unparrelleled thing of nominating both White lawn dressing sacques, 75c. $1. $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, and up to $3.40 each.

Jap fans at 5c, 10c, 15c, 20c and 25c

We Close Our Store Saturdays at 6 P. M. AGENTS FOR POSTER KID GLOVES AND MCCALL'S PATTERNS.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & Co.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS HOUSE IN OMAHA. T. M. C. A. BUILDING, COR. 16TH AND DOUGLAS ST&

, wick of the republican party. Ohio inhigher still climbed Hanns. He mounted smiled till his teath showed and Mrs. Roose- bishop Ryan. a table where he could look out upon the cheering multitude.

Cheers for Mark Hanna.

Bezide him auddenly appeared a young girl, arrayed in the national colors. At this sight the cheers redoubled. The music of the orchestra was drowned in the awful din. The demonstration had now continued man Lodge began to rap for order, but the ring of his gavel was of no avail. A Texas standard in his hand dove down into the Juan. Rocsevelt is no master of the foils. day. main aisle and went careening toward the rear to the music of "John Brown's Body Lies Mouldering in the Ground."

The bearers of the standards of the other states plunged after him. Down the aisle they swung, starting the whole storm afresh. When they reached the main entrance they were met by men holding aloft national colors entwined about its neck. Then the procession came back and circled

The demonstration all told lasted exactly fifteen minutes.

This protracted outburst was but the forerunner of the pandemonium that reigned a moment later when Roosevelt, the man of the hour, mounted the platform to second the president's nomination.

Roosevelt Gets His Share. When the convention caught sight of him it went off again like a rocket. As he stood

Constipation Headache, billiousness, heartburn, indi-

Hood's Pills

Sold by all druggists. 25 cents,

He seized a plume and whirled it about there facing the yelling multitude the roar his bead like a general leading his men to could have been heard for blocks. Hanna the charge. All at once a delegate, bear- smiled blandly as a daring photographer set ing the standard of Kentucky, rushed for | up a rapid-fire camera directly in front of the ward to the stage. The effect was magical, bero of San Juan and began banging away figuratively kissed her hand to California wife, who sat in the reserved seats over- As the anthem closed the chairman an- any other speaker. and Minnesota and saluted Texas. Then, hanging the pit on his right. Then he nounced the opening invocation by Arch-finally he was allowed to begin, he plunged purple robe of his high station, falling to laughter which followed the declaration. minutes before he could proceed. Every assembled. He prefers the broadsword, and as he laid about him with sledge-hammer blows the braska delegate shouted, "Hit 'em again." He had the manuscript of his speech in his of Quay's name the short and sturdy figure hand and referred to it occasionally, discard- of the Pennsylvanian arose in the middle ing page after page as he finished until the aisle. In thin voice, barely heard at the platform at his feet was strewn with white platform. Mr. Quay announced the witha gigantic papier mache elephant with the sheets. When he reached his peroration, drawal of the amendment proposing a change and with a world of infinite scorn in his in rules 1 and 12, referring to representavoice asked if America was a weaklings to the pit. For several minutes this parade shrink from the world-work of the world cepted by the southern delegates as a conpowers, the whole pit echoed "No" in chorus.

Ending the Day's Work.

When he concluded and resumed his seat in the New York delegation the other delegates rushed forward and surrounded him. Many congratulated him and it seemed for a moment as if they would lift him to their of president of the United States are now shoulders. Senator Thurston, the Demos- in order." thenes of the senate, John W. Yerkes, an orator from the Blue Grass state, and Governor Mount of Indiana also seconded Mc-Kinley's nomination, but before the latter a vote and several times tried to how him Senator Foraker, who was to make the platform he waved a salutation to the pounding his deak and appealing to the asconcluded the convention was impatient for down. Then the roll of states was called speech nominating Mr. McKinley as the reand delegation after delegation rose in solid publican candidate for president. Then blocks and east their votes for McKinley, the cheers began and a wild scene ensued. When Chairman Lodge made the announcement that the president had been renominated was the same wild storm which had been raised by Foraker and when it was over

CUT OUT THIS COUPON.

Omaha Bee.

Single Coupon.

A Summer Vacation for the most popular young lady.

One vote for Miss	Namo.
Address		the Company of the Co
	Town,	State.
Works for_ CUT THIS OUT. Dap

CUT OUT THIS COUPON.

Contest Dept.," Omaha, Neb.

Omaha Bee.

Prepaid Subscription Coupon.

A Summer Vacation

For the most popular young lady. This coupon, if accompanied by eash prepaying a new or old subscription to THE BEE, counts 15 votes for each 15c prepaid, 100 votes for each dollar prepaid, etc. Votes for Miss. Send Bee to (name)

N. B.—This coupon must be countersigned by the Bee Circulation Dept. (or the town agent to whom the subscription money is paid.) Deposit or mail to "Vacation Contest Dept." Bee, Omaha, Neb.

Address.

Countersigned by _

Send this coupon and Only 10c

to The Bee Publishing Co., Omaha, Neb

For part..... Paris Exposition Pictures.

Sent postpaid to any address,

Stay at home and enjoy the great exposition. 18 to 20 views every week, covering all points of interest. Altogether there will be 20 parts containing 350 views. The entire set mailed for $2.00.

全种市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市市

Cuba, nominated him on behalf of the state laughing aloud.

state and Delegate Ashton of Washington, waved his coat with the other, who came here for Bartlett Tripp. Chauncey Depew wound up the oratory on behalf enthusiasm when he pictured the dazzling | Chairman Lodge, as the hurrah began tune which Colonel Roosevelt had heard in again break loose. the trenches before Santiago. At 2:14 the convention, which had done the candidates for president and vice president unanimously, adjourned. Governor Roosevelt drove from the convention hatt with Mr. Odell seated in the rear of and open landau. He lifted his broad-brimed hat to the continuous salvos that greeted White washable pulley belts, 50c and him as he passed through the densely packed streets like a conquering hero fresh from new victories. Tonight the faces of McKinley and Roosevelt are on all the badges and their names are on every lip. was an interesting conference of the leaders | in full view of the vast audience with Jos Manley, Colonel Dick, looking more like a post than a soldier, Mark Hanna, Senator Chandler, Julius Caesar Burrows, Mayor Ashbridge, Charles Emory Smith. John R. Lynch, the colored ex-congressman from perfecting the final plans for the day.

Calls Convention to Order. At 10:36 Chairman Lodge glanced at h's Then Governor Roosevelt began his speech, him their congratulations.

movement and every word was characteristic | Senator Lodge called attention to Louisiof the man. He looked, spoke and acted like and being inadverently omitted from that the success of the republican party in delegate shouted above the roar. "three one giving direction to an army about to go the roll call for national committeemen and November meant peace in the Philippines. cheers for Mark Hanna." They were given into battle. And nothing would content him that was corrected. Alabama also named while the success of the opposition meant > multitude went wild with delight. A Ne- unfinished business before the convention. As the cheers died away at the mention tion in national conventions. This was accession to them and they arose enmasse. cheering wildly at the withdrawal of the > > Now Mr. Lodge advanced to the front of the platform and a thrill went through the vast audience as he announced:

"Under the rules nominations for the office :

"The state of Alabama is recognized." A tall and swarthy Alabamian stood on his chair and by prearrangement answered: 'Alabama yields to Ohio.'

This was the signal for the recognition of Fornker Names McKinley.

Amidst a tumult of applause Senstor for the term beginning March 4, 1901, there Foraker went to the platform and when quiet was restored began to speak, first thanking Alabama for its courtesy in yielding, but attributing that fact to the overwhelming popularity of the candidate. Mr. Forsker continued he was repeatedly interrupted with cheers.

His appouncement that the nemination McKinley was equal to an election in November brought vociferous cheers toe gailery spectators joining in the enthusidemonstration. Relefty Senator Foraker adverted to the record of the presgent in peace and in war as one of the nest remarkable in American history. war and in peace," said he, while the de'egates and speciators echoed the refrain of the aentiment expressed, "he has been found equal to all extraordinary require-In all American history there has been no chapter more brilliant than that written by the United States with him as Pandemonium Breaks Out.

At the reference to the great leader of ne party, the successes already achieved him and the grave re-pensibilities now sing carried forward by him, the applausemained for his closing sentence, for the irs: time mentioning William McKinley by name as the numince, to electrify the great | through the hall as Governor Mount spoke. multitude. Pandemonium broke loca". Former tempests of enthusiasm galed reore this eyelone of sound and movement. Every one stood and waved and velled. great plumes of red, white and blue, a perfeet tempestuous sea of color.

Senator Hanna sprang to the front of the tage, a flag in one hand and a piume in the other, and led in the tremendous demonstration. Now it had lasted five minute : Not content with their frenzied hurran on the floor, the delegates now marched in solid ranks upon the platform, with standards, plumes, banners and flags.

At 10:20 the big band from Canton, O., the president's home, made its way into the hall from the west side and broke out with the pealing strains of the national The whole audience rose to its feet and stood until it was concluded. The Canton band is one of the most popular organizations of its kind in the United States. It is here on the day of the nomination of President McKinley at the presdent's own request. He regards the band Herctofore in his congressional, gubernatorial contests, and in 1896 in his contest for the presidency, the band played him to victory. When it was suggested that the band could not be present he president insisted that it should be, and Kinley has received 930 votes. It is a unantat his request the noted organization was engaged. After the demonstration had continued seven minutes the Ohio delegation, where centered the waves of sound, moved up the aisle, while all the other state delegations, bearing aloft their standards, formed in a grand procession about the hall. The demonstration lasted just ten minutes. Indiana started the rush to the platform. Governor Mount tearing up the state standard and leading the delegation down the aisle.

The plume demonstration was followed by a grand dexelogy in the singleg of "John Brown's Body," the galleries joining in the chorus while the delegations led the sing-

During the speech of Senator Foraker Governor Roosevelt paid attention so strictly that there was an almost anxious look upon his face. Once or twice, however, he got away from his intensity and Fonoi of the president's nomination lasted applauded. When Ferzker finished Roosevelt arose with the rest, but undoubtedly for order for the further event in store. with the prospect of his own nomination on his mind only, stood silent, not joining in strative throngs that there was still vital the cheers, and both hands in his pockets. Disiness to be done and announced that the Roosevelt's nomination for the vice preni- But when Senator Foraker came down the call of states would proceed for nominations | their history.

by Delegate Murray of Secretary Long's form, and holding a plume in one hand, he Alabama would yield to lows to present a of the state which declared for Woodruff, right hand as the procession of plumes re-dreams of the country's future. During ev- to subside, made an effort to restore order, Chair Recognizes Roosevelt.

It was exactly fifteen minutes when order was restored and Mr. Lodge announced:

New York. Again the magic name sent the multitude form, looking neither to the right or the ing.
left, and then turning and surveying the The demonstration which followed the an-

Mississippi, and a score of others were busy that away; take it away, and a sergeant-

Standards of the states were torn loose at him. But "Teddy" did not flinch. He watch and then with three raps of the speaking in a clear, full voice. His senand yelling delegates climbed on the plat- looked about him while he waited for the historic gavel stilled the tumult on the tences were delivered in a manner that deform to rally around their leader. With storm to subside. Several times he raised floor while the band ushered in the session noted a careful study of each word. His guidons pointed to a common center they his hand, but the cheering continued. His with the national anthem, Senator Hanna argumentative style kept the audience en made a canopy over the head of the War- stern, square jaw was firmly set as he sur- being one of the first to rise, and the en- rapport with him, for he was given the veyed the scene. Only once did his face re- tire audience following as the inspiring closest attention by the vast audience, in terlocked her staff with New York, Maine, lax. That was when he caught sight of his strains reverberated through the building, fact very much more attention than had

> "It was not a great war. It did not have to be," he said, speaking of the war with velt fluttered back her handkerchief. When The distinguished prelate wore the superb Spain, and then waited for the ripple of > directly to the heart of his subject in the his feet, and open in front, showing the "We have done so well that our opponents impetuous way which the people so much heavy chain and golden cross emblematis use it as an argument for turning us out." admire. His first statement was that he of his office. He paused until the assem- he said, smiling and showing his teeth, and rose to second the nomination of William blage had risen and bowed their heads, and his audience responded with cheers and McKinley, who had faced more problems then his strong, rich voice rolled out a laughter. His allusions to the Ice trust than any president since Lincoln. The con- prayer filled with a sentiment of the deep called forth the heartiest applause, with vention got on its feet and it was several responsibility resting upon the party here cries from the galleries of "Hit em again" and "That's right, Teddy."

When he declared with brilliant emphasis with a will. Then a delegate with Ohio's but to storm the heights as he did at San its selections, having failed to do so yester- a prolongation of the struggle, the delegates and spectators rose almost as one The chair then laid the amendment to the man and cheered. After recounting the rules offered yesterday by Mr. Quay as the unfinished business before the convention. achievements of the United States in the far-off islands and presenting in a sentence the claim of this country upon the archipelago, Governor Roosevelt demanded amid thunderous applause:

Not Shrinking from Duty.

"Is America a weakling that she should shrink from the work of a great world power? The giant of the west, like the gladiator of old, looks into the future with hope, with expectancy, which the love of all institutions have made dear to us. (Applause.) In conclusion Governor Roosevelt declared the republican party and the American people challenged the future and they were eager for the labor laid out for them as if by Providence.

The closing words of the governor brought another demanstration, and for a minute at the calls for his appearance. it seemed that the convention would go mad and then and there make two nominations instead of one. Plumes went up and standards again left their sockets to candidates. It took some minutes to reduce on high. As the governor left took some minutes to reduce on high. As the governor left took and appearing that there would be no other candidated again left their sockets to candidates. It took some minutes to reduce on high. As the governor left to took some minutes to reduce on high. As the governor left took some minutes to reduce on high the platform he waved a salutation to the moving through, and one in particular tooking through, and one in particular tooking through the platform he waved a salutation to the moving through, and one in particular tooking through the platform he waved as alutation to the moving through, and one in particular tooking through the platform he waved as alutation to the moving through, and one in particular tooking through the platform he waved as alutation to the moving through, and one in particular tooking through the platform he waved as alutation to the semblage.

Just as Alabama was called, the first state on the roll call, ex-Senator Quay started in the hame of all these considerations. In the name of all these considerations, and ret slone on behalf of every other state and territory here represented and in the hame of all republicants everywhere throughout our invisitetion. I nominate to be our next candidate for the presidency.

Verification.

We guarantee to cure all cases curable of the plant of the plant of the plant of the pounding his desk and appearing to the assume the provided of the plant of the plant nomination of the president Senator Lodge then recognized John W. Yerkes of Kentucky, who arose to also see and the nomination on behalf of the south. When Mr. Yerkes had concluded he was Lodge announced that Governor Roosevet Almost instantly from all pa to

of the hall came the ery;

"Vote!" "Vote!" "Vote!" They wanted action, not eratory, building to its foundation. Disregarding the call for a vote Chairman Lodge recognized George Knight, head of the California delegation. As he appeared upon the platform and addressed the con-stilled the outery and recognized Governor Mount of Indiana, who in behalf of the Hoosier state seconded the nomination statesman-soldier president. It was apparent that the convention was eager for

The listeners broke in with many demonto maintain sufficient order for the speaker State standards were wrenched from their to be heard. As he closed the convention places and borne aloft with umbrellas, again demanded a vote and the chairman called for the vote on the nomination for all officials of the convention. president. At 12:37 p. m. the vote began.

Call by States.

During the call of states on the vote for presidential candidate the galleries were journed sine die. noticeably attentive, and there was no unu sual demonstration among the delegates FORAKER NAMES M'KINLEY until New York's vote was announced by Chairman Odefl. This brought out a round of applause. When Pennsylvania's vote was announced by Senator Quay many of the delegations arose and cheered. Some of the states were not content with easting their votes for McKinley, but the chairman announced the vote which the ley, said; candidate would receive in November. When he announced Hawaii the delega tions stood and cheered the announcement of the new possession of its two votes for The tally clerks quickly made the official summary and handed it to the chairman. Mr. Lodge took the paper and advancing to the front of the stage said "The total vote cast is 930. William Mc mous vote and the chairman declares that William McKinley is your nomince for the presidency for the term beginning March Demonstration Over Nomination. Now again pandemonium broke loose in one swelling chorus of enthusiasm for the new candidate. Up went the plumes and standards. Up stood the great audience, men and women mingling their shouts and their frantic demonstration

The bands played "Rally Round the Flag" and the Hamilton club of Chicago marched down the aisle, preceded by New York and followed by Pennsylvania. The huge counterfeit of an elephant-emblem of republican strength-was brought into the hall. Around its neck was entwined garlands of flowers. Laughter and applause were mingled as the great emblem was borne about. The demonstration in five minutes, and then the chairman called Mr. Lodge warned the noisy and demon-dency evoked similar demonstrations. Lafe siste he grasped him by the hand and for the vice presidency.

Young of lows, who was with Roosevelt in slapped him on the shoulder, smiling and As the name of Alabama was called on the roll of states for nomination of candidates which had originally come to Philadelphia One delegate threw off his coat and unfor vice president the announcement was for Dolliver. His nomination was seconded fastened his collar as he reached the platmade by the chairman of the delegation that candidate.

Colonel Young Recognized.

Chairman Lodge then introduced Colonel Lafe Young, one of the Iowa delegates-atlarge and editor of the Des Moines Capital. Colonel Young swung down the main aisle cry pause the band played but one air, the but this was only a signal for the crowd to to the platform to do that which a single orator never before did in a republican national convention-withdraw one strong and magnetic man as a candidate and present the name of another for the second office in the gift of the American people. He "The chair recognizes Governor Roosevelt of withdrew the name of Dolliver and offered that of Roosevelt.

Colonel Young was in Cuba at the time into convulsions of enthusiasm. All eyes Roosevelt led his gallant Rough Riders up were turned toward Roosevelt. He stepped San Juan hill and his reference to the govout into the siste and strode up the plat- ernor's campaign was eloquent and touch-sea of waving, cheering humanity. There nouncement by Colonel Young of Governor Henry Cabot Lodge, the permanent char-man, reached the stage at 10:15, and there Roosevelt's Nomination Seconded.

The delegates choked the aisles, grasping the governor's hands, and with difficulty the chairman restored quiet and recognized Butler Murray of Massachusetts seconding the nomination of Roosevelt. He spoke in behalf of "Old New England" inations instead of one. Plumes went up it appearing that there would be no other the chairman recognized Senator Thurston of cheers. Partial order was restored and of Nebraska for a speech, reconding the the roll call proceeded, each delegation as called easting their votes for Roosevelt unanimously. Roosevelt is Sominated. At the conclusion of the call Chairman given a salvo of applause that echeci and had received 929 votes, one delegate in the the nomination of McKinley Governor Roose re-echoed through the great hall. As he convention not voting. This delegate was veit said turned to resume his seat on the platform Governor Rocsevelt himself, who referring a Senator Hanna rose and cordially gresped from voting with the New York delegation. com voting with the New York delegation.

Chairman Lodge's announcement that hovernor Roosevelt had been nominated for any other president since the days of mighty Abraham Lincoln; the president under the control of Governor Roosevelt had been nominated for mighty Abraham Lincoln; the president unvice president evoked a burst of applause der whose administration this country has Delegates and speciators were becoming that fairly shook the great steel-girdled

> Governor Roosevelt, now the candida'e for vice president, was surrounded by delegat s showering congratulations upon him. He stood in the middle sisle, the stern

Knight concluded, but the chairman General Grosvenor was agreed to for an official print of the convention proceedings and a reprint of the proceedings of four years ago. Another resolution empowered the national committee to fill vacancies on the legislation and good administration there clai print of the convention proceedings and of ago. Another resolution empowered the na-McKinley. It was a glowing culogium to the tional committee to fill vacancies on the committee. On motion of Colonel Dick, Senator Lodge | did say that each man should have a definite results and a growing hum spread was placed at the head of the committee to notify the president of his nomination and Senator Wolcott at the head of the comstrations and calls of "Vote," and Chairman mittee to notify the vice presidential nom-Lodge was kept busy with his gavel trying lines. Resolutions of thanks to Mr. Lodge and to Mr. Wolcott for their able services as proxiding officers were unanimously adopted Also thanks to Mayor Ashbridge of Philaannounced that the roll of states would be delphia for the hospitality of the city and to

This closed the work and at 2:14, on moion of Mr. Sereno E. Payne of New York, the republican national convention of 1900 ad-

Senator Places the Name o President Before the Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2t.-Senator Foraker, in his speech nominating McKin-

Foraker, in his speech nominating McKinley, said:

Mr Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: Alabama yields to Ohio and I thank Alabama for that accommodation. Alabama has so yielded, however, by freason of a fact that would seem in an important sense to make the duty that has the been assigned to me a superfluous duty, for Alabama has yielded because of the fact that our candidate for the presidency has in fact been already nominated. (Applause.) He was nominated by the distinguished senator from Colorado when he assumed the duties of temporary chairman. He was nominated again yesterday by the distinguished senator from Massachusetts when he took the office of permanent chairman, and he was nominated for a third time when the senator from Indiana yesterday read us the platform. (Applause.) And not only has he been thus nominated by this convention, but he has also been hoministed by the whole American people. (Applause.) From one end of this land to the other, in every mind, only one and the same man is thought of for the honor which we are now about to confer, and that man is the first choice of every man who wishes republican success next November. (Applause.) Upon this account it is indeed not necessary for me or any one else to apeak for him here or elsewhere, he has already spoken for himself. (Applause.) And to all the world he has a record replete with brilliant achievements (applause) a record that speaks at once both his performances and his highest eulogy. It commorneeds both peace and war and constitutes the most apt, striking illustration possible of triumph and inspiring fidelity and success in the discharge of public duty.

Ever years ago the American people con-their history. He found the laber of this country everywhere lide, he has given it everywhere employment. He found it everywhere in despair, he has made it everywhere in despair. He has made it everywhere in despair, he has made it everywhere and mines everywhere closed, they are now everywhere open. (Applause). And while we het deliberate, they are sending their surplus production in commercial conquest to the very ends of the earth. Under his wise guidance our fluaricial standard has been firmly planted high above and beyond assault and the wild ery of 18 to 1, so full of terror and long has in 1895 has been put to everlasting sleep alongside of the Losi Cause and other combs of American politics. (Applause).

With a diplomacy never excelled and entirely equaled he has overcome what al times seemed to be insurmountable difficulties, and has not only opened to us the door of China, but he has advanced our interests in every land.

Meets Emergency of War.

Meets Emergency of War.

Meets Emergency of War.

Mr. Chairman, we are not surprised by this, for we anticipated it all. When we nominated him at St. Louis four years ago we knew he was wise, we knew he was brave, we knew he was patient, we knew he would be faithful and devoted and we knew that the greatest possible triumphs of peace would be his, but we then little knew that he would be called upon to encounter also the trials of war. That unusual emergency came, it came unexpectedly The demonstration which followed the announcement by Colonel Young of Governor kees stood, his face grimly, set, without a smile. He made no acknowledgments, no ealutations to the plaudits, but, like a hero receiving his due, caimly awaited the subsidence of the tumpit. At last he raised his hand and at his bidding the demonstration came to an end.

As the governor faced about on the platform a man with a camera planted the instrument directly in front of him. As Mr. Reosevelt saw it he said sharply: "Take that away; take it away," and a sergeant at-arms rushed the man and his apparatus out of the aisle.

The demonstration Young of Governor Roosevelt as the candidate of the young men of the country who represented their patriotism and ambitions and embodied their patriotism and ambitions and embodied their patriotism and Americanism was not second to that accorded the president's name.

The vast assemblage sprang to its feet and state emblems, pampas plumes, handker-chiefs and hats fairly filled the air. The band in the main gallery began to play that away; take it away," and a sergeant at-arms rushed the man and his apparatus out of the aisle.

Then Governor Roosevelt began his speech, speaking in a clear, full voice. His sentence of the inspiring around the hall, filling past Governor Roosevelt as he sat in the New York delegation and extending to him their congratulations.

Roosevelt's Nomination Seconded. ng-suffering patriots in Cuba plete protection, education, enlightenment, uplifting and ultimate local self-government and the enjoyment of all the blessings of liberty to the millions of Porto Rico and the Philippines. What we have so gloriously done for ourselves we propose most generously to do for them. (Applause) demonstration for the rough rider candidate.

(.seunlq Fitting Place for Convention.

After the speech of Mr. Murray of Massachusetts General James M. Ashton of Washington was recognized, and he also seconded the nomination of Rosseveit.

Depen was demanded by the delegates, and as they called and recalled the well known figure of the New York sension. Depew was demanded by the delegates, and as they called and recalled the wall known figure of the New York senator the delegation, Governor Roosevelt himself taking him by the arm and urging him forward to the platform. The benign face of the post-Frandial crastor looked down on the people, and then his murical voice began a magnificent and impromptu tribute to the hero of the hour. He was in good humor as well as good voice and his touch of jocosity in mentioning "Teddy" and the "get there" qualities of Young America brought out a storm of mingled laughter and applause. He pictured "Teddy" as the child of Fifth avenue, the cultured product of Harvard, the cowboy of the plaine, the vitalizing force in marshaling the American ships to overwhelm the Spaniards, the impetuous leader at Santiago and San Juan and the iddized governor of the Empire state.

When Depew sought to close there were demands to "go on," and yielding to the glories of the party. His closing period, declaring that Roosevelt," "Teddy," "Roosevelt earner the proceeded, dealing with the glories of the party. His closing period, declaring that Roosevelt's choice would be unanimous touched off a whirlwind of excitement. "Roosevelt," "Teddy," "Roosevelt," came from all quarters of the hait. The governor sat unmoved fanning himself desperately and shaking his head negatively at the calls for his appearance.

The impatient audience called for a vote, it appearing that there would be no other candidates. It took some minutes to restore order, "Chairman Ladge, vigorously and negatively of the plain the called for a vote, it appearing that there would be no other candidates. It took some minutes to restore order, "Chairman Ladge, vigorously and negatively of his beloved."

The impatient audience called for a vote, it appearing that there would be no other candidates. It took some minutes to restore order, "Chairman Ladge, vigorously and negatively of his beloved."

The impatient audience called for a vote, it appearing that there would be no other candid

Seconds the Nomination of President Mckinley in an Augmen-tutive Speech.

PHILADELPHIA, June 31.-In seconding

Mr. Chairman: I rise to second the act whose administration this country has attained a higher pitch of prosperity at home and honor abroad than ever before in its history. Four years ago the republican party nominated William McKinley as its standard bearer in a political conflict of graver moment to the nation than any that had taken place since the close of the civil war way its more more a resmitled country. were described in the middle sisle, the stern look of recent days having given way to an look of recent days having given way to an look of recent days having given way to an look of recent days having given way to an look of recent days having given way to an look of recent days having given way to an expansive smile.

The serious work of the convention was was cheered enthusiastically.

The serious work of the convention was now practically over and only a few details were elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages and these pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages and those pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages and those pleages have been made more than good, but the chairman of the work and the stern look of the civit was usone more nor a reunited country.

The strious voice are the close of the civit was usone more a reunited country.

President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages and those pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages and those pleages have been made more than good. We promised that if President McKinley was triumphantly elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good, and the elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good, and the elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good, and the elected on certain distinct pleages have been made more than good, and the elected on certain distinct pl shop would open, the farmer have a marke did say that each man should have a better chance to win prosperity than he had ever yet had. In the long run, the thrift, industry, energy and capasity of the individual must always remain the chief factors in his success. By unwise or dishonest administration on the part of the national authorities all these qualities in the individual can be nullified, but wise legilation and unright administration will give individual can be infinitely be in the individual can be infinitely be them free scope. And it was this free scope that we promised should be given. Well, we kept our word. The opportunity has been given and it has been scized by American thrift and business enterprise. As a result we have prospered as never be-fore, and we are now prospering to a de-gree that would have seemed incredible four years ago, when the cloud of menac-to our industrial wellbeing hung black shows the land. above the land.

Success in Foreign Affairs.

So it has been in foreign affairs. Four years ago the nation was uneasy because right at its doors an American island was writhing in agony with the curse of worse right at its doors an American island was writhing in agony with the curse of worse than mediaeval tyranny and misrule. Now under the lead of President McKintey the nation has taken up the task of securing orderly liberty and the reign of justice and law in the islands from which we drove the tyranny of Spain with the same serious realization of duty and sincere purpose to perform it that has marked the national attitude it dealing with the economic and financial difficulties that face us at home. This is what the nation has done during the three years that have clapsed since we made McKinley president, and all this is what he typines and stands for. We here nominate him again, and, in November next, we shall elect him again, because it has been given to him to personify the cause of honor abroad and prosperity at home, of wise legislation and straightforward administration.

Until our opponints have explicitly and absolutely repudiated the principles which in 1896 they professed, and the leaders who canbody these principles, their success means the undoing of the country. Nor have they any longer even the excuse of being honest in their folly. They have raved, they have fosmed at the mouth in denunciation of trusts and now, in my own state, their foremost party leaders, includ-reved, they have foamed at the mouth in denunciation of trusts and now in my own state, their foremost party leaders, heliuding the man before whem the others bow with bared head and frembling knee, have been discovered in a trust which really is of infamous and perhaps of criminal character; a trust in which these apostics of democracy, these prophets of the new dispensation, have sought to wring fortunes from the dire need of their poorer brethren.

Under McKinley's Lend.

he has a record replete with brilliant achievements (applause), a record that sheaks at once both his performances and his highest eulogy. It comprehends both peace and war and constitutes the most act, striking illustration possible of triumph and inspiring fidelity and success in the discharge of public duty.

Achievements of Peace.

Four years ago the American people confided to him their highest and most sacred trust. Behold with what results; He found the industries of this country parsived and prostrated, he quickened them with a now life that has brought to the American people a prosperity unprecedented in all lands, towards whose inhabitants we now new and errious nuties. Contrast this with what would be the fate of the islanda under the spoils system so brazenty advacated by our opponents in their last national platform.

a this country of the blassy insurrection-ity oligarchy have faught their footials impes abroad to believe that if the rebeldupes abroad to believe that if the rebeillon is kept alive until next November demorrate success at the bolts here will be followed by the abandonment of the islands—that means their abandonment to savages who would acramble for what we desert, until some powerful divilised intion stepped in to do what we would have shown ourselves until to perform Our success in November means peace in the islands. The success of our political oppoments means an indefinite prolongation of misery and bloodshed.

We of this convention now renominate

(Continued on Third Page.)

500 SQUARE INCHES

BROADWAY MAGAZINE.

laily You should send for a copy of the special features are:

Nearly a hundred bathing and other fluffy and fascinating summer girls.

'A Mermaid's Passion.

'A Bathing Calendar for July.

'That Summer Eldorado.

'Off For Gay Paree.

'The Real Maude Adams with some hitheric unpublished portraits.

'The Awful Fate for a Summer Man,

'A New Fortees of Passion.

'Some Light Summer Fancies.

'A Little Cracked Ice.

'Hot Weather Roasts.

'The Mermaid in Skirts.'

'Ght Fiszes and Things.

'Matinee Heroes on the Seashore.

'Where the Sands do Shine.

'Whise Dolly Dasher at Mauhattan.

Fifty pictures of handsome women of the stage.

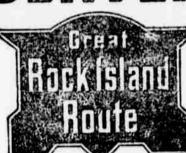

he stage, dozen other sparkling and unusual sale by all newsdealers or sent tpaid on receipt of 10 cents in tips or silver. Broadway Pub. Co. Broadway, New York City.

SPEC'AL OFFER.

When others fall commit SEARLES OMAHA. MERVOUS CERONIO & PRIVATE DISEASES

cture, Piles, Fictula and Rectal Ulcers

Private Diseases and Disorders of Men stricture and Gleet Cured at Home.

Best Dining Car Service

44th Street, Near Broadway. NEW YORK

Absolutely Fire Proof. Modern and Luxurious in All its Appointments. Centrally Lucated COOL AND COMPORTABLE IN SUMMER American and European Plan.

AVON, N. d.

Most Select Report on the New Jorsey Codat,

Send for Particulars. KINGSFORD'S OSWECO

For The Laundry VIENNA HOTEL

1011-13-15 Farnam St. Restaurant, ladies' cafe reading room, newly furnished rooms, both rooms, Exery-thing first-class. American and European plan. Rooms with board. CE. F. BOUFFIER, Prop.

AMESEMENTS.

Bowling aliey in connection

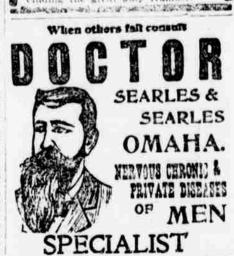

BOYD'S SUMMER ENGAGEMENT REDMOND STOCK CO.

Sunday Night, June 24.

LYLLIAN ATWOOD, In

"SAPHO

Broadway Mogazine.

Onsultation Free. Call on or address DR, SEARLES & SEARLES. 119 South 14th St. OWAHA

BUFFET LIBRARY CARS

HOTEL GERARD

(Under New Management.) J. B. HAMBLEN'S SONS, Proprietors. Also Avon Inn and Cottages,

