

MRS. STUMPFMAIER'S CROSS

He Had a Heavy One to Bear Before Her Husband Ever Her.

DEAD MAN MADE HIS HOME UNHAPPY

Allen, Monroe and Jenkins for No Cause, He Was Cruel to His Wife and Harsh to His Children.

Mrs. Stumpfmaier, who was shot Tuesday night by her husband, John Stumpfmaier, who afterwards committed suicide, is still living, though at an early hour this morning she was reported as sinking. The house surgeon at St. Joseph's hospital thought she would hardly live until daylight. She appears to be paralyzed. Although seemingly conscious, she is unable to speak. It is believed that one of the bullets is lodged in her spine.

Stumpfmaier, about 43 years of age, curly, taciturn and eccentric, was a sort of terror in the neighborhood and it was believed that his mind was not altogether sound. Six years ago he became embroiled in a saloon row on South Thirteenth street and stabbed Frank Weston in the abdomen, injuring him so severely that he was confined in the hospital for two months. Since then scarcely a week has passed, the neighbors say, that he has not been involved in trouble of some kind.

But it was in his relations to his family that Stumpfmaier was the most marked. He was insanely jealous of his wife, and that altogether without reason. There is a tradition among the neighbors, vouched for by his children, that sixteen years ago he indirectly caused the death of his youngest child, then a babe in arms. He struck the mother, who was holding the infant, knocking her down, and the babe was so seriously injured by the fall that it died in ten days.

When a reporter for The Bee went out to the house yesterday he found little Fritz kneeling on the front porch, his elbows on the low window ledge, his face supported by his hands. He was looking out of the house that had been his home. Several neighbor women were standing about discussing the tragedy. Inside, just under the window where little Fritz knelt, the bare boards of the floor were stained with a great pool of blood, now thick and almost black, marking the spot where the inordinate and suicide had fallen. On the rear porch was another dark maculation. Here the blood was smeared about over a considerable space, indicating that the woman had struggled, as if in an attempt to regain her feet.

Little Fritz's pathetic story. Little Fritz, with childish simplicity and directness told the story of his unhappy home life.

"My father would never eat at home," he said, "though my mother used to try to get him to. He never took more than a cup of coffee for breakfast and he would always bring that out on the porch to drink it. He would never let me take his coffee to his family. At night he slept in a room by himself.

"My mother washed for a living. He would never give her any money to buy clothes for us, but he used to pay the grocery bills. One evening about three weeks ago my mother was washing on the back porch and Mr. Wilde, a neighbor, passed along and spoke to her. She said, 'Good evening, Mr. Wilde.' That made my father mad and he swore he would kill Mr. Wilde. So he bought a gun and that night he went out to shoot himself with the gun, but a young man grabbed his arm just in time and the bullet went into the air. It was this gun that he used last night."

Corroborated by Neighbors. The neighbors say that Mrs. Stumpfmaier was virtually a friendless woman.

He never would have a thing to do with any of us," said one of them, "and every time his wife spoke to a person—man or woman—who had trouble with him. Three years ago both of them had some kind of a mysterious disease. The woman was so bad off that the children dress herself, so Mrs. Beckett used to call to nurse her. One day Stumpfmaier, who was confined to his bed in another room, saw Mrs. Beckett helping to dress his wife and at once flew into a rage, telling her to get out of his house. He saw her in the house again. They were sick for several months, but he wouldn't have a doctor and no one to this day knows what was the matter with them.

All the children never had any holidays or presents like other children. Last Christmas Mrs. Stumpfmaier tried to get up a little tree for them, but when he came home he kicked the tree out, assaulted his wife, tore down the window curtains, carrying the curtains and tree into the yard and made a bonfire of them. The children ran to the neighbors to escape him, as they were afraid for their lives."

Relative Are Notified. A telegram was sent to Mrs. Stumpfmaier's brother, Henry Yost, of Pekin, Ill., Tuesday night, notifying him of his sister's impending death, but today an answer was received saying in effect that he would not be able to come to Omaha.

The children are being taken care of by the neighbors. Fritz, the youngest, is with Mrs. William Wilde, Eleventh and Kavan streets, and John, aged 12, is at the home of Mrs. Mary Harm, 1209 Albers street. Mary, who is 14, is now at her mother's bedside at St. Joseph's hospital.

The body of the dead man is in the undertaking rooms of Coroner Swanon. No arrangements will be made in the matter of holding an inquest until it is known whether Mrs. Stumpfmaier can survive her wound.

AHEAD OF SCHEDULE TIME Cooler Weather Prevails Throughout the State, but It Was Hot Tuesday.

The lower temperature for Omaha arrived a few hours ahead of schedule time Wednesday, but was none the less welcome on that account.

Tuesday the weather went after some Nebraska records and set a pace which other June days will have to get warm to beat. At O'Neill the mercury registered 104 degrees during the warmest part of the day; at Fairbury it was 101 at Oakdale and North Platte 100, which was also the record at other points of observation in the west. At Grand Junction, Colo. the thermometer read 102, as it did also at El Paso, Tex. Yesterday morning at 7 o'clock the observation showed 75 degrees, the highest point reached at that hour during the year. Just after the observation the mercury started down and went to 76 degrees. At that point it rallied, reaching 78 degrees at 9:30.

At the office of the Weather bureau it is believed that the high temperatures are past for some time and that there will be a gradual decrease in the temperature until an area of high barometer, which is now pushing in from the west, is dissipated.

WAS PLEASED WITH JAMAICA

Darley Pollard Says the Island is Full of Interesting Features.

ICE COMPANY ON THE CARPET

Board of Equalization Trying to Fix Its Just Valuation—South Omaha's Turn Today.

The Board of Equalization held a prolonged session with the Revenue Ice Company Wednesday afternoon in an effort to fix a just and proper amount for its assessment. Several members believed that inasmuch as a combine had been formed the assessment should be the total of the valuations of the component companies. President Talbot, on the other hand, maintained that only parts of the different properties were being utilized. A motion to fix the assessment at $10,000 was laid over until this morning in order that the commissioners may inform themselves more fully as to the ice business.

The board also postponed the fixing of the levy for the Fourth ward, South Omaha, at the request of property owners concerned. It is expected that the board will meet today with other complaints. It is the last day of the session and the board will probably be engaged until midnight in straightening out the irregularities.

A material gain has been secured for the county's revenue by the increase in the assessments of large retailers and jobbers. So far these increases have affected forty firms and amount to a total addition to valuations of about $200,000.

Parties conversant with the embarrassment of the Continental clothing store express confidence that arrangements will be easily effected whereby it will soon reopen under the old management. Mr. Gamble is in receipt of telegrams from some of the principal creditors and all of them express an inclination to lend every encouragement to the continuance of the business. The bulk of the indebtedness is to New York creditors. A complete inventory of the stock and effects of the store is being taken and a full statement of the indebtedness. These will be submitted to a meeting of the creditors in New York next Saturday evening and at that time a decision will be reached as to whether the business will be continued as at present or sold out. It is believed that will be the case, the creditors are anxious to have Mr. Gamble continue, he is in position to effect satisfactory arrangements. If no such settlement should be effected an assignee will be elected July 6 and the business will continue under his management. No statement of the aggregate liabilities has yet been made public.

Rate Makers Still Busy. The rate makers of the Western Trunk Line committee met in Chicago last week and considered a number of propositions relative to rates. One of the most important resolutions adopted was that, effective July 1, fourth class rates will be applied upon agricultural implements returned to the manufacturers for repairs. Hereafter rates on shipments of this kind have been one-half the tariff schedule and the new rates will operate at a decided increase in favor of the railroads.

Shipments of agricultural implements destined to the manufacturers for repair are still given an advantage of a lower rate than that applied to the original shipment from manufacturer to retailer. Rates effective in such cases are second and third class.

Changes on the Wabash. ST. LOUIS, June 27.—Vice President and General Manager J. Ramsey, Jr., of the Wabash railway has announced the appointment of E. B. Prior as assistant to the vice president, with headquarters in St. Louis. Mr. Prior has been in the service of the Wabash since 1886.

Railway Notes and Personal. H. J. Miller, superintendent of the North-western at Home, is a visitor in the city. Erastus Young, general auditor of the Union Pacific, left Wednesday evening for St. Louis.

A. W. Sullivan of Chicago, general superintendent of the Illinois Central, is in the city.

General Agent J. A. Kahn of the North-western has gone to Chicago for a short business trip.

R. M. Johnson of Carroll, traveling agent of the Union Pacific, has been transacting business in the city.

General Agent C. A. Rutherford of the Union Pacific, traveling agent at Omaha, has gone to Chicago to confer with General Passenger Agent Sebastian.

Assistant General Passenger Agent J. O. Phillips of the Missouri Pacific has returned from a business trip over the line. He was accompanied by Superintendent M. H. Babington, who spent the day in the city.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul line will not on a fast daylight train between Omaha and Chicago, but will next Monday. The new train will leave Omaha at 7:30 p. m. and make the run to Chicago in just the time arriving there early in the evening.

Superintendent R. W. Baxter of the Union Pacific left Monday afternoon on his private car for a trip of inspection over the Omaha & Republican Valley line. Before returning Mr. Baxter will make a tour over the Nebraska lines of the Union Pacific.

General Manager E. Dickinson, Superintendent of Transportation E. Buckingham, Superintendent of Freight Cars and Mr. Anthony J. H. McCall and Superintendent of Telegraphs H. K. Kelly of the Union Pacific, are in the city.

W. H. Conroy of Denver, traveling passenger agent of the Denver & Rio Grande, is now looking after passenger business in Omaha. He is reported to be something of a collector of curiosities. He has had 10,000 people were in Colorado Springs last week, having taken advantage of the low fares and the excursion rates given by the various railroads.

Save your coupons and help some girl take a trip.

LADIES CAN WEAR SHOES One size smaller after using Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. It makes tight shoes easy to wear. Gives instant relief to corns and bunions. It's the greatest comfort discoverer of the age. Call for presenters, distributors, terms, catalog and sure spots. Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes. Save your coupons and help some girl take a trip.

Local Kennelmen Want Him to Go to Kansas as a Way of Making Omaha. Advice to the effect that Richard Croker, the Tammany chief, is to come around this way on his way to the Kansas City convention to pay a visit to Bryan have led the democrats to the discussion of a project to have him stopped at Omaha en route and made the central figure of a demonstration in honor of the Tammany tiger.

SAM A. HUTCHINSON RESIGNS

Leaves Union Pacific After Sixteen Years of Continuous Service.

HUTCHINSON SAYS GOOD BYE

Army Officers Confident That His Regiment Will Be Sent to China.

Captain Grote Hutchison, for several years past on detached service at army headquarters in this city, more recently as adjutant general of the Department of the Missouri, left Wednesday afternoon for San Francisco to join his regiment, the Sixth cavalry, and proceed with it to the Orient. A large number of the captain's friends, including the officers at army headquarters, collected at the city station and bade the captain a hearty goodbye. Mrs. Hutchison will take her departure shortly for her home at Brooklyn.

Major F. H. Hathaway, while waiting at the depot for Captain Hutchison's arrival, said: "I think there is no doubt that the captain will see active service in China. The Sixth cavalry has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila. The commanding officer of the Sixth cavalry, General Crozier, is a grand old soldier and Captain Hutchison has been instructed to proceed to Nagasaki, Japan, for orders and it is hardly likely it would be sent there were it the intention to send it to Manila