Like the best of everything Winslow Taffeta has had numerous imitations, unscrupulous merchants have applied that name to inferior silks, believing that the people could not tell and that they would profit thereby. But as Abraham Lincoln once said, you could not fool all the people all the time and so it is in this instance these dealers were found out and had to desist from this nefarious practice. Winslow Taffeta, the genuine, always the best, never any substitution. Can be had only of Hayden Bros. in the city of Omaha.
