THOMPSON, BELDEN & Co. THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS HOUSE IN OMAHA.

The following statement before leaving for Kansas City this afternoon: "I am not a candidate. I do not think the convention will play favorites. I am in favor of nominating an eastern man and I believe one will be nominated. It would be discourteous of me to say I would not accept the nomination if it is offered to me. I do not think my name will go before the convention."

MUST DECLARE FOR SILVER

Senator Teller insists that mere reaffirmation of Chicago Platform of 1896 Will Not Do.

KANSAS CITY, July 2.—Senator Teller of Colorado was among today's arrivals. He comes to attend the silver republican convention and will probably preside over its proceedings. Asked if he thought the democratic convention should make a specific declaration for the coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, he replied:

"Most emphatically I reply that such a declaration should be made. The demand for a simple reaffirmation of the Chicago platform without other reference to the financial question comes from the gold democrats who did not support Bryan in 1896, and it is somewhat doubtful whether some who insist upon the purchase of this course will support him in 1900. Many of the states west of the Alleghenies there are thousands of voters who will support Bryan and the democratic party on account of their position on the financial question. These people will support Bryan and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and they will regard a simple reaffirmation of the Chicago platform as an attempt to minimize the silver question as presented in the Chicago platform. They will not believe that such an omission is insisted upon by the gold standard democrats for any other purpose than to make it appear that the contention for free silver coinage at 16 to 1 has been abandoned by the democratic party. Such is undoubtedly the purpose of the gold advocates. If the democratic party is in favor of free coinage at the historic ratio, which cannot be questioned, its representatives in the national convention ought to reflect that and so declare. If it fails to do that the people will believe that it no longer adheres to the principles enunciated in 1896 on that subject or else that it is too cowardly to declare its true principles. No principal party in this country ever gained any advantage by failing to make emphatic declaration upon any important question of policy. Surely there is no question before the people which has created more discussion or interest than the money question, and the democratic party ought not to speak upon it in any uncertain tone. I believe that failure to make a definite declaration will mean utter defeat in the coming election. I admit that there are other important questions that must be considered, but none of them

NAILS A WORLD-HERALD FAKE

Senator Platt Denies the Story Alleging a Quarrel Between Himself and Senator Hanna.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., July 2.—(Special.)—Rush O. Feltow, editor of the Plattsmouth Post, has the following letter from Senator Platt of New York, which will be published in the World-Herald through the republican national convention:

NEW YORK, June 27.—To Rush O. Feltow, Plattsmouth, Neb.: My Dear Sir—I am in receipt of your letter of June 25th, transmitting a page of the Omaha World-Herald containing an article in which the allegation is made that I entertain enmity toward Mr. Hanna and am disposed to manifest it in such a way as to cause the loss of republican votes in the state of New York. This article, I take it, was written by one of my most virulent enemies and it is hardly worth while for me to give it any consideration. The writer has been engaged for a long time in consistent misrepresentations and by constantly reiterating them he hopes to make people believe his statements. He is a Tammany officeholder and could hardly be expected to deal leniently with republican leaders or principles. There are no differences whatever between Mr. Hanna and myself. Yours truly, T. C. PLATT.

Cox Resigns from Committee.

CLEVELAND, O., July 2.—Chairman Hanna today received the letter written by George B. Cox of Cincinnati containing the latter's resignation as a member of the national republican committee. Mr. Hanna stated that he did not know as yet whether he had authority to receive Mr. Cox's resignation, but he had no doubt it would be accepted. Further than this Chairman Hanna declined to discuss the matter. It seems quite probable that General Charles F. Dick will be chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Cox. General Dick was here in conference with Senator Hanna today. Dick said he would prefer not to discuss the probability of his appointment to fill the vacancy on the national committee.

Vote early and often.

Rapid Transit Case Verdict. The new accused of conspiracy in publishing reports calculated to depress the stock of the Rapid Transit company was concluded this afternoon. Verdicts of guilty were returned against Goslin, Parker and Davis. Robert was found "not guilty." In accordance with the instructions of the court.

RACE FOR VICE PRESIDENCY

Situation Materially Changed by Shively's Refusal to Run.

TOWNE AND SULZER COVET EMPTY HONOR

Ex-Senator Hill is Still Considered a Possibility Despite His Retired Statement that He Does Not Care for the Place.

KANSAS CITY, July 2.—The vice presidential situation has not cleared up during the day and tonight it is apparently in as much doubt as it was when the delegates to the national democratic convention were elected.

There was a shifting of the scene today when Benjamin F. Shively of Indiana was taken out of the race by his own emphatic statement to the Indiana delegation. Not only the Indiana men, but other delegates in the city accepted the statement of Mr. Shively and he is not now considered a probability in the race.

As the contest stands after Shively's retirement, the leading candidates seem to be Charles A. Towne and William Sulzer, with some men from New York, like Judge Van Wyck or Elliott Danforth, as a possibility. The fact is that the vice presidential situation is interwoven with the platform. If there is a simple reaffirmation of the Chicago platform some New York man may be selected, in the hope that it might carry that state. If there is a specific declaration for 16 to 1 then Towne may be made Bryan's running mate.

It is pointed out as quite conceivable that a convention which would refuse to make a specific declaration for 16 to 1 with a view of carrying some of the eastern states would nominate Towne, who left the republican party solely on the ground of his attachment to silver. It is conceded by all the democratic leaders that Towne's strength is in the west and on a silver platform, and that he would not be strong in the east on a modified platform. While it is not a certainty that Towne would be nominated even if there was a specific 16 to 1 declaration, it is generally believed that his chances would be greatly improved by such action, and his friends are making every effort to bring about that result.

New York is still an uncertain quantity. It is still asserted that the Empire state is no candidate, although there is more genuine activity in the Sulzer canvass than any other that is being made. Mr. Sulzer, while a New York man, is not the candidate of New York and is making his canvass outside of that state. The Ohio delegation under favorable conditions, such as concessions in the platform, would unite on some other man whom it would perfectly understand, but it would undoubtedly be brought about by a movement from outside the state. Whether the convention would be held in New York or Van Wyck is uncertain because of the personality of Hill. There is not a great deal of talk about the ex-senator in connection with the vice presidential nomination and it is generally believed that he might be rushed upon the convention. It is felt that it is well understood that his selection would not be satisfactory to Mr. Bryan, less satisfactory perhaps than the other New York men mentioned.

Hill Does Not Want Honor.

Mr. Hill himself insists that he is not to be considered and says it in a way to indicate that he has doubts about his selection if he did want it.

There may be some man like Sewall, the presentation of whose name was a surprise and whose nomination was not even surmised.

Ex-Senator Hill returned from Lincoln today and it may be said that his return did not cause as great a sensation as did his departure.

Mr. Bryan and myself agreed that nothing should be said regarding the conference between us," said Senator Hill.

This mysterious air did not serve to what the political appetite very much. Of course it was not expected that Mr. Hill would talk of the conference, but he was decidedly non-committal. When asked a direct question as to his fight against a 16 to 1 plank he said the convention would not meet for two days. It might not act on the platform for three days, therefore there was no reason to discuss the question as to what it is to contain. Mr. Hill talked with many men, and quite a long time with some of them, but to no one did he outline his intended position or give any intimation as to the position Mr. Bryan had taken during the coming convention. To some visitors Mr. Hill said his conference with Mr. Bryan was very satisfactory, but in what particular he did not disclose. When the matter of his connection with the vice presidency was mentioned he dismissed it in a manner indicating that there was not the least possibility of his being selected.

NEBRASKA FOR SACRED RATIO

Delegate Thompson Says Reaffirmation of Chicago Platform Will Not Do.

KANSAS CITY, July 2.—The majority of the members of the Nebraska delegation arrived today on early trains and the balance of the delegation is expected by afternoon. They came prepared to do nothing if necessary, for the insertion in the platform of a plank declaring in the most specific terms for 16 to 1.

W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, a delegate-at-large and a close friend of Mr. Bryan, said:

"We have held no meeting of the delegation as yet and I cannot say what their individual opinions may be, but I rather think," he added with a smile, "that there is not much doubt of what they think. Speaking for myself, I do not see what a mere reaffirmation of a plank in a former platform can do. People are not going to hunt up a copy of the Chicago platform to see what it is. If the convention is going to declare for 16 to 1 there is only one way to do it and that is by the insertion of a plank in the platform which shall say what it means. A reaffirmation may be good enough in its way, but its way is not a very good way.

Concerning the vice presidency Mr. Thompson said that the Nebraska delegation was somewhat at sea and denied positively that it had received any intimation from Mr. Bryan of his personal choice of a candidate.
