LONDON, July 9.-2:45 a. m.-The for eign consuls at Shanghai met on July 7 and officially announced that the legations at Pekin were safe on July 4. The foregoing statement, read with Consul Warren's dispatch to the Foreign office on Saturday. makes it possible to believe that the legations will hold out for a number of days yet. Having fought to a standstill the first outbursts of fanatical fury, it is believed that something may intervene to save them. The news, after the sinster rumors of the last ten days, is enough upon which to build up hopes. The Shanghai correspondent of the Express, telegraphing on Sunday at 5 10 p. m., however, throws doubt upon

Consul Warren's information. He says: "Tao Tai Sheng now admits that there was an error in his communication to General Watten. The date of the courier's arrival at Chinen Fu was July 3, which does not apply to his departure from Pekin. The journey from Pekin to Chinen Fu occupies five days. The courier, therefore, could not have left Pekin later than June 28. "The date of the massacre, according to Chinese reports, was June 20 or July 1." Tien Tsin is still hard pressed. A Chinese force numbering from 80,000 to 100,000 men, as estimated by conclusive reconnaissances, floods the country. Communication between Tien Tein and Taku is apparently possible by river only. A Che Foo dispatch to the Express says the Russians have landed 8,000 men at Taku and the Japanese have discharged Nankin. several transports. The Japanese pushed on to Tien Tsin, leading in the subsequent assault upon the native city, in which their commander was killed. More transports are engaged at Japanese ports. With the couraged. They also report that a Chinese 10,000 British India troops affoat and fresh Japanese contingents it is quite probable that the allies will have 50,000 men ashore

Disorders Increase in Violence. The disorders in the provinces appear to be increasing in violence. A Chinese army is within forty miles of New Chwang and the foreigners are preparing to abandon their homes. The southern part of the province is swept by raiders, destroying all works of the white man, except in spots garrisoned by Russians. Proclamations have been posted in all villanes near Che Foo, calling upon the loyal Chinese to rise and expel the foreigners for introducing among the plous Chinese an immoral religion. Every good Buddhist is expected to kneel three times daily, knock his head on the floor thrice and pray earnestly that sudden, cruel death may overtake all allens.

The foreign settlement at Che Foo is at the mercy of two Chinese fortifications equipped with Krupp guns, which command two sides of the city. Six warships, including the United States gunboat Nash ville, are constantly cleared for action.

The provisional government at Pekin appears to have designs upon the southern row will say: provinces. Life Jostles Death in Pekin.

The courier mentioned in Consul Warren's dispatch gives a strange picture, says the Daily Mail's Shanghai correspondent, o how life jostles death in Pekin. Business apparently goes on as usual. General Kwan Shal, governor of Shan Tung, a correspondent of the Daily Mail avers, predicts that by July 11 the Boxers will disband and negotiations will begin to peace. Nevertheless circumstantial rumors of dark days to come are in circulation.

The correspondents at Shanghai, who are still the clearing house of all Chinese news, say the combined forces of Russians and Japanese have left Tien Tsin, following the railway as Long Fang and have thence in the killing or wounding of seventy of swept swiftly to the west, attacking the Chinese eighteen miles north of Tien Tsin and killing 1,000 of them.

Ready for the Movement.

Now that the powers are satisfied for Japan to supply the major portion of the troops which are to be sent to Pekin for the relief of the foreigners the expectation is that the onward movement of Japanese soldiers to China will soon begin, if, indeed, it already has not done so. Mr Nabeshima, the Japanese charge d'affaires here, thinks that this is probably the case, as his dispatch from the imperial government, received here several days ago, announced that the movement would begin immediately. A full corps is to be dispatched, which will bring Japan's army footing in China up to about 22,000 men. The part of the army to be sent is known as the Fifth army corps and thirty-five o be used in the transportation.

ENGLISH VIEW OF CAMPAIGN

Bryan Not Attacked and McKinley Not Defended by the London Papers.

ST. LOUIS, July 8 -A special cablegram from London to the Globe-Democrat says: The nomination of Bryan on a platform conspicuous for unfriendliness to England passes unnoticed here. Political demonstrations in favor of the Dutch republics have never been regarded seriously here, since it has been assumed that foreign sympathy it has been assumed that foreign sympathy would not be carried to the length of sending an army of 100,000 men across the Atlantic under convoy of a navy powerful enough to destroy a British fleet.

Bryan is not attacked by the English press, nor is McKinley defended. The American elections do not interest English readers this year and there is little talk about ers this year and there is little talk about them. Whatever politicians may choose to say in platforms, all intelligent Englishmen know that there is no alliance be-tween the two governments and that Amer-icans are in the habit of electing their presidents on domestic rather than foreign French Catholic Bishop Favier Tells Fearful Tale of Outrages by Boxers and Compares Them with Those Thirty Years Ago.

WASHINGTON, July 8 .- The last China mail to reach the State department brought the report of Minister Conger, perhaps the last that will ever come to hand. This bears date of Pekin, May 21. It is of the utmest importance, disclosing as it does a full comprehension on the part of the foreign minlisters in Pekin of the character and extent of the Boxer uprising even though Mr. Con-Graw and Elkins are both great organizers ger himself, by disposition entimistic, found and every close county will be hotly cen- some reason to hope that the worst was over at that date. What Mr. Conger has to the house of delegates, so that the result say as to the attitude of the Chinese govon the state ticket and also the presiden- ernment toward the Boxer movement, as retial electoral vote of the state will depend vealed in the formal interchange that took place between himself and the tsung II vamen, is not only of peculiar interest now, but probably will have a strong bearing of a mixed result. It is claimed that if the the final reckening that must be had berepublicans should elect their state tick-t tween the civilized nations and the Chinese. by a larger plurarlity than ever before they Mr. Conger makes it very clear, through the publication of the French priest's letter. that at least one and probably all of the All the other candidates for governor bave European nations having interests in been withdrawn, so that there is no oppo- northern China were acquainted with the sition to Hon. Letter from Conger.

Legation of the United States of Amerca, Pekin, China, May 21, 1900 .- To the Honorable John Hay, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C .- Sir: I have the honor to confirm, on the overleaf, my cipher telegram of today.

In response to the request of the French ninister the dean called a meeting of the diplomatic corps yesterday and upon information furnished in a letter from the Catho. lie bishop in Pekin and verbal reports by the other ministers, the situation was considered so grave that the corps unanimously instructed the dean to present it to the tsung li yamen and demand immediate and effective measures, which he did today by the note, copy of which is enclosed. I also enclose copies of the bishop's lettes and one from Rev. Mr. Killie, an American missionary who lives in Pekin, but travels circuit to the north and east. On the 18th instant, during an extended personal interview with the Taung II yamen, called their attention to the fact that otwithstanding constant warnings from this and other legations the Boxers had continually increased and spread until now they are boldly organized inside the wall of Pekin, he existence of thousands is known in the villages around Pekin. Christian converts are being persecuted and threatened everywhere, many forced to recant their religious professions and some have been compelled o abandon their chapels and come to Pekin for eafety.

I said: At a London mission near Chou Thow, forty miles west of Pekin, two native Christians had been killed and their chapel destroyed. Near Pasting Fu. a Catholic village has been destroyed and sixty-one Christians murdered, some of them being burned alive. The foreign governments cannot sit bily by and witness this persecution and murder. I can only speak for my own government, but it is becoming very impatient over China's continued treaty violations. It always has been and still is the good friend of China and only wishes 16 prosperity, but is now more than ever determined to sustain the treaty rights of all American citizens and of the Christian converts and it will hald the Chinese government to the strictest responsibility for every treaty infraction in this regard. It will do this, not only for the benefit of its citizens, but in the interest of China herself, whose government is now sadly threatened by these lawless organizations. At present, is true, they see min have no capable leader, but should one arise and the populace become really inflamed, the overthrow of the present dynasty is most likely to fole low and possibly the destruction of the eme

Reply of the Chinese.

They replied that I did not understand the many difficulties under which they labored, but they had succeeded in suppressing the Boxers in the province of Shag Tung and would do so here.

I told them I saw no effective measures whatever being put forth. They replied that the movement had not heretofore been looked upon as serious, but now the government was fully aware of the gravity of the situation and that a recent confidential decree had been sent to the vicercy of Pekin and neighboring officials, which would surely prove effective, suppress the Boxers and restore order.

I told them that the most alarming telegrams were being sent to the newspapers of Europe and America of the existing state of anarchy here and that the people of the world would be forced to believe that the government of China was either abetting these murderous brigands or that it was too, weak to suppress or control them, and ita good name and credit must suffer irretrievas, bly in consequence. After reading the docree, which was much like those heretofora published, they asked me if I would not wire my government that they could and were suppressing the Boxers.

I replied that at present I would not? that I had been for six months telegraphing the issuance of ineffective decrees, but if they would show me the fact by actual and immediate repression, which they could it they would in three days, I would gladly and quickly wire it to my government.

They assured me that sufficient troops had been sent to the disturbed districts to restore order and afford protection,

I again told them that restored order would be the only possible proof. I also said that unless the situation was relieved and the threatening danger from mobile averted I should be compelled to ask at once a sufficient guard of American make rines to insure the safety of the legation. They said: "Don't do that. It is une necessary." And again promising energetic

Unless some energetic action is taken the situation will become fraught with great danger to foreigners, not from any intellagent or organized acts, but from ignorant inflamed mob violence. I, however he
