situation becomes more serious and threatening. In the prefecture of Paoting Fu than 2,000 Christians are fleeing, More than 2,000 Christians are fleeing, without bread, without clothing, without shelter. At Pekh alone about 409 refugees, smen, women and children, are already lodged at our house and that of the sisters; before eight days we will probably have many thousands.

We will have to dismiss the schools and the colleges; also use all the hospitals to make room for these unfortunate people.

Upon the east of us pillage and incendiarism are imminent; we are hourly receiving the most alarming news. Pekin is surrounded on all sides by the Boxers, who are daily coming nearer the capital, delayed only by the destruction they are making of Christians.

Believe me, I pray you, Mr. Minister, that Believe me, I pray you, Mr. Minister, that am well informed and saying nothing I am well informed and saying nothing lightly.

lieve, as I said in my telegrams, that the government is aroused, itself alarmed at the situation, and will take more energetic action, but no one can be certain of this the churches and French within the lega-tions.

For us here at the Paitning the day is practically ended. All the city knows it; everyhold is speaking of it and a copular duthreak is manifest.

Yesterday evening forty-three poor women and their children flying from the massacre arrived at the house of the sisters. More than 500 persons accompanied them, saying to them that if they had escaped this once they would soon die with the others.

Mr. Minister, I do not speak to you of Mr. Minister, I do not speak to you of placards without number which are posted in the city against Europeans in general. Each day new once appear more expidit than the others. Those who, thirty years ago, were present at the Tien I sin massacre are struck with the resemblance of the situation then to that of today, the same placards, the same threats, the same blindness. Then, also, as today, the missionaries wrote and supplicated, foreseeing the horrible awakening.

Under these circumstances, Mr. Minister, I believe it my duty to ask you to kindly send us at least forty or fifty matines to protect our persons and our property. This has been done under circumstances much less critical, and I hope you will take into consideration our humble prayer.

Please accept, Mr. Minister, the assurance of the respect and the profound gratitude with which I have the honor to be, your excellency's very humble and obedient servant.

Letter of Missionary Killie.

Pekin.
The diplomatic body, relying upon imperial decrees already published which have ordered the dissolution of the Boxers, demand:
First-The arrest of all persons practicing the drills of that association, provoking disturbances upon public highways, posting, printing or distributing placards which may contain threats against foreigners.

Second-The arrest of owners or guardians of temples or other places where the Boxers assemble and the treatment of these accomplies and criminal abettors as Boxers, themselves.

Third The chartisement of the public at.

crs themselves.

Third—The chastisement of the public of ficials who may render the selves culpable by neglecting to suppress any disorder with which they are charged, or who may connive with the rioters.

Fourth—The execution of the authors of outrages (murders, incendiarism, etc.) against persons or property.

Fifth—The execution of persons who are supporting and directing the Boxers in the present disturbances.

Sixth—The publication in Pekin, in Chile and the other northern provinces of proclamations bringing these measures to the knowledge of the people.

I am, besides, charged by the diplomatic corps to inform Y. H. and Y. E. that it expects a satisfactory reply to this demand without unnecessary delay.

I improve the opportunity to reiterate to T. H. and Y. E. the assurance of my high-evangelist. These places are all in the neighborhood of Ling Shang, our headquarters.

Also at Pao Tf Tsien, the county seat, 199 il to the southeast of this place, where we have had a native evangelist at work for over a year. At this place great numbers of men (said to be as many as two or three hundred) practice openly every day.

It is only recently that open threats of violence have been made against the native Christians, but they are now almost of daily occurrence. For example, at TAo Chung Tsi, eight if from this place, where every evening the people from several villages meet to practice the I Ho C Huan manouvers, on the 12th instant, Mr. Wang T ling Hsiang, one of the owners of the ground where the practicing is done, for bade one of our evangelists, who is a native of that place, to come where they were practicing, saying to him, among other threatening things, that they were prepared to destroy the foreigners at Lin Shang and their followers, the native Christians.

Furthermore, yesterday, May 14, when two of our native preachers went to the San Ho Yamen with a letter from me to that official, they were recognized as Christian evangelists and followed by the people to the yamen and repeatedly threatened with death. There were many calls for knives to kill them with. The official was absent from the city, so they did not see him. They actually suffered no physical violence, but that was doubtless only because of their own patience and forbearance.

Accused of Poisoning Wells.

All about us men were actively stirring up feeling against us, saying that we are obsoning the wells and many villages have diready purchased native medicines to put nto the wells to counteract the effect of at having no crops, and consequently easily misled by the designing men who are so actively propagating this society.

The I Ho C Huan is spreading like wild-fire over all this district. Where two months ago it was practically unknown, to-day there are scores of active rociciles, which are rapidly becoming aggressive ones, and unless your excellency can secure the immediate and vigorous action of the Chinese government in suppressing it and in punishing a few ringleaders, it is certain (humanely speaking) that it is only a question of a very short time until there will be a violent uprising in all of this district. I believe that it is not yet too late to suppress it if taken hold of in earnest by the Chinese officials, but, in my judgment (and I have passed through several such experiences in my ten or more years in China), there is not a day to spare.

Praying your excellency's kind offices on our behalf, I am your obedient servant, CHARLES A. KILLIE.

the Swng Gathered. "I fancy," said a handsome woman of 50 r more to a New York Sun man, "that there is as much truth as poetry in what has been said and is being said about the power of woman's beauty. Of course, it is supposed that only poets know anything about the matter, but I can bear testimony the supposed poison.

The recent rains which you have had in Pekin have not reached this part of the country and hence, as no farming can be done, the people are idle and distressed at having no crops, and consequently easily time, which was some sign of the truth of my statement, for I was neither very rich nor very bright. Just an ordinary, real pretty girl, that was all. But the power was there, though I was not conscious of its strength until after my experience.

"I lived in a southern city of 25,000 people and one night I attended a dance a half dozen blocks from my home and did not get back until 1 o'clock in the morning, my escort being the gentleman who is now my husband. He proposed to me that night and when I came into the house I fancy I must have been prettier than I ever was before, for I never was so happy. The house was still, for the only people in it except two old servants away back in he ell, were my father and mother, who had gone to bed hours before. I sipped upstairs to my room as quietly as a mouse and turning up the gas I was confronted by a burglar, who pointed a pistol at me and told me not to make any noise or he would kill me. I didn't faint, because I was so happy that it inspired me, I suppose, and I stood still looking at him. He looked at me, too, dressed in my best gown and shining with a lot of jewels, for our family had some fine diamonds and other things of ornament that had descended to me, and like most southern girls I liked to wear them, even when it was not in good taste. "'I wouldn't hurt as pretty a girl as you are for the world,' he said, with a bow, but I've got to have the shiners, so just take them off and hand them over, while I pick up what I can find lying around loose." With trembling fingers I took off my handsome jewels while he gathered up all he could find on my dressing case and put them in his pocket, keeping the pistol sointed at me. He was not a bad looking can and as I put out my hand to him with he jewelry in it I smiled at him, as frightned as I was, and asked him if he wouldn't go right away. But he did not take the jewelry and he did not go away. He simply stared at me in undisguised admiration and took out of his pocket the trinkets he had gathered from the dressing case. "If you will excuse me, miss, for impertisence,' he said, 'I'll say to you that you are the prettiest girl I ever saw in my life, and I always did admire pretty girls. I hate to rob you like this and if you will let me kiss you, just on your cheek where it is linkest, I'll leave everything else and take only the remembrance of that as a reward or this night's job

"This time I did almost faint, but I tried o be strong and succeeded so well that I kept my wits. It was something dreadful to be kirsed by a burglar, but he was so respectful and really did admire me, and besides I was saving several thousand dolars worth of jewels, so I didn't say a word but just turned my cheek toward him. He took off his cap, bent forward, touched me on the cheek with his lips and stood back with his pistol in his hand.

" 'Now if I may trouble you to go to the ront door with me,' he said, 'so that if anybody should see me coming out it will not cause any remarks. I will relieve you of my presence which I assure you would never have occurred had I known as much as I know now.

"I thought I never could do it, but I did and I stood in the door till he disappeared around the corner; then I collapsed utterly and the night watchman found me there fit teen or twenty minutes afterward an roused the house. By the time I kneenough to tell anything the burgiar was far, far away. The story got into the pa pers, of course, and in a week or two I re ceived a note of regret from my burglar postmarked Cincinnati, which was the only lue we ever had of him. But the kissin part of the story, was not printed. I kep that to myself and the first person to whou

SAINTS PULL DOWN DES MOINES.

Ragged Game Won Only After the Last Man is Put Out.

ST. JOSEPH. Mo., July 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Fully 2,000 people witnessed a ragged game between the Saints and Des Moines team today, but they went home happy because the locals won. It was any-body's game until the ninth inning and neither side had any advantage over the other. Both pitchers pitched good ball, but the support given them was poor. Gibbon, the young twirler from Richmond, distinguished himself by striking out seven men. He was replaced by Maupin in the eighth because Manager McKibben wanted to make sure of the game. Nagle played a fast fielding game, but made a rank error at a critical time, allowing two men to score. Schral also made a sensational running catch and dropped an easy fly a moment later. Out of four times at bat Seisler, who played first instead of Cole, made three clean bits, one of which was a three-bagger. Score: Ragged Game Won Only After the

With Disease a Man Hardly Knows Which Way to Turn-Drugs Do Not Cure-They Stimulate-Dr. Bennett's Electric Belt Equips You With a Wenpon to Fight Disease That You Can Trust-The Cure is Guaranteed.

I worked so long and assiduously to perfect my Electric Beit and so well do I know its wonderful virtues that I unhesitatingly guarantee a cure in every case where I recommend the treatment of my Belt. It has assounded physicians and scientist—who now endorse it. My Belt is recommended by mure than 19,000 cured patients. It is Nature's remedy. Drugs will not cure you—they simply stimulate. Under its potent fame the eyes become clear, the skin clean, the muscles hard, the step becomes elastic and the bowels regular. The digestion will become normal, the appetite will increase, and headache, flushing and nervous disorders disappear. New rich, red blood will course through your veins, which will mantle the cheeks and lips and give them the rosy glow of health. The dark circles around the eyes will fade away and Earned runs: Originals, 7, Three-base hits: Scully, Dencen, Two-base hit: Foley, Bases on bails: Off Miller 5; off Lawler, 1, Struck out: By Miller, 4; by Scully, 4; by Lawler, 3, Time: 2:00, Umpire: La Fontelle.
