LOW RATE TICKETS THE CAUSE OF THE RUSH

Extra Equipment is Provided on All Trains for North and West and Ticket Sellers Are Confronted by Lines of Purchasers.

"Whew!"

This expression was the only indication of surprise given by TenEyck H. Fonda, ticket agent at the Burlington depot, yesterday, when he throw up his window and glanced down a row of faces whose owners extended in a line almost circling the big depot.

'That looks to me as though Omaha people were enjoying their full share of prosperity and have plenty of money," said Mr. Fonds after the first rush had been "It seems as though everydisposed of. body and his brother is going away for a summer vacation this year. The sale of low rate excursion tickets is the cause of the big rush for tickets today."

Both of the big Tenth street depots, as well as all of the up-town offices, have presented scenes of unusual animation since Saturday morning and the ticket sellers have been kept on a move far exceeding injustice. their ordinary activity. The occasion has been the sale of summer excursion tickets to all Colorado and Minnesota resorts, which began Saturday morning and will continue throughout today. Extra equipment has been provided on all trains leaving Omaha for the north and west in prder to accommodate the big crowds. So great has been the demand for passage to Colorado points on the Rock Island that a special train left Chicago yesterday evening
