The general opinion is that if Hausen had had any grievance and was bound to fight the manlier way would have been to use his fist. Hausen was landed in the police station, however, without further incident, was a defeat. Whitridge and Yerkes both He was afterwards released on bond. easily. How the Game Went.

When the last Sioux City man had bee retired in today's game little Jimmie To man and good-natured, long-legged Lauzo went down on their knees and thanke heaven that a game had been won at last The men from Omaha played with muc snap and ginger and put up a brillian selding game. Their batting was timely cannot be said of Sious stick work. McDonaid pitched in his usus hard luck, twirling a good game. New meyer was steady. With Captain O'Con nell back in the field the Omaha's seem t be putting up a swifter game already

OMAHAS ARE COMING HOME TONIGHT

Badiy Used Up but in No Wise Discouraged by Their Hard Luck.

Pana Bill Bourke and the Omaha team will reach town this evening with a hospital list as long as the batting list. Their return will close the most disastrous trip made by an Omaha team since the days of 1890, when Frank Leonard took the wonderful Tommy Kearns team out on the road, and they lost every game they went into. But the boys are not discouraged They have had a wonderfully hard run of luck and have lost every game they have played but one, with today's still to hear from. Even at this they are in no worse position as far as the pennant is concerned than was Denver when the Omaha team

For dinner to the evening use meat and one or two vegetables. Leave out the fancy desserts. Never over-eat. Better a little

TRIES TO KILL BILL WILSON went there two weeks ago, and now the Denvertees think they have it cinched. Well, in one series with Denver on the Omaha, grounds we can win it back. President Keith returned last night from Shoux City where he spent a couple of dark with the boys. He saw the cowardly assault made by Hausen on Catcher Wilson and denvances it in the most picturesque of angreage.
