Mrs. Eleanor Soper Budd of Buffalo, N. Y., has written to the clerk of the district court, inquiring if Cornelius Soper had left an estate in this city for which no heirs had been found. She writes that Soper left Rochester, N. Y., about 183 for the west and is supposed to have died in Council Bluffs about sixteen years ago, leaving considerable property. Mrs. Budd says she understands that Soper was interested in a bank in this city at the time of his death. She does not state what relation to Soper she is. The records at the court house fair to show that any person of the name of Soper left an estate for which no heirs have been found. No Soper was ever connected with any bank in this city.

Mayor Jennings yesterday received from Covernor Shaw a copy of the appeal which dented rate." he has issued to the people of this state calling for assistance to aid the starving millions in India. The appeal is as follows:

To the People of Iowa: An Appeal—The suffering because of the famine in India, so far from abating, seems to be intensified, and relief is perhaps yet more urgently demanded than ever before. While large amounts of money and goods have been sent to the stricken land, yet vastly morally pears to be needed to succor the people until crops in their own land shall afford them sustenance. Countless theusands are in all probability doomed, even with the most bountiful aid the philanthropy of the world can render. The appeal is as follows:

The people of Iowa have never been slow to respond to appeals for help from other lands. I am impressed that the state of affairs in India presents a condition more deplorable than any which has ever enlisted the sympathy of our fellow citizens. The generous people of Iowa need only, i am persuaded, to have the desperate condition of India brought plainly to their attention to Induce them to contribute liberally of their abundance.

ble at times. I also have a pain just to the right of breast bone. It is so severe at times that I cannot lie on my right side. Please write me what you think of my case."-MRS. CLARAGATES, Johns P.O., Miss., April 25, 1898.

" DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as advised and now send you a letter for publication. For several years I was in such wretched health that life was almost a burden. I could hardly walk across the floor, was so feeble. Several of our best physicians attended me, but failed to belp. I concluded to write to you for advice. In a few days I received such a kind, motherly letter. I followed your instructions and am my told self again. Was greatly benefited before I had used one bottle. May God bless you for what you are doing for suffering women." -- Mas. CLARA GATES. Johns P. O., Miss. Oct. 6, 1899.
