COLLEGE SET, HOWEVER, STILL BEARING UP

Students Remember Old Acquaintance in Spite of Semesters Spent Far Away-Country Club Offers a Haven.

The time seems to have come when even longer. For a month past fashionable people | enue. have been going one by one, but last week eaw a general scattering of the fashionable set to all parts of the country. The Minnesota lakes seem to be especially popular this year with those people who are partial to the quiet of cottage life during the warm months and the great lakes have attracted an unusually large number of tourists. An alarming number of bachelors have gone and are still going to the far northwest. while the representation in Europe this summer exceeds that of any previous year.

Of course those who have just returned from college will be content to remain at home for a while, and several picnics and | vard. tallyho rides during the last week were occasions of joyous reunion for those who have been separated during the last school year. In fact, these young people seem to be the only ones that have had any inclination to entertain or be entertained of late.

The Country club furnishes excellent place and occasion for society people to see each other, and the Saturday night hop is quite as formal as anything it seems to care to

Smith-Cady.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, in the parlors of the Young Women's Christian association, the marriage of Mr. Frank Smith of Cleveland, O., and Miss Dora Cady was solemnized in the presence of about 150 friends. The wedding and reception which followed were tendered by the board of directors of the association and on every side the work of willing hands was in evidence. Asparagus, white carnations, sweet peas and paims were used in profusion, transforming the parlors into a perfect bower of green and white. As the bridal party entered the dining room to Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Frances Ford, Misses Mary Harford, Carry Graff, Julia Weinlander and Margaret Thomas advanced with the ribbon | for the summer which formed the two aisles. Mr. Smith and Mr. George I. Babcock entered the day in Omaba. parlor by the main door and the bride, beautifully gowned in white opera batiste. and walking with Mrs. Babcock, entered through the second parlor. Under an umbrella of asparagus and white carnations, in the first parlor, Rev. E. H. Jenks read the service of the Episcopal church.

Between the hours of 8:30 and 11 nearly 1.000 people were received, Mrs. W. P. Harford, president of the association, and Mrs. George Tilden, vice president, presenting them to the bridal party. In the dining room, behind a screen of palms, the orchestra played during the evening. Here the decorations were of sweet peas and palms and Mesdames Peters, DuBord, Dumont and Misses Alexander and Harford assisted. At 11 o'clock, amid a shower of rice, Mr. and Mrs. Smith departed. At the door the bride turned and tossed her bouquet of swansonia into the midst of the 150 young women who had lingered for a goodby to their secretary. It was caught by Miss Eva Beach. Mr. and Mrs. | weeks' visit to Denver. Smith received many handsome and valuable gifts, among which were a complete set of silver, from the Board of Directors of the Young Women's Christian association, and a silver teaset from the secretaries of the Young Men's Christian association

Miss Cady has been general secretary of the association for the last five years. Mr. Smith is now financial secretary of the Cleveland association. After a six weeks' trip along the lakes Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after September 1 in Cleveland.

Misses Carrie Mercer, Allen, Elizabeth Allen and Mies Peck, who is Miss Cotton's guest this week, were the young women of the party and having known her while attending La Salle seminary the reunion was a most enjoyable one.

Miss Ella Cotton gave a tally-ho party Friday evening, chaperoned by her mother, Mrs. Herman Kountze. The party left Forest Hill about 6 o'clock and drove to Pries' lake, where supper was served. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Misses Allen, Elizabeth Allen, Helen Peck, Carrie Mercer and Messrs, Isaac, Harold and Walter Dillingham, Prouty, Atkinson and Ben Cotton of Norfolk and Mrs. Pierce of Council Bluffs were among the out-of-town

Outing of Winter Club.

The second summer outing of the Winter club was given on Thursday evening at Lake Manawa. The maple grove designed for private parties was reserved for the occasion and the dancing floor, newly completed, was informally dedicated. Lanterns were hung throughout the grove, giving a striking and artistic effect. Over the dancing pavilion were strung hundreds of electric bulbs. The dancing program was preceded by a delightful luncheon served on the lawn by the young women of the party. Special cars conveyed the picnickers across the river and thence to Manawa in charge of officials of the company. Those who preferred the lake to the dancing floor spent part of the evening on the water in sail Charles Barton have returned from a westand rowboats. The club will give its August outing on Thursday, the 5th.
