A long and somewhat heated debate took place over a motion introduced by Alfred Fawkner, which provided that all persons present be declared regular delegates to the onvention and that the rules of mass convention govern the proceedings. A Webster county delegate opposed this, saying that there were a number of democrats and republicans present. He was asked to point them out by the chairman and after looking over the delegates and spectators he was able to point out two men of objectionable political faith. There were loud calls for

BECKHAM GETS NOMINATION

First Ballot Settles the Question.

Beckham was nominated by the democratic state convention for governor of Kentucky by acclamation at 3:05 o'clock this morning After the names of Judge Black of Bar boursville and Judge Tarvin of Newport were placed in nomination a roll call of the convention was begun. When McLean county was reached, at 3 a, m., Beckham had the 547 votes necessary to nominate. Then Black's and Tarvin's names were withdrawn and the latter moved that the nomination of Beckham be made unanimous. The moion carried and Beckham was escorted to the platform, where he made his speech of

CHICAGO, July 20 .- John' G. Woolley prohibition candidate for the presidency o the United States, was formally potified of his nomination at a meeting held tonight in Central Music hall. The hall was crowded with members of the party and the speeches of Samuel Dickie of Albion, Mich., who acted as chairman of the national convention which placed Mr. Woolley in nomination, and of Mr. Woolley were received with great enthusiasm. Oliver M. Stuart, chairman of the executive committee for the state of Illinois, presided and made a short address in opening the meeting. He then brought forward Mr. Dickie, who spoke in part as follows:

The duty assigned me tonight is a purely formal one and yet one which I am able to discharge with the utmost heartiness. We are here to give official notice to the presidential nomince of the prohibition party that he has been chosen to lead what, to many, is sure to seem a forlorn hope.

The speaker dwelt at some length upon the humanitarian aspect of the nations of the earth rushing to prevent the outrages in China and declared the woes and havoc created by rum far exceeded those of the "yellow terror beyond the Pacific." The speaker then declared that the nominee of the prohibition party was doing what the nominee of no other party dared do and that was to throw down the gauntlet of defiance to the liquor power. The nominee of the prohibitionists stood, he said, for all that the church represented and yet it was not at all sure that the churches would stand by him in the fight against the rum power. He concluded as follows:

Our candidate represents in his person and opinions all those interests that are or ought to be dear to every American who loves his home, his country and his God, and in behalf, not of the candidate, but of in behalf, not of the candidate, but of At Queenstown-Arrived-Campania, from cause he champions, we have a right to New York, for Liverpool and proceeded.

We, the populist party of Nebraska, in convention assembled at Grand Island this 29th day of July, 1990, heartily affirm the Omaha and Cincinnati platforms and enthusiastically endorse the candidacy of Wharton Barker for president and Ignatius Donnelly for vice president.

In renewing our allegiance to the Omaha platform, and the real reason for the creation of the people's party therein expressed, to-wit, the hopelessness of real reform through either of the two old parties, which through equality of corruption have both become absolutely inoperative for the public good through the desertion, of principles to outside help for greed of office, our party has been temporarily cut in twain, but we, populists of Nebraska, here and now yow our unfaitering opposition to any further fusion with either the democratic or republican party.

We arraign Goebelized democracy as the democratic Mark Hanna and denounce its wholesale disfranchisement of white and black citizens of the south as government, without consent and a direful menace to our free institutions and tending wholly to imperialistic despotism.

We demand an irredeemable dollar good for all debts, public and private, issued direct to the people by the government, but until such legislation is secured we are in favor of the free and unlimited coimage of both gold and silver at the existing ratio of is to I.

We piedge our candidates if elected to vertical in the converted in th follows:

1 accept this nomination, not as the leader of a forlorn hope, but as a color-bearer in the next and greatest forward movement of humanity. For it seems well in line of the most studious moderation to believe that organized conscience as represented by the church and organized greed as represented by the fluor traffic are forming rapidly in American politics for the greatest pRobed battle of the ages, and in that fight he is the chtef of dullards who cannot pick the wigner.

Our success depends upon the advancement of no candidate. If it were so we might well feel discouraged at the prospect. Our issue is our real nominee, and if but $50,000 Christian men be with it we will elect it on the 5th of next November.

But two errors confront us all the way, that which says, "Public sentiment is not ready; this thing cannot be done," and that which says, "It is right; we shall win quickly."

If public sentiment is not ready we must If public sentiment is not ready we must get it ready, and that cannot be done by surrendering to the enemy. But the supposition wrongs the people. But if they but can have their attention drawn and held to the religious argument, as opposed to party expediency. They have been dragged about in the "bad lands" of politics until they are discouraged and perverted in judgment, so that they do not reason of righteousness at all. We do not need to create sentiment, but to collect it, and that cannot be done quickly. Our fight is not against the people, or even against the saloon primarily, but we fight to set up an ideal, and victory in such a matter neither halts nor hurrles.

I say, on the ground of both good morals and good selfboth gold and silver at the existing ratio of 16 to 1.

We piedge our candidates if elected to use all existing lawful means to introduce the initiative and referendum for the conduct of state affairs and to provide such necessary legislation as may be lacking for its enforcement, but until such legislation is secured we are in favor of enacting the following: Election of president, vice president and United States senators and federal judges by the direct vote of the peoperal judges by

Over these propositions the contest is proceeding and there is yet no indication of the outcome. Until the division is disposed of nothing can be forecasted respecting candidates. The populists are willing to take governor and either secretary of state, auditor or both, the latter with the right to reject any nomination for governor unacceptable to them. This would give them control of the state boards.

Harrison Defeated Opposition.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 20.—At the annual reunion of the Seventieth Indiana regiment at Bethany park today, some opposition was shown when the executive council recommended that ex-President Harrison be re-elected president of the association. It was stated he had not attended a reunion of the regiment for years and for that reason seemed to have lost interest in its affairs. The matter was freely discussed by the members and a vote was taken which resulted in General Harrison's election. Those opposing him favored Colonel Samuel Merrill of California, who was present and declined the honor in favor of General Harrison. Harrison Defeated Opposition.

By the revolution of 1776 we set up the ideal of liberty; by the revolution of 1789 we set up the ideal of social confederacy; by the revolution of 1851 we set up the ideal of national unity. Not one of these ideals is yet realized in perfect fact, but they are coming on. Stenographer Testifies Regarding the Shooting of Governor Goebel.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., July 20 .- Miss Annie Weist of Louisville, who was stenographer to Auditor Sweeney, and was in the auditor's office in the executive building when the Goebel assassination occurred, was the firs witness called in the Powers trial today. She heard three shots in the direction of the office of the secretary of state. Witness said that immediately after the shooting several strangers came into the room, but they occurred. Witness said Henry Youtzey came into her office the day of the Van Meter-Berry contest and told her she had better leave the state house, as trouble was likely. Witness said that a few minutes after the shootng Assistant Secretary of State Matthews San Francisco within an hour or two after stationed two men with guns at the door of . the building, with orders to allow no one to ofther enter or leave the building.

Miss Snuffer of Williamsburg testified that Powers told her January 14 that before he would be robbed of his position he would kill the last of them, at the same time exhibiting a pistol. Robert Noaks testified that John and Caleb Powers and Charles Finley conferred with him in November after the election relative to bringing armed men to Frankford at the time of the meeting of the state ejection commission board. They told him they wanted him to bring as many men as he could to intimidate the election commissioners. Noaks told of being asked by Caleb Powers to get a company of militia composed of men who would fight and to get smokeless powder cartridges. He secured a company and it was mustered in.

Asked if Powers ever spoke to him about Goebel, Noaks said yes. Powers said the contests would amount to nothing and that when Goebel was dead no man in the state could hold the party together. Noakes further testified that after they reached Frankfort Caleb Powers came to
