go to Omaha girls, the highest on the list to be allowed first choice. Three other trips not down in the books go to young women from the northern part of the state, and as many from the district south of the Platte. Two trips will be divided in western Iowa and one in Council Bluffs in particular. The announcement that The Bee had been vastly better than its word was received with a further showing of enthusiasm, particularly by those who had not been able to qualify. The routes of the additional trips follow the regular list given below.

In the outcome among the Omaha participants there was only one surprise—the effective rally of Miss Estelle Van Horn of the Nebraska Clothing company. Miss Van Horn rose from the comparative obscurity of tenth place to the top notch with the sufficient margin to spare of over 2,600. The first in the race has managed her own campaign and has relied largely upon her long residence in the city and consequent broad acquaintance to bring her voters. She has been cashier in the Nebraska store for nearly ten years.

In her campaign work Miss Van Horn disregarded to a large extent the single coupons, although these, too, were gladly received. Her attention was directed especially toward securing subscriptions in advance, as she realized that one year's enrollment bringing 750 votes was enough to overbalance much more extended pains in gathering together the paper slips. Miss Van Horn's employers allowed her considerable time to look out for her interests, which she appears to have been fully competent to do.

The other Omaha women who finished in the first half dozen had apparently exhausted to a large extent their reserve force before reaching the climax. Miss Miller, in the employ of A. Peterson, the florist, made an almost equally notable spurt at the close and gave the leader no room to spare. Barely 1,000 behind her came Miss Stillwell, whose name had appeared for several days in blue ink type.

Miss Parrish, who has held the leadership during most of the closing fortnight, found her strength largely exhausted on the final day and was unable to finish with the first six. With three other stragglers, however, her merit and hard work were recognized in the additional trips.

The sensational features of the closing hour were grouped about the towns of northern Nebraska, where an abandonment of communistic loyalty showed itself. A campaign had been organized by the different candidates which had its ramifications in every part of the state. It was no individual contest among young women, but a civil strife in which the honor of town and county was bound up. The townspeople threw themselves into the struggle with a spirit which counted no cost.

"A Gentle Wind of Western Birth" Tells no sweeter story to humanity than the announcement that the health-giver and health-bringer, Hood's Sarsaparilla, tells of the birth of an era of good health. It is the one reliable specific for the cure of all blood, stomach and liver troubles.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

felt with natural pride that their young woman was entitled to the outing. Their complaint attitude, however, was rudely disturbed, for a rival had come into the field with a view to the defeat of Miss Clara Mohl, assistant postmistress at West Point, was presented to the public by Postmaster Krauss and Frederick Sounesen, the latter being the uncle of the candidate and well known in the politics of that portion of the state. Miss Mohl threatened to take the honors, as her position gave her a wide acquaintance throughout the surrounding country and her friends were loyal and active.

Then a campaign was organized by both sides which had no parallel in any contest ever conducted in the state. The leaders on the Chase side were President J. M. Pile of the Nebraska Normal and Sam Davies of Wayne. Hundreds of letters were sent to former students throughout the state, appealing to their loyalty for their alma mater. Seventy half-yearly subscriptions were taken by the undergraduates alone, and Omaha Bees cover floor and table in every room of the institution. Business men who had passed the three-score mark hatched to their teams and canvassed subscriptions through the county. Devotions were sent to York, Beemer, Pierce and neighboring towns and the inhabitants were converted to the Chase cause.

During the last week the news came that the West Pointers were causing serious defection in Burdett and a town meeting was called to meet the emergency. A purse of respectable proportions was raised and paid emissaries were appointed to swing the doubtful county back into line. The tidings from the front that West Point and Fremont had formed an alliance acted as a further spur and the contest was the theme of thought and conversation in the town. It was only with such co-operation that it was possible to roll up 312,813 votes for Miss Chase.

Miss Chase is 25 years old and was educated at Deane college, later taking a course at the Nebraska Normal. She then secured a position as teacher at York and was later appointed a teacher at the Nebraska Normal college. Miss Chase is the support of a widowed mother, who will accompany her on her trip.

Although West Point was unable to cope with the student enthusiasm of its sister town the earnest labor performed in Miss Mohl's behalf will not go without its full reward. Miss Mohl will be included in the additional trips arranged by The Bee and in recognition of the special efforts exerted for her all her traveling expenses will be met and a traveling companion provided as in the case of those finishing in the first rank. Even this recompense, however, does not fully console the West Pointers in that which every inhabitant of the town appears to assume as a personal matter. One West Pointer arrived in Omaha late in the afternoon, his satchel bulging with 100,000 coupons and his pockets bulging with cards neatly embellished with the photograph of the town's heroine. It was not the simple winning of a ticket and hotel expenses that he coveted, he said, but the victory for his own sake, as his fellow townsmen were waiting to duly celebrate when his assurance of victory arrived. Miss Mohl is twenty years old and has never taken a vacation since she secured employment several years ago. She lives with her mother and sister in West Point.

In southern Nebraska there was a town divided against itself which still had sufficient votes to win trophies for both its representatives. Miss Ollie Holmes and Miss Annie Hopkins were both able to pass the 50,000 mark, although they were obliged to draw their support from the same community. Under the enlarged offer, also, Miss Kate Schmink of Nebraska City comes in for a benefit. Miss Hopkins is employed in the department store of A. H. Gilmore and has been given ample time by her employers for solicitation. In her own buggy Miss Hopkins covered all the territory around the town and took yearly, quarterly or monthly subscriptions to The Bee.

In eastern Iowa and Council Bluffs few changes of note marked the final hour, most of the candidates having taken the place they would maintain to the end. Miss Mabel Baker of Glenwood saved herself from defeat by a spurt on the last day of over 14,000. Miss Pauline Pettibone of Fort Dodge, her nearest rival, falling behind by over 5,000 votes. In Council Bluffs Misses Adams and Stevenson changed places, the former ending with the high score by a spurt of nearly 15,000. Miss Lucille Van Brunt, having secured third score, is entitled in addition to the extra trip to the gold brooch offered by Mr. Wollman and Miss Adelle Beecroft came in as a sole consolation for the wedding ring offered by Jeweler Huberman.

Successful Ones Have Choice of Mountain, Field or Stream. The six trips named in order below are for the young women resident in Omaha. The one with the highest number of votes has the first choice, the second the next having next choice and so through the half dozen:

From Omaha via the Union Pacific, the Overland route, to Salt Lake City. This trip through the heart of Nebraska is an education in itself, teaching the resources of Nebraska and giving a view of the most thriving towns of our state. The altitude gradually increases until at Cheyenne one is 6,950 feet above the ocean, soon plunging into the Rocky mountains, through the grand scenery of all the continent. This includes ten days at Hotel Knutsford at Salt Lake City, the reputation of which extends in either direction across the continent as one of the finest hostleries in the country.

When one goes to Salt Lake the Knutsford is the place at which everybody stops. Salt Lake always has more than 100,000 people on account of the great Salt Lake. Salt Lake is within easy reach of Saltair beach, famous for its splendid bathing facilities and handsome pavilion. The return trip will be to Denver, with three days at the Brown Palace hotel, with the pride of Denver. It is well named, for it is a veritable palace. A day's excursion around the famous Georgetown loop and then return home via the Union Pacific.

From Omaha to St. Louis over the Omaha & St. Louis railroad and the Wabash, with three days at the Southern hotel, with its broad corridors and its ideal service. There is something about the Southern hotel which makes it unlike anything in the land, whether it is the fact that it combines the luxury of the modern hotel with the homelike atmosphere and the courtesy of the old southern hostelry, or whether it is because no stone is left unturned to make the guest comfortable, it is hard to say. From St. Louis to Toledo, with a day to rest from the long journey at the Hotel Toledo, Toledo's leading hotel. It is so conveniently located that it is easy to get a glimpse of Toledo, as well as enjoying the splendid hotel service of the Boddy house. From Toledo it is a three-hour ride over the waters of Lake Erie to Put-in-Bay on one of the Detroit and Cleveland coast line steamers, which so completely combine safety, comfort and speed and which afford comfort and luxury to those who have the opportunity to enjoy a lake trip. Two weeks at Hotel Victoria at Put-in-Bay will give a thorough enjoyment of the pure lake air and the luxuries of probably the finest hotel on the lakes. The Hotel Victoria has an enviable reputation, which has been well earned.

From Omaha to Chicago and return over the Milwaukee road, the only electric-lighted train between the two cities, through the fertile farming districts of Iowa and Illinois. At Chicago there will be a two-day stay at the Grand Pacific hotel, with an opportunity to see something of Chicago, with headquarters at this most conveniently located hostelry. From Chicago the Lake Shore & New York Central run the swiftest trains to New York. Ten days spent in New York City at Hotel Gerard will give an opportunity to see the great metropolis and everything of interest. The Hotel Gerard is located on Forty-fourth street, just off of Broadway, and is a most convenient as well as a most delightful place to stay. While New York itself is not a summer resort, it has some other attractions, which some young woman will enjoy, because of no opportunity at a better season and it is within a stone's throw almost of a few days' excursion to the seashore and other summer resorts.

From Omaha to Estes Park, Colo. over the Burlington brings one to what is not a "fashionable resort," but one of the best places for real sports and ideal summer vacation in the west. Riding, driving, fishing, bicycling, mountain climbing or a book in a shady corner of the hotel veranda, reaching the mountains will be a tonic for any one. The snow-capped peaks on every side, numberless little streams and the green valleys are surroundings which are truly inspiring. On Willow creek, near the entrance and commanding a fine view of the park, is Estes Park hotel. Its table is always adequate to supply the appetite, stimulated by the mountain atmosphere, and everything is thoroughly comfortable and commodious. The return trip will be via Denver, with three days at the Brown Palace Hotel. The trip is always interesting to the sightseer and the Brown Palace affords a most excellent headquarters in every way. Without a trip to Georgetown and Silver Plume, through Clear Creek canon, no visit to Colorado would be complete. It will occupy a day before the return to Omaha by the Burlington route.

This trip will be on the newest road from Omaha to Chicago. The Illinois Central combines the newest road with the most up-to-date, lightest and quickest of the new road entering Chicago at a lake front station. A day's stop in Chicago at the famous Grand Pacific hotel, and then to the northward over the Pere-Marquette railroad toward the prettiest spot in all the state of Michigan, the beautiful, the beautiful. The Belvidere hotel has been chosen for a two weeks' breath of lake air. It is not only beautifully situated on a point of land between Round and Pine lakes, but it is a homelike hotel that affords every comfort. There is everything one may wish for in the way of amusement—sailing, rowing, bicycling, tennis, bathing, bowling, golfing and fishing, together with numerous excursions on the many little launches and steamers on Pine and Round lakes or out on Lake Michigan, with all the pleasures of the world to delight the eye and enjoy the pure air, which acts as a tonic to shattered nerves. The return trip will be by water on the steamship Manitou to Chicago, and home again over the Illinois Central. (Class A.)

From Omaha to Chicago and return over the Northern Pacific, the most pleasant one in these days of railroad luxury. A double track span between Omaha and Chicago makes it a safe as well as a pleasant journey. A day's stop at the Grand Pacific hotel, and then to the northward over the Northern Pacific, the most pleasant one in these days of railroad luxury. A double track span between Omaha and Chicago makes it a safe as well as a pleasant journey. A day's stop at the Grand Pacific hotel, and then to the northward over the Northern Pacific, the most pleasant one in these days of railroad luxury.

With its richly wooded shores, added to its beautiful scenery, cottages and cottages. It would be a pleasure to think of the "shade" would be in the store, office or factory. Two weeks at the Oakwood, which is the best hotel at Green Lake, is certainly a delightful prospect. No pleasure could be found to spend the summer in any other place. Pleasant paths and drives, wonderful caves, cascades, canyons, flowers and waterfalls go to make up the beauties which nature has abundantly furnished. (Class A.)

The three trips named below are for the young women of southern and northern Nebraska and eastern Iowa, the highest to take first choice: From Omaha to Kansas City over the Missouri Pacific, with three days at the biggest and best hotel in the city—the Coates house. The Coates house is eminently the leading hotel of Kansas City, and the traveler naturally says "the Coates house" in the same breath with "Kansas City." From Kansas City to Warrensburg, Mo., is but a comparatively short distance. Warrensburg is in Pettie Springs, and the Hotel Minnewawa, where everything is as delightfully refreshing as the name. It is decidedly restful here, but still there is plenty to do if one has the inclination—fishing, boating, driving, and other enjoyable pleasures never allow time to hang heavy. Two weeks there will convince the fortunate young lady that the time is altogether too short. (Class B.)

This trip will be over the Great Rock Island route to Denver, Wahash, and Manitou. There is only one Rock Island route and everybody praises its splendid equipment and reliable service. A night's journey and then one is in Denver, with three days at the Brown Palace hotel, through the Clear Creek canon, to Georgetown, around the famous loop and then back again to Denver before evening. From Denver to Manitou, over the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, with three days at the Brown Palace hotel, through the Clear Creek canon, to Georgetown, with another view of the grand scenery of the Rockies and within easy reach of the wonders of the Garden of the Gods and all that is famous in Colorado. A day will be spent in climbing Pike's peak on that wonderful afternoon, the most beautiful view of the "Cockehead route." From Manitou over the Denver & Rio Grande, through the famous Royal gorge, with its 3,000 feet of towering rock, into the Grand canon, and at last reaching Glenwood Springs and Manitou, Colorado, for ten days' pleasure here, including bath privileges at the finest hotel in America. No more beautiful situation for a hotel will be found than this romantic spot, with its pure mountain air and magnificent scenery.

South Omaha News. There is discussion in the ranks of the local democracy and it looks now as if the "get together" problem would remain unworked for some time to come. An attempt was made Friday night to amalgamate the Johnson and the Lincoln clubs, but the fell foul because of the local differences existing between the members of the two organizations. On one side there is the Bryan and Stevenson club with Dr. W. J. McCrann as president and on the other the Bryan club presided over by Dr. W. S. Edgar. Some of the long-headed democrats decided that it would be a good idea to have Edgar Howard deliver an address here Friday night in an attempt to get the members of the fighting factions together. The scheme failed, however, as the faction headed by Dr. McCrann refused to attend the Howard address, and the long-headed democrats decided that it would be a good idea to have Edgar Howard deliver an address here Friday night in an attempt to get the members of the fighting factions together.
