ernment can be found in the republican party. In 1896 I took upon myzelf abundant abuse from Kentucky democrats, and I did it because I believed, with my friend and commander, Henry Watterson, in the right-courses of a refusal to compromise with dishonor on the question of a sound and stable currency. I believed then that he national honor in the stability of its money was involved, and if I believed that in this respect there was any danger now I would as many delegates at the Indiana; was involved, and if I believed that in the respect there was any danger now I would stand this day against the regular demo-eratic organization. No same man believes this danger exists. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without the consent of any other nation, has been relegated to another generation by this nation. It is a past issue. I do not know the individual sentiment of a member of this committee, but as honest men we will at this meeting state frankly our views. I do not today, any more than in 1896, when I stated my determination to sever my connection with this committee, if it saw fit to accept one dollar from a re-publican source, believe that honesty or in-tegrity in the administration of our gov-ernment can be found in the republican party.

My heart goes out to those who struggle or liberty in every nation, and 1 applaud In the demo and approve the expression in the demo-cratic platform, sympathizing with the Boers-a people who may be robbed of free citizenship in order to enable English greed to guiber to its coffers the diamonds and gold of South Africa.
