Mayor Calls for Volunteers to Assist in Keeping Down Lawless Element, Several Hundred Specints Being Sworn In.

NEW ORLEANS, July 26 -- In the rioting of last night and today one negro was beaten to death, six were so badly wounded that their lives are despaired of and about a score of people, white and black, male and female, have been more or less seriously wounded. Disorderly acts following the disturbances of last night were committed throughout the city today and resulted in the swearing in by the mayor of 500 spectal policemen and the ordering out of 1,500 of the state militia upon orders of Governor Herd, who responded promptly to the appeal of Mayor Capdeville for assistance to suppressing the existing lawlessness and in preventing tonight a recurrence of the violence of last night.

Unknown baker, white, shot, Streets Cleared of Negroes. Throughout the day attacks have been ade by irresponsible mobs of whites upon the black element and the pegroes before nightfall had been completely chased from the streets. The effect of the disorder has put a practical stop to business in the wholesale districts and on the river front rallied in force and hundreds of business men responded to the appeal of the mayor for assistance in preserving order.

Colonel Wood, who commanded the First Louisinna regiment in the Spanish war, was placed in command of the special police. The police have been practically helpless throughout the disturbance. The force consists of 300 men, including clerks and operators, and this is manifestly a force inadequate to the preservation of the peace in city of 310,000 population. But aside from this there was fierce indignation among the members of the department over the killing of Captain Day and Patrolman Lamb by Mayor Capdeville was at Ocean Springs city, but when he arrived at his office today he came with full determination to take hold of the situation with a firm hand. He found awaiting him a delegation of the leading merchants of the city, who said the interests of the community and its commercial welfare demanded prompt and vigorous action. About the same time Lieutenant Governor Estopinel, - who had witnessed a scene of outrage upon negroes on Canal street, joined the conference at able troops. Without delay he sent messages to Colonel Hogdon, commanding the of First brigade, and had him immediately order out the Washington artillery, the Louisiana field artillery and the First regiment. By night there were 1,500 men in the armories. The mayor, in a proclamation, appealed for 500 special police. Before 4 p. m. 400 representative citizens had been sworn in. The mayor made requisition on the leading hardware and ammunition establishments of the city, and the specials were heavily armed and distributed over the city. Hoodlums Peamed the Streets.

Hoodiums patrolled the streets throughout the day and whenever they saw a negro can-lassaulted him. In some cases the citizens rallied to the aid of the police and beat off the attackers. One of the most flagrant instances of cowardice shown was that of a man who slipped into the morgae and pointing his pistol through a window made an attempt to shoot one of the female negro prisoners in the parish prison. Just after daylight the remnants of one of the mobs gathered at the Spanish Fort railway station whence a large number of negro laborers leave for the work at Chalmotte. They saw a crowd of darkies approaching and started to chase them. Louis La Puyard got in their way and received a builet in the leg. Later in the forenoon a negro
