SESSION OF STOCKHOLDERS POSTPONED

Absence of Attorney George F Wright from the City Said to Be the Reason for the Present Wait.

The joint meeting announced for yesterday afternoon between the stockholders of he Suburban company and the old motor ompany failed to transpire. Stockholders of the Suburban company, including G. W. Wattles of Omaha and a representative of the National Bank of Commerce of that ity held a meeting in the offices of the are members of the recently organized asted up to midnight.

Mr. Wattles said late last night that the onsolidation had not yet been consummated and that they had been engaged all day with matters pertaining solely to the Suburban line. From Mr. George Townsend, president of the Suburban company, it is learned that a settlement of the trouble. there is a slight hitch in the proceedings, but he expects it will be smoothed over. He says that time of Mr. Wattles' option or the stock of the Suburban company expired yesterday, but will be extended. He readly admitted that Mr. Wattles represents heavy interests in the Omaha Street Railway company, and the old motor company, which will absorb the Suburban company as soon as the transaction is completed. 'We can stay in the new company, but as we will be only the small fish in the pond we shall more likely pull out," he said. The "we" is taken to mean himself, W. S

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS ARE SORE

Not Like the Course of the County Superintendent. Members of the Board of Education are feeling very much annoyed over County Superintendent McManus having withheld from them the notice of the appeal taken by Attorney Chambers until after they held their meeting Tuesday night. They feel that keeping the filing of the appeal secret somewhat false position and they question the right of the county superintendent to enter into such a "conspiracy," as they designate it. Attorney Chambers, who appealed from the selection of the old High school site said yesterday that the choice of the Turley and Folsom properties at the head of Willow avenue would be perfectly satisfactory to him and he believed the board could not do better now than decide to erect the new school building there.

Street Supervisor's Case. Alderman Huber, chairman of the streets and alleys committee, ordered Street Supervisor Harden yesterday morning to lay off all the men in his employ until such time as the council has taken action on the complaints against him. Harden complied with the order so far as the men employed on the street cleaning gang were concerned, but refused to lay off the sidewalk inspector and his men, as there are a number of walks that needed attention. Street Supervisor Harden stated yesterday that there is no foundation for the complaint that he is squandering the city's money. As to the charge that he is employing a large number of his relatives and friends on the city work, he admitted this is true, but claimed that he had a perfect right to do so.
