

BUSINESS MEN GO TO YORK

Commercial Club Excursion a Greater Success Than Was Anticipated.

ABOUT SIX HUNDRED TICKETS TAKEN

Special Train of Eleven Coaches Drawn by Two Engines Necessary to Accommodate

"Omaha is certainly waking up, commercially," remarked one of the foremost and most progressive business men of the city yesterday as he boarded the excursion train for York at the Elkhorn depot.

It was a marvelous outpouring of holiday seekers that prompted the above remarks. Secretary Pitt of the Commercial club, who with the active agents of Ak-Sar-Ben, the musical festival and the Commercial club, organized the excursion upon the invitation of the people of York, who are the city's business men.

It was a marvelous outpouring of holiday seekers that prompted the above remarks. Secretary Pitt of the Commercial club, who with the active agents of Ak-Sar-Ben, the musical festival and the Commercial club, organized the excursion upon the invitation of the people of York, who are the city's business men.

Some of the leading business houses had prepared distinctive showings by sending large delegations of employees, wearing appropriate badges. The official badge of the excursion was a white paper disc bearing the words "York" and "Omaha," with clasped hands between the names.

General Passenger Agent J. R. Buchanan of the Elkhorn accompanied the train and the Elkhorn commercial factors in the party were: Wm. H. Wright, William H. Hart, E. H. Bryson, J. W. Carpenter, J. H. Dumont, H. J. Penfold, J. M. Welch, James P. Holliday, Paul E. Retschmann, J. B. Jobst, William F. Baxter, George Mercer, G. A. Brucker, J. J. Smith, Charles Kuntze, F. J. Robinson, Sheriff Fowler, John W. Hamilton, Harry Williams, George Russell, W. F. Weber, John Drexel, W. S. Jaffar, J. O. Phillips, Charles Elgutter, Fred Padden, J. P. Foster, A. H. Rawitzer, E. J. Chissell, Dr. Lord, Ed Allen, Mel U. G. Holmes, N. A. Kuhn, E. Andrews, Charles A. Tracy, J. H. Daniels, T. W. Day and F. O. Clapp.

In addition to the above commercial contingent were Congressman Dave Mercer and Edgar Howard, his running mate, and several hundred others not so prominent in commercial or professional circles who had nothing to do but enjoy the good mention except their good humor, good clothing and their manifest ambition to do good for Omaha, York and themselves.

On the arrival of the train at the Elkhorn depot, the excursionists were met by a large number of people, who were glad to see them. The excursionists were met by a large number of people, who were glad to see them.

THREE MEN WHO WOULD FIGHT

Episodes in the Career of a Trio of Men Who Were Looking for Trouble.

J. W. Ellis became involved in a quarrel Thursday evening with Neil Fraser, a quarrel which was a tough reputation and a sharp razor, and now carries his head tied up to cover the hole she made.

Barney McManm went into Odlin's hall on lower Farnam street Thursday evening and put the finishing touches on a large jag, after which he touched to clean out the place in a manner not sanctioned by law.

One of his victims was Edith Thompson, who received an unmerciful beating. Chief Donahue and Captain Lier were on the street a block distant and heard the row. They arrested McManm after a hard fight.

Charles Borner, who resides near Sheely station, was brought to the police station Thursday evening under arrest in a shoeless, barefooted, and half-conscious condition.

Charles Borner had trouble with a woman in the morning, but the two were held at Council Bluffs for several hours, the first train waiting until the arrival of the second in order to take on an additional car.

FAITH IN "SURGES" IS GONE

Seeress' Charm Fails to Draw Buried Treasure from the Earth.

WOMEN FLIMFLAMMED BY IMPOSTOR

Gave "Dr." Hill Twenty-Five Dollars for a Bagful of Brimstone That Was Warranted to Make Them Rich.

"Eleven years ago," said Mrs. A. B. Hill, "two men were keeping bachelor quarters at the house at 215 Center street, Omaha. They had with them an enormous sum of money in gold, bills and silver."

The report in the "Hill" one day this week concerning the prosecution of "Dr." Mary Frost, fortune teller, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, has inspired the dupes of Mrs. Hill, with a hope that the police will solve the mystery.

RESTAURANT BADLY BURNED

Fire Damages the Half Its Total Value.

RESTAURANT BADLY BURNED

Fire Damages the Half Its Total Value.

Fire was discovered in the rear of the United States restaurant, at 1510 Dodge street, about 1 o'clock this morning. An hour after the fire had been closed for the night, the flames were seen to be spreading in the few minutes preceding the arrival of the department. They were soon under control. Some fire had been left in the range when the restaurant was closed and in some way this must have communicated to the woodwork, for there was no other fire in the building.

The restaurant building, a small one-story brick, with a frame kitchen, is owned by eastern parties. It was damaged to the extent of $25,000. H. B. Harris and F. D. Harris are the owners of the restaurant. Their fixtures are valued at $2,500 and are insured for $2,200. The kitchen equipment will be for a total loss and enough damage was done to the other fixtures to make the amount reach half the total value.

CRUSHED STONE IN ANY SHAPE

New Industry for Utilization of Quarry Tailings Will Open in West Omaha.

The Omaha Lighthouse Stone company will begin the manufacture of stone in about two weeks at its facility on West Farnam street, near the Belt line, where two brick buildings and extensive sheds have been prepared for its accommodation. Stone will be made from the tailings from quarries, which are crushed, mixed with cement and molded into any shape. The company is capitalized for $38,000 and Thomas A. Fry is president. Among other things, the company will manufacture stone conduits for the accommodation of electric wires. New York is making extensive use of conduits made by the same process. The Omaha company is to use the cement used for Nebraska canals. The rights for this company are controlled by the Omaha canals.

WILL RESTORE KOUNTZE PARK

Board of Commissioners Likely to Adopt Plans of Its Next Meeting.

The Board of Park Commissioners will meet this afternoon, at which time it is likely that plans will be adopted for the restoration of Kountze park. The report in the "Hill" one day this week concerning the restoration of Kountze park, which is located on the east side of the city, near the Belt line, where two brick buildings and extensive sheds have been prepared for its accommodation.

KELLY DEDICATES NEW ORGAN

Presbyterians of Jefferson, Iowa, Formally Open Old Pipe Organ of Greene County.

Thomas J. Kelly formally opened the new organ of the First Presbyterian church at Jefferson, Ia., Wednesday night. The occasion was a notable one, as it was the first time since the organ was dedicated in 1850 that it had been used in a church service. Mr. Kelly was assisted by local talent of decided ability and financially, as well as musically, the concert was a big success. It is a two-manual organ of about 150 pipes and is the one at the First Presbyterian church of Omaha.

THE HEATHEN CHINESE.

OMAHA, July 25.—To the Editor of The Omaha Daily Bee:—The Chinese men who compose the leading commercial and financial centers of the world are the Chinese. They are the most numerous and the most powerful of the world's races. They are the most numerous and the most powerful of the world's races.

Mortality Statistics.

The following births and death were reported during the week ending at noon Thursday:—Deaths—Joseph W. Owens, 275 Webster; girl; Herman Drehsen, 195 Frederick; girl; Death—Mary Peters, aged 55, 254 Marcy.

Attempted Jail Delivery.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—The western penitentiary authorities discovered through accident today an attempt to deliver a prisoner confined in the penitentiary at Alton, Ill., to the outside world. The prisoner, a man named Alexander, was being transported to the penitentiary at Alton, Ill., by a train. The authorities discovered the attempt to deliver the prisoner to the outside world.

Doctrines Makes a Call.

The elder woman agreed, just for a lark, she called on Mrs. Hill, and accordingly she set foot within the darkened parlor when the seeress ran to the velvet futurity on its patent shade rollers clean to the top, and the future opened out before them like a view of the Missouri river.

TIDINGS OF KNIGHTLY DEEDS

Ak-Sar-Ben's Court Proclaims Its Power Through the Illustrated Bee.

PROGRAM SENT BROADCAST THROUGH WEST

Doings of Ak-Sar-Ben's Subjects During Gains Week Will Be Detailed Through the Feudal Realm by Most Modern Method.

In the matter of providing an official program for the fall festivities this year the board of governors of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben has decided upon a radical departure from the custom of former years. It has heretofore been from year to year to get the official program in the form of an illustrated pamphlet, which was sold on the streets on the date of the initial parade and from which the board of governors reaped an annual profit of about $500. Some time ago it was decided that a better plan would be to secure the publication of the program in one of the city papers and bids were invited to that end from the local press.

This number of the Illustrated Bee will be published under the auspices of the board of governors of Ak-Sar-Ben, which will enjoy a proportion of the profits, and 50,000 copies will be printed and circulated. The primary motive of the Ak-Sar-Ben festivities is to attract to Omaha the pleasure seekers of surrounding towns, the advantage of this laying before the outside public eight days in advance an accurate portrayal of what they may expect to derive from a visit to the festivities can be readily comprehended. Thousands of copies of this handsome convenient folder of the Illustrated Bee will be sent out by jobbers, retailers and individuals to customers and friends in neighboring communities, and, as intending visitors to the festivities who receive it will have ample time before visiting Omaha to inspect the contents of the program and commence and then the retailers will readily recognize the advantages it offers over the old pamphlet program as a means of getting their announcements before the public in time and manner to do them the greatest amount of good.

HERE is a matter which touches your complexion. This is really nine-tenths a question of the treatment of the pores of the skin. Some toilet soaps are as nippy and keen as mustard. If you will only use the virtue you call your Judgment, it will tell you that any soap which leaves the hands habitually dry is robbing the skin of its natural oil. Free alkali is the robber's name. Ivory Soap has no free alkali. Try it! It floats.

It is asserted that Nantsof broke into a saloon at Twenty-ninth and L. streets yesterday and stole several bottles of whisky and rum. He was caught by the police and is now in jail.

Howard Meyer, the well known druggist, is back from Colorado, where he spent a short vacation. He is now in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Rhoden of Moline, Ia., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holland, Twenty-fourth and E. streets.

AMUSEMENTS. "My First Pure, Unadorned Comedy" attempted by the Redmond Stock company in their present summer's engagement was presented by Boyd's theater last night with a fine success. The bill for the remainder of the week. The initial performance was a success. The action moved briskly and the play itself bubbled with fun. Mr. Redmond is seen to advantage in the title role. He appears as John Davis, a retired banker from Kokomo, who visits Chicago for the purpose of seeing the sights. He is taken for a dyed-in-the-wool Missourian and is "snowed" to perfection.

The vaudeville features introduced between the acts continue an attractive innovation. Mrs. Dollie Rathburn-Chesley, already an Omaha favorite, again charmed her audience with her singing. Her first number, "L'Arden," showed superior technical ability and her encore, Anderson's "My Roar," was rendered in a manner that delighted her auditors, especially those musically inclined, who could readily appreciate the delicacy with which she sang, showing always in a voice the greatest art.

The Best Remedy for Diarrhoea. Mr. W. M. Cross, a prominent and influential citizen of Coryell county, Texas, says, "I never had such pains in my life as I suffered when diarrhoea attacked me. I have tried many medicines, but none give me such relief as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This is unquestionably the best remedy known for diarrhoea. It always cures and is pleasant to take.

Republican Marching Club. The Young Men's Republican club of South Omaha will meet shortly for the purpose of discussing the advisability of organizing a flambeau club. Out of the large membership it is thought that at least 250 men can be secured who will join a marching club and participate in demonstrations during the campaign. This club is one of the best political organizations in the city and it is decided to organize a marching club, the venture will doubtless be a great success. An announcement of the meeting for this purpose will be made later.

Board of Equalization Meeting. The city council will meet as a board of equalization today and tomorrow for the purpose of hearing complaints on special taxes to be assessed for public improvements recently made. Under the new system a quorum of the council is present at all times from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. All complaints must be filed in writing with the city clerk.

Magic City Gossp. E. A. Ingraham, Twenty-first and M streets, announces the birth of a son. Dr. W. J. McManm is still under the knife, but expects to be out in a few days. Miss Orah Knapp of Wahio, Neb., is visiting Miss Carrie Clark, Twenty-fourth and E. streets.

A rally of republicans will be held at 7 o'clock on Friday evening at 8. Mrs. Frank A. Agnew has returned from Stuart, Ia., where she visited friends and relatives for a month. Anton Najuski has taken up quarters at the city jail in the instance of Oliver Barnes, who charged him with burglary.
