THIRD LOT OF PAVING IS UP

Council Will Have the Bids Before It This Evening.

Fourth Ward People Propose to Make Another Effort to Secure the Material They Want on Their Streets.

The city council will take another whirl at the paving question at its regular monthly session this evening when bids for the paving of the group of streets embraced in the third resolution will be opened. These bids have to be in the hands of City Clerk Phillips by noon today, but up to last night none had been filed. Some keen competition is looked for and lower prices are expected than in the bids for the first contract. Sevwith the local brick men. On his way from Omaha here yesterday afternoon he attempted to pass it off on the motor conductor, but the latter was not suffering from shortsightedness and he at once detected tha it was bad coin and so informed Kinscherff. On reaching Pearl street and Broadway he met the two young lads and showed them the dollar. One volunteered to change it and went in to Vigo Anderson's restaurant for that purpose. The utter worthlessness of the coin was too evident and Anderson refused to change it. Then the other lad tried to pass it at a drug store and was also unsuccessful In the meantime Anderson had telephoned the police and before Kinscherff and the lads had time to try a third place they were under arrest. Kinscherff's home is in Indiana and h says he was on his way to Illinois. The case will be turned over to the federal authorities this morning. Commonwealth 10-cent cigar.

McKee has complained to the authorities that he was entired into poker game at the Omaha saloon, a place that has for years borne an unsavory reputation. He quit $24 loser and insists that he was given "doped" liquor. McKee said the proprietor of the joint tried to compremise by offering him $10, but he refused and theatens to close the place.

The police endeavored to keep the matter quiet, as Chief Albro and Mayor Jennings have all along insisted that there were no poker rooms in operation in the city.

Burned by Gasoline. Thomas O'Hearn, a' cook employed a Baldoff's cafe at Lake Manawa, was ser! ously burned about the right arm yesterday afternoon while lighting a gasoline stove. One of the burners had gone ou and the oil was leaking. While wiping it with a rag, which became saturated with the oil, the rag caught fire from the lighted burner, as did the oil with which O'Hearn's arm was smeared. Before the flames were extinguished the man's arm was burned from his finger tips to above the elbow. A temporary dressing was applied and O'Hearn was at once taken to the city, where a physician's services were procured.
