

PAUL AS AN EXPANSIONIST

Great Preaching Apostle Had Hints of a Modern Condition.

BISHOP GALLOWAY TO THE LEAGUERS

Elloquent Prelate of the Methodist Church South Tells the Conference at Lincoln Some Palpable Truths.

LINCOLN, Aug. 5.—(Special)—Bishop Charles B. Galloway of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, preached a very excellent sermon at the Nebraska Epworth assembly this morning at 10:30. Bishop Galloway's text was Gal. vi. 17: "Therefore let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus Christ." The sermon was an exposition of the life and work of the apostle Paul.

In speaking of St. Paul's missionary journeys the bishop said: "St. Paul had imperialism in his soul, for Christianity is a supposed imperialism in the soul." "I know it is a fact that there are a great many things said at the present time about militarism, but I have only honor and respect for the soldier. There is something in the face of the soldier that has honor in it. I've seen an old soldier who went through the four years of storm and shot and shell of the Civil war, and there was something in his face—I could not help it—but as I looked upon his noble features I stood and wept. There is something in a soldier's form that makes your blood tingle and there was this something in the life of Paul as you read it that brings the same admiration."

"The difference between the politician and the statesman is that the politician is always trimming his sails to every breeze that blows, while the statesman always tries to understand the present and future effects of that which concerns the nation. The church should demand the highest ideals in all things concerning government. The church should be united. Until the church has an imperial purpose within itself its work will be scattering. The church must have life. All life is subject to some master, but life is not a subject for a republic, and I am glad that no man places with a scepter over us except as we place power in his hand. The church should be a power for right. St. Paul grappled with the great issues of his time and molded them for the future good of the world."

Bishop Galloway did not mention either of the political parties in the present campaign, but he did say that there are people who talk about their experience and ideas until what they say becomes metallic, conventional and valueless. About 5,000 people heard the bishop's address.

NOT OF BRYAN DEMOCRACY

Two Oldest Democrats in Madison County Are Out for McKinley.

NORFOLK, Neb., Aug. 5.—(Special)—Mr. White, whose political convictions were recently published in the News, has a rival for the honor of being the oldest democrat in Madison county. The following letter explains the situation: "Dear Sir—I see by an article in your valuable paper that you claim Mr. White to be the oldest democrat in Madison county. I claim that distinction, and think I voted for the democratic president more than any man in the county. I have only missed two since 1836, beginning with Martin Van Buren at that date. In 1864 I voted for Abraham Lincoln and in 1896 I voted for William McKinley and still wear a McKinley badge and shall vote for him this fall. Respectfully, JAMES POWELL.

Mr. Powell writes a very good hand for his age—he must be at least 85 years old—which indicates that he is still in possession of remarkable vitality and vigor.

Here are two of the oldest democrats of the county, representing the Jefferson-Jackson school of democracy, who fail to see in Mr. Bryan's party what they have been taught to believe was the true democracy. The devotion to true democratic principles has been earnest and steadfast. They were the war horses of the party when Mr. Bryan, the present standard-bearer of that which is termed democracy, was in his reading cloister. They have been consistent followers of democratic teachings.

Had Fire at Sutherland.

NORTH PLATT, Neb., Aug. 5.—(Special)—The fire at Sutherland, Aug. 5, at Sutherland was burned at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, both building and stock being consumed. The postoffice was located in the same building and its contents are a total loss. How the fire started is not known, but it may have been caused by flying sparks from a locomotive. The building which was destroyed belonged to Postmaster C. W. Burkland and was valued at $1,000. The stock of goods, which was the property of J. A. Van Anden, is estimated to have been worth $1,000, on which there was insurance amounting to $2,000. The building itself was uninsured. Mr. Burkland owned the stock of goods as well as the building until about two months ago, when he sold the merchandise to the new proprietors.

Reunion Abandoned.

HOOPER, Neb., Aug. 5.—(Special)—There will be no reunion of the Dodge County Veterans' association this year. The matter was considered at a meeting of the executive committee, composed of Colonel T. W. Lyman and John Heine of Hooper, J. R. Cantin of Webster, J. A. Van Anden of Fremont, Van Baugart of Ridgeley and E. W. Hooker of Maple Creek, held here yesterday. Owing to the numerous other attractions and gatherings to be held this year it was deemed advisable to defer the reunion until next year, when the committee will meet next June to make the necessary arrangements.

A Poisonous Stragglers.

OGALA, Neb., Aug. 5.—(Special)—A number of the farmers in this county have lost cattle by getting into the sorghum or cane fields. No heavy losses have been reported, not more than one or two animals in a place, with the exception of one instance, which occurred last evening at the ranch of James Barnes, one mile east of town. The cattle broke through the fence while a boy was herding them. He drove them out as quickly as he could. Several animals were taken violently sick and eight of them died in a few minutes after eating the stuff.

MITCHELL WILL CELEBRATE

Season of Unusual Prosperity to Be Fitly Commemorated.

CORN PALACE ENTERPRISE IS REVIVED

Committee of Business Men Named to Carry Out the Details of the Great Harvest Home Show.

MITCHELL, S. D., Aug. 5.—(Special)—Mitchell has decided to hold a corn palace this year. The matter has been under discussion for several weeks and the people are strongly of the opinion that it would be a great thing for this part of the state. A meeting of the business men was held last evening at the call of the mayor. They were greatly enthusiastic over the proposition, and there was no dissenting voice when the various statements were made in reference to the project. The entire matter of the corn palace was placed in the hands of a committee of nine business men: L. O. Gale, N. L. Davison, T. C. Burns, L. Beckwith, A. E. Hildner, J. W. Mitchell, J. T. Morrow, William Koober and Mayor E. B. Van Alstine. The first four named had charge of the corn palace held in 1892 and 1893, and thoroughly understand what is desired in an affair of this kind.

It is designed to hold the affair in the latter part of September, in the building constructed eight years ago, but which will be changed somewhat to conform to the new ideas that are prevalent in reference to corn palaces. The committee will get to work at once to carry out the plan for an event which will surpass the best ever witnessed at Mitchell. It is believed that the two railroads centering in this city will co-operate with the committee in making it a hummer from the world go.

The crops in this county are the finest that have been raised in a number of years and it is the design to show to the eastern people that the country is in no wise short on the crop proposition in spite of the stories that have become popular in certain portions of the country east of here. Active steps were taken to select the best corn parties in different parts of the state to get their countries in readiness to compete for the county exhibits, which will have the effect of bringing to the attention of the outside world the products of the farm and which will also show the fact that there is much left in South Dakota. Liberal donations will be made by the business men, for they have had the experience of two corn palaces and they realize the importance of it to the country and to the people. Invitations were sent out to the business men and what their farmers can turn out even in a year when it is counted dry in other parts of the state.

The matter has been taken up with Colonel J. L. Torrey, who will act as the guest of honor, and Colonel Bryan and Colonel Roosevelt to attend the Frontier day celebration and participate in the reunion of the cowboy soldiers of the Spanish-American war. Thousands of people will be gathered here to attend the celebration and will undoubtedly be given an opportunity of seeing two of the greatest Americans of the day.

Stout Falls Plans a Festival.

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Aug. 5.—(Special)—There seems to be such a demand on the part of business men and citizens generally for some sort of a public entertainment this fall that it has been decided to call a meeting of the citizens some day during the coming week to take the preliminary steps for holding a street fair and base ball carnival the second week in September. The base ball club has contemplated holding a four or five days' carnival, and the Business Men's association has practically decided to hold a street fair at the same time. The ball teams from Grand, Rock Rapids and Madison already have agreed to participate in a four or five days' series, with two games each day. In addition to the street fair and ball games there would be a number of sports and amusements for the entertainment of those attending.

Colonel George has received an answer from Senator Hoar, which is this: "WORCESTER, Mass., July 31, 1900.—Colonel James A. George, Deadwood, S.
