

SOCIETY IS SORE-DISTRAUGHT

Members of Most Aristocratic Circles on Brink of Nervous Prostration.

PRECIOUS PHOTOGRAPHS ARE GONE

Had Been Entrusted to Two Nice Young Men, Who Were to Have Them Enlarged.

The stay-at-home element of Omaha's ultra fashionable, those who have eschewed the watering places to brave the heat, dust and noise of the city, are just at present undergoing something which approaches nervous prostration because of the deprivations of two swell young fellows who have been representing themselves as disciples of the Paul and Louis Marks of Chicago.

They are nearly as shrewd as the "Two Marks" of the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" show, and at least a score of the local creme de la creme feel as if they had been playing an unenviable role in the aggregation.

Edward A. Cudahy wonders if his chaste countenance will soon appear as the trade mark of a rival brand of soap. In his dream Stephen A. McWhorter sees himself in newspaper advertisements lending facial guaranty to his testimonial in behalf of Dr. Quackworthy's Petrolin Pills or Dr. Sawbones' Galvanic Guard.

These they would ask for a photograph of some member of the family to be enlarged or transferred to some other medium, preferably, pastel. As they had what appeared to be good references, they did a flourishing business.

The pictures were carried away and since then nothing has been heard of them. From information gathered by a reporter for The Bee, however, it is believed that the pictures were to be used as canvasser's samples.

Are Still Working. The "Two Marks" are still in the vicinity, though their exact whereabouts cannot be determined. They were at Dunn's livery barn last Friday and again Monday, saying they had driven in from Calhoun.

No organized attempt has been made to locate these dapper Marks. About ten days ago, however, Mrs. Bertha Sloan-Allen played the Sherlock Holmes role by going to the supposed address of the "Venus Art Institute," 211 North Eighteenth street, only to find there a $5-a-week boarding and rooming house.

Hollister Five No. 2, Ladies of the Macabees, will give a trolley party August 9. Cars leave Fourteenth and Harney streets at 8 p. m. Following will be an ice cream social at Mrs. Shaeffer's, 2714 Caldwell. All are invited.

COMPLETE FIRST SHIPMENT

Three Million Pounds of Nebraska Oats Journeying to Manila—Another Equal Amount Wanted.

The quickest work in forwarding grain for the horses of the United States army by the Department of the Missouri was that of John Wallace of the quartermaster's department in the shipment of 3,000,000 pounds of oats to San Francisco for use in the Philippines last week.

The entire shipment of seventy-six cars came from the farms of Nebraska and the sacks in which they were placed were manufactured in Omaha. The packing required for the shipment weighed 41,140 pounds and the oats were of the best quality, weighing from thirty-two and one-half to thirty-four and one-half pounds to the bushel.

Siege battery O left Fort Riley Monday night on its trip to China. Before it left three privates whose time will expire within eight months were transferred to other batteries.

Major Brad Slaughter is at Fort Crook today paying the troops at that post. The money to be paid out this month is about $10,000, against about $50,000 paid out last month.

NO HOPE OF RECOVERY

The Doctor Said, but Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

"My son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician who stands high in his profession. A delightful cure in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy after administering three doses of it my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va.

CONTRACTORS BEGIN ON ANNEX

Work of Excavating is Begun and Will Last Six Weeks—Plans for Handling Mails.

Sub-contractors yesterday began work on the annex of the federal building. Three teams are being used for excavating for the foundation and it is estimated that this work will require six weeks.

The last earth to be moved will be that under the driveway at the rear of the post-office and so long as that remains intact the mails will be handled as at present.

Two large doors and probably a small one will be placed in the south front, where the windows are located, and these doors will be used for all postoffice purposes as the rear ones are now used.

For Whopping Cough. "Both my children were taken with whopping cough," writes Mrs. O. E. Dutton, of Danville, Ill. "A small bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar gave such relief that I used a 50 cent bottle, which saved me a doctor's bill."

COOL WEATHER IN MOUNTAINS

Secretary Utt Has Been Searching for It, but Found It Not.

SAYS IT'S HOTTER THERE THAN IN OMAHA

Returns to the City in So Disagreeable a Condition that His Friends Fail to Recognize Him.

Secretary John E. Utt of the Commercial club returned yesterday from a visit of something over a week at Fontanelle, Wyo., accompanied by Mrs. Utt and his son Lee. He has been having a genuine "roughing it" outing and his personal appearance attested the fact in an unmistakable manner.

"I can't understand why people go to the mountains to find cooler weather," he said. "Why, up where I was during the day it was hotter than anything I ever experienced before. I had to ride overland from Opal to Fontanelle, thirty-five miles, through continuous sand, wherein the very rocks were afire. It took us six hours to cover the distance in a little open two-seated wagon with a span of mustang ponies. I went fishing one day and caught a lot of speckled trout. The Fontanelle river is as cold as ice and I stood in the water several hours in rubber boots. My head was blistering and my feet were freezing. When I got out I staggered home somehow and found that my pulse was running at 108 or thereabouts. I lay down and held the watch on it for a long time waiting for the final summons, but as usual the message that I longed for never came. But I caught a lot of trout."

"We were in a sheep country and on the thirty-five-mile drive we only passed one house. It was on a ranch. When I reached Omaha this morning I had a multi-colored beard that was an inch long and full of sand. My eyes were bleared and bloodshot and my lips parched black. I tell you I was a sight and my wife was ashamed to sit beside me on the train. The barber who shaves me regularly did not know me until he had taken away the accumulation of the trip and when our train reached Ames on the way home R. M. Allen of the best sugar factory at that point, with whom I am well acquainted, got aboard. As he walked through the car he gazed at me several times in a bewildered manner as if he thought he ought to know me, but he at last gave it up and went on. I didn't wince, for I was really ashamed to have him recognize me in that plight. The man who impersonates the tramp in the play was never in it with me. But don't you forget that I got the speckled trout good and plenty."

The American Workman. Much comparison has been made between the endurance of the Chinese and the American workman. Those with authority to speak say that the average workman of America is as superior to the Chinese as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is to any other dyspepsia cure.

The collections at the office of the collector of the internal revenue for the month of July show an increase of over $1,500 over the corresponding month last year.
