POLITICS AND FIELD SPORTS

Shooting and Elections Fairly Divide Attention in England.

CHANCE FOR LIVELY SEASON AT BOTH American Contingent Alone Saves the Cowes Regatta from Absolute Dullness—Lead in All Kinds of Craft.

(Copyright, 1900, by the Associated Press.) LONDON, Aug. 11.—While people in the United States are enduring severe heat waves the weather in this country has been extraordinarily cold.

Baron Russell of Killowen, who died as the result of an operation on Tuesday morning, was one of the most engaging and loving personalities in English public life.

Friends Help Him Out. "What you want to do," said one of his friends, "is to syndicate yourself and let a manager do the work for you."

This was actually done. A committee of friends paid off all debts, received all his income, gave him a large allowance and brought system into his accounts until he not only was free from debts, but had substantial investments in the funds.

A display advertisement is running in the daily papers signed by Lords Portsmouth, Kinnaird, Wimborne and Grimthorpe, appealing to the public for $250,000 to pay the expenses of organizing the electorate "so as to influence the general election" to prevent the Episcopal church reverting to the principles and practices of the church of Rome.

WHOLE EAST SEEMS ABLAZE

Unprecedented Heat Causes Many Deaths in the Crowded Cities.

MANY PERSONS CRAZED BY SUFFERING SUICIDES RESULTING FROM WEATHER CONDITIONS ARE NUMEROUS, WHILE EVERY LARGE CITY REPORTS MANY DEATHS.

(Continued from First Page.) TOLEDO, O., Aug. 11.—The heat record of Toledo was broken today when the mercury reached 92 at 2 p. m. The absolute record, regardless of time, is 95.

Minnie Muever, despondent and crazed by the heat, drank carbolic acid today and died in a few hours. Mrs. J. G. Ginter, in a fit of aberration caused by the intense heat, attempted to jump into the river.

The excessive heat is responsible for two deaths in Fremont. Mrs. Monke Anderson was prostrated and found dead in her room. A child of Charles Gallagher also died from the effects of the heat.

At Sandusky Henry Schepelin was overcome and died a few minutes after arriving home from work. Michael Murphy, foreman of the shops of the Sandusky Traction company, was a second victim. Sexton Ringholz of St. Mary's cemetery was overcome while digging a grave. He may recover, but a half dozen other prostrations are reported.

Captain William Gutzeit was sunstruck at Marblehead Junction and, becoming crazed, ran violently against a barbed wire fence, in which he became entangled. He was horribly mutilated in struggling to free himself. He died a few minutes later.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—Six deaths here were due to the heat today, the eighth day of the torrid spell, and there were twenty-five prostrations, three of which will prove fatal. The dead: Mrs. Mary Lyle James of Chicago; Lewis E. Dryden, of Thomas Ford; William McMillan and George Graham.

NO CLUE TO LANE'S MURDERER

Detectives Have So Far Been Unable to Solve Mystery Surrounding Messenger's Death.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 11.—The whole country along the Pennsylvania railroad between this city and Urbana is being scoured by officers in pursuit of the man who murdered Express Messenger Lane and robbed the way safe in his car last night.

All of the persons placed under surveillance today have been released. The aid of the police is being sought at Marble Cliff was found and gave a satisfactory account of his movements.

J. F. Hamilton, a farmer who lives at Raymond, O., called at police headquarters this afternoon and confessed to beating his way up the train from Mildred Center to Columbus. He claims he got on the front end of the first car and found two men on the platform. They got off at Plain City. Hamilton thinks he heard shots fired in the express car after the train passed Marble Cliff, but his story is not given any credence.

Nothing is known by the police here about the reported arrest of four men at Plain City charged with the murder of Lane. These men were placed under surveillance this morning to identify Hamilton, the farmer, who later called at police headquarters in this city and told his story. The men were allowed to go as soon as Hamilton's statement was secured.

MAKE NO MISTAKE

A Popular Place in Omaha Where Stomach Troubles, Lung Troubles, Catarrh and Kindred Ailments are Well Treated.

Dr. Shepard and Headrick Have Had an Experience of Many Years in These Diseases and Use the Latest Remedies and Appliances for Their Cure.

CATARRH This disease affects the mucous membrane which lines the mouth, nose, eyelids, throat, lungs, stomach, bowels, bladder, kidneys, testes, and bladder. It is a common ailment, and is often the result of a cold, or of an infection of the mucous membrane.

DEAFNESS The eustachian tube runs from back part of throat up into the ear, connecting with the ear drum. Catarrh begins to extend along lining of tube, eating its way, and the mucous discharge blocks up the tube, ears begin to buzz and roar, and as the tube becomes entirely blocked, a deafness ensues.

BRONCHITIS Your catarrh left untreated poisons the air you breathe into the lungs. Glands that secrete, dry up, and the result is an annoying, harsh, cough, and you find it difficult to breathe. Catarrh of the bronchial tubes and you will not have.

LUNG TROUBLE The bronchial tubes carry the air to your lungs. The catarrh extends along the lining of the bronchial tubes, then affects the lungs. It has reached the end of its march, and you are in danger of losing your life.

STOMACH TROUBLES You have catarrh in the head, nose and throat. Discharges drop back in the throat. You swallow it. It affects the swallow, extends down to stomach. Lining is affected, the stomach becomes inflamed, and you find it difficult to digest your food. Have sick headache, indigestion, and you will not have.

TO HAY FEVER SUFFERERS Now is the time to begin your hay fever treatment. Have the mucous membrane of nose and throat in a healthy condition. Use our special treatment for hay fever. It may not be necessary to take a long course of treatment, but a season's treatment to escape this most distressing malady.

HOME TREATMENT Write for information about taking a course of treatment at your home. In very many cases of common, curable disease this has proved entirely satisfactory. The charges are very low and uniform.
